Giggleswick. Pleas in the same place on the 11th day of October 35 Elizabeth [1593]

Richard Braishey complains against John Armitsted in a plea of detinue of one pair of Cowpe raithes to the value of 5s which he lent him, to be redelivered when it might be required, and he has not redelivered them although often required, as he says. The defendant says that he neither borrowed them from the complainant nor withholds them in the manner and form alleged to the local jury. We fynd Jhon Armestead gyltie 3s.

Isabel Preston widow, executrix of the will of William Preston, complains against Robert Carre of Giggleswick in a plea that he owes her 20d which he unjustly withholds and ought to have rendered to the same William at the time of his death, which is in arrears out of the price of malt, and for equipment, as she says. The defendant acknowledges 18d and the complainant is content.

George Lawson complains against Robert Crake in a plea of trespass because the same defendant broke the soil of the same complainant, and trampled and wasted the crops growing thereupon, at Longlandes Head in Giggleswick in 35 Elizabeth, with his plough and cart, and carried out other enormities against him, to the damage of the said complainant of 3s 4d as he says. The defendant says that the place where he is supposed to have trespassed is his usual way for carrying his crops and dung from Saltraines and Sandholmes to Giggleswick, and that he came into the same place with his plough just as etc. And he puts himself upon the local jury about this. And the complainant likewise. The deff[endan]t not giltie.

George Lawson complains against John Armitsted in a plea of trespass because the same defendant broke the soil of the same complainant, and trampled and wasted the crops growing thereupon, at Longland Heades in Giggleswick in 35 Elizabeth, with his plough and cart, and carried out other enormities against him, to the damage of 3s 4d as he says. The defendant says that the place where he is supposed to have trespassed is the usual way for the defendant for his cart of crops ...

Thomas Hall complains against Hugh Claphamson in a plea of debt of 5s 10d ...

Thomas Carre complains against Christopher Cockett in a plea of debt of 2s 4d... We fynde Christopher Cockett nott gyltie & Thomas Hall in beleve ...
