May it please your honors to be adv(er)tised that whereas by vertue of his Ma(ties) Commission out of his maiesties Courte of Duchie of Lancaster directed to Robert Dalton William Lowther Esquires James Hill and Henry Wiglesworth gentlemen, wee whose names are hereunder wrytten, were impanelled and sworne to enquire of the extents of the boundaries betweene the severall manors of Clapham and Awstwicke, and the manor of Newby and the towne of Selsyde pcell thereof by view evidence and pambulacon, and to sett out the same boundaries by knowne meares and markes. Now wee the said Jurors in discharge of our oathes and due pformance of our service(?) in that behalfe, after full view and pambulacon of the same boundaries and after a full and deliberate pusall of all the deposicons taken on both sydes and havinge beene fully instructed by sixe of the deponents whoe in their owne psons were wth us upon the mores and wastes and directed the said boundaries from one marke to another, have marked and meared out the commons mores and wastes belo(nging) to the towne of Selside from the Commons and wastes belonginge to the severall manors of Cl(apham) and Awstwicke as followeth. First wee fynde that the boundarie called Crombock heade is an ancient boundarie betweene the manor of Awstwicke and the towne of Selside, and have sett downe a pfect meare and marke there. Alsoe wee fynde that the styte called Horton styte leadinge betweene the saide boundarie called Crombocke heade to within the wall made on the east syde of Clapdale is also an ancient boundarie as wee have likewyse sett downe meares and markes to leade the same. And wee likewyse fynde the said Fower graynes at Clapdale heade to be another ancient meare or boundarie deviding betweene the manor of Clapham and the wastes belonginge to the said towne of Selside, where wee have alsoe made another marke to devide the said wastes at one of the said Fower graynes directly along the syde of duder(es?) hill and from the last named marke directlie by a lyne to an hole called the sumpe hole and from the Sumpe hole directly to another meare or boundarie called the Lordes seate all which said meares and markes wee fynde by the evidence brought to us to marke a pfect boundarie betweene the said wastes or Commons from the said boundarie called the heade of Crombock heade to the Lordes seate. And which wee thought it good and necessarie to certifie as by the said Commission wee are enioyned and So wee humbly take our leaves this xvith of September 1618.
