The former ancient Court Book for this Manor (in which was entered the Notice for perambulating the Boundaries of the said Manor together with the perambulation) cannot now be found: The following Entries are copied from one of the Drafts of such Notice and perambulation found amongst the Court Papers of the said Manor

Whereas on or about the Thirtieth Day of July last Notice was given that the Lord of the Manor of Austwick in the County of York by himself and Agents together with such of the Freeholders and Customary Tenants of the said Manor as might think proper to attend would on the Thirteenth Day of August then next and now Instant perambulate the Boundaries and Limits of the Manor or Lordship of Austwick aforesaid when the Lords of the adjoining Manors or their Agents the Freeholders and Customary Tenants of the several adjoining Manors and Townships and all others in any Manner concerning or interested in such perambulation might attend if they thought proper. And Whereas the said perambulation was postponed in order to confer with John Ingleby Esquire or his Agents previous thereto, with whom it has since been agreed that the said perambulation should be on Friday next the Twenty third Day of August Instant: Notice is therefore hereby given that the Lord of the Manor of Austwick will on Friday next being the Twenty third Day of August \instant/ in Manner aforesaid ride and perambulate the Boundaries and Limits of the said Manor or Lordship when the Lords of the adjoining Manors and other above mentioned may attend if they think proper. Given under my Hand this seven(teenth) Day of August 1782

James Farrer Lord of the Manor of Austwick aforesaid

N.B. The perambulation will begin at or near Dudderhouse End near the Corner of Clapham Bottoms at 5 oclock in the morning

The Boundaries of the Manor of Austwick in the County of York, which were perambulated and rode on Friday the Twenty third Day of August 1782, by and in the presence of James Farrer Lord of the said Manor Thomas Wilkinson Steward and of Josias Morley Lord of the Manor of Clapham and several of the Tenants of the said Manor of Austwick and others (that Day having been agreed upon for the purpose with the Agent of John Ingleby Esquire, and Notice thereof previously given in writing to Henry Baldwin Bailiff for the Manor of Newby to David Swale Steward or Agent to the Lord of the Manor of Giggleswick and also posted up on the Church Door at Horton, and in the most public casual place in the Town of Austwick) Which said Boundaries were rode and walked in the same manner on the 26th and 27th June 1685 and again on the 11th of September 1719

This perambulation began at Duddenhouse Hill near the broken Wall which goes down to Clapham Bottoms from thence proceeded to Trace Hill and so in a lone to the White Stones, and from thence up to the Lord's Seat, then down Willen Cove Rake in Selside Fell Close to a Spring of Water issuing from under a small Rock in the said Fell Close, from thence to the Slack in Sulber, and so down Sulber Slack, then to Howgill White Rigg on Moughton, then to Trowgill Head so down Moughton to the Head of Coumes Close, then on the North side of the said Coumes Close \up a Rivulet? and across a meadow at the outcome of the said Coumes Close/ where a fence, formerly stood (and which Meadow or part thereof was heretofore part of the said Coumes Close) to Otterpool Bridge, Then to Cowfore or Midd stream in Ribble, so to the Hanging stone on Swarth ~ # Moor, then up the Southside on Swarth Moor to Sump Pott, so to a Hurdle of Stones on the North West end of Middleber then to some Stones a little above Middleber Cove so to Buckhow Cove, there to the Lords Stones upon the Riggs under Scar so to Mirk Steel, which was formerly at the South Corner of Tinkler Ing Field at Armitstead and is now in a little Wood at the South side of the said Field, there to overstub Gate so to the Water Grass Garth, there to the Resting Stone and so about Forty Yards within the Wall erected by Mr. Clapham Inclosing a part of Guy Fell up to the Height of Bolland Knotts from thence betwixt Clapham Lordship and Austwick Lordship to Fryer Dyke, and a small stone Quarry heretofore a Hurdle of stones on Dovenanter, so to and down Dubsyke then to Housestead at Lawsings, part whereof and the Barn adjoining it, are within the Manor of Austwick from thence to Clapham Beck Foot and by the House at Bowsber and the Top of the small Hill near the Cock House across the Turnpike Road to the Dubble Dike in Wescoe, thence by the Wall dividing Austwick Thwaite and Clapham Thwaite to the Standing Stone on Birkbank and the Arks on Ravensber, then to Lisakell Well, so to F..... Fold otherwise Fairy Fold being the nearest Boundary Mark to Dutterhouse End, whence the Perambulation commenced and to which place the Boundary of Austwick extends in a straight Line.

We whose Names are subscribed attended the said perambulation on the Day and in the manner above mentioned.

The following was a note in the margin at this point

Note. Some of the Inhabitants of Horton claimed a part of Moughton to be in their Parish of Horton- very heavy Rain and a Thick Fog rendered it very difficult to find the Lines on Moughton and unavoidably accasioned some deviation in going to Trowgill head & the corner of Coumas Close.

Note. Mr. Columbus Ingleby as Agent for John Ingleby Esq. attended the perambulation from Moughton to the Hanging Stone on Swarth Moor, and at that place alledged that the Liberties of Feizor commenced and discharged the within named James Farrer from proceeding-James Farrer disregarded the discharge claimed the Manor of Austwick as extending from that Stone as within mentioned, and proceeded on the perambulation accordingly.
