Snapshot of Craven from bygone years

OUR photograph this week shows youngsters from Helwith Bridge Sunday School.

The photograph was taken in the late 1930s and has been loaned by Nellie McMahon (nee Metcalfe), of Skipton.

She is not on the picture, but was one of the Sunday School leaders at the time.

As there was no church in Helwith Bridge, the group would meet in the school hall.

The members are pictured here in the yard of the school, which has since closed.

The two men in the centre of the photograph are Sunday School leaders Mr Burrows and Mr Harrison.

Among the other names Mrs McMahon can recall are Rita, Steven and Shirley Wildman, David and Colin Booth, Maude and John Huddleton, Peter and Tony Roberts.
