GIGGLESWICK BAND AT HAWES IN 1923

CRAVEN HERALD AND PIONEER – FRIDAY MARCH 15 2002

Snapshot of Craven from bygone years

OUR report last week on the 50th anniversary of Settle and Giggleswick Brass Band has prompted member Kenneth Smith to send in this old picture of the group. The photograph was taken in 1957 at Settle's Victoria Hall, and four of those pictured are still in the band today. They are Kenneth Smith, Donald Wall, John Ball and Dennis Howarth. No doubt they will be playing at the anniversary concert being staged tomorrow (Saturday) at the Victoria Hall, Settle. The showcase of band music starts at 7.30pm and tickets are available on the door or
