Names of the Jurors      Inquisition taken <in the same place> for our Lady the Queen and the lord of the aforesaid manor by the corporal oath of Jo... .., William Preston, George Lawson, Richard Brashay, Oliver Newhowse, ... Tompson, Roger Carr, Robert Fathroppe, Thomas Taylour, James Jackes, ... .., John Brashey, William Browne, Robert Kellet [and] Thomas Foster, jurors,

[Who say], upon their corporal oath,

That William <3s 4d> Tailour made an affray upon Christopher Cockett, within the jurisdiction of this court, against the peace of our Lady the Queen,

And that Christopher <3s 4d> Cockett drew blood upon the same William [Tailour] ... affray, against the peace aforesaid, Therefore they are in mercy, by the moderation of the Steward, as appears above their names.

Item the aforesaid jurors say that William <5s> Catterall esquire cut down and carried away three young ashes from the wood ... .. without right and licence. Therefore he is in mercy by the assessment of the court.

Item the aforesaid jurors say that ... .. cut down and carried away one stunted [curtatum] oak from the lord's wood at Brakanber without ... .. assessment, as appears.

Item the aforesaid jurors say that William <4d> Wilson and Adam <4d> Wilson ... their horses by night against the order of the burleymen. Therefore each of them is in mercy, as appears.

Item the aforesaid jurors say that Richard <12d> Burton made a trespass in The Narreclose with three beasts against the order of the burleymen ...

Item they say that Thomas <8d> Hall, John <8d> Armitsted and Robert <8d> Crake made a trespass in The Narreclose with beasts, that is to say, with their geese, against the order. Therefore they are in mercy, as appears etc.

Item they say that Richard <4d> Braishey junior did not make the gate of his close at the end of the town of Giggleswick called Narre Close Yeate according to the order, therefore he is in mercy.

Pains

Voided by the jurors at the court on 29 September in the 33rd year

Item the aforesaid jurors have imposed a pain that the pinder of the aforesaid town, or his assigns, should annually (for the time being) use scythe and sickle, or cause them to be used, on The Pinder Ynge, as they were previously used, and not otherwise, under a pain for each default of 3s 4d.

Voided by the jurors at the court on 2 May in the 35th year of Elizabeth

Item whereas a certain close called The Newclose in Giggleswick has been enclosed for the space of forty years now past, and the fence thereof is known ... to each tenant his part, and lately it has not been sufficiently maintained, the aforesaid jurors have imposed a pain that each of the aforesaid tenants should cause their separate parts of the fence of the aforesaid close to be repaired and maintained at all times of the year, under a pain for each default of 12d. And they have imposed a similar pain for the making and repair of the fence of the close called Brakanber Close.

Pleas in the same place on the 14th day of October in the 32nd year of the reign of our Lady Elizabeth, Queen of England etc.

Jenet Heyton of Settle, through Roger Armytsed her pledge, complains against Thomas Hall of Giggleswick in a plea of trespass, whereby the same defendent entered into half of one close <of the said complainant> lying at a certain place called Nyckall at Armytsed, and took the produce growing there and turned it the use of the same defendant,

Although the same defendant promised the complainant that he would allow either occupation thereof or satisfy her in felled wood for the same.

The same defendant, however, has neither <permitted her to have> occupation, nor has he satisfied the said complainant according to his promise first made in respect thereof, to the damage of the same complainant of 15s as she says.

The defendant is summoned by the bailiff but does not appear, in contempt of court.

Therefore he is in mercy 12d.

At the second court the defendant says that he did not promise in [such] manner and form.

[To be heard] by a local jury.

The jurors in the same place say that the defendant made a trespass, to the damage of 3s 6d.

Thomas Preston of Giggleswick complains against Roger Fathroppe of the same in a plea of detinue of 2s which he owes him and unjustly withholds, to be paid for his manual labour etc, as he says. The parties have agreed and default in court.

Thomas Taylour complains against Thomas Carr of Rathmell in a plea of trespass whereby when the same complainant dug <certain> rocks, in English called stones, at The Cragge upon Bushaw Mosse, to put to his own necessary use, the same defendant entered the aforesaid place and took the aforesaid stones, and carried them away and turned them to his, the same defendant's, own use, to the damage of the same complainant of 10s, as he says.

[It is] put to the order of Thomas Bankes and Roger Carr, to be decided before the 17th day of October instant.

At the second court the parties agree and both are in mercy according to arbitration.

Richard Brashawe complains against Richard Carr of Granehowse in a plea of trespass whereby the same defendant entered into a certain parcel of land of the said complainant at Clovenstones in Giggleswick aforesaid, and cultivated the same to the value of six foote, and took and carried away the crop growing thereupon, and turned it to the use of the same defendant <for the space of two years>, and other offences, to the damage of the same complainant of 8d.

It is adjourned to the next court by the consent of the parties.

At the second court the defendant says he is not guilty.

[To be heard] by a local jury.

The jurors say that the defendant made a trespass to the damage of 1d.

John Hudson of Giggleswick complains against Thomas Hall of the same in a plea of trespass whereby when the same defendant took it upon himself and faithfully promised that he, the same complainant, might occupy a certain parcel of land at Armytsted and take the produce growing thereupon or he would pay him 25s,

However, although the same complainant often asked for occupation of the aforesaid land or the aforesaid 25s, yet the same defendant always refused to do that, and still does refuse, to the damage of 25s, as he says.

The defendant is summoned by the bailiff and does not appear, in contempt of court.

Therefore he is in mercy 12d.

At the second court the defendant says that he did not promise in [such] manner and form.

[To be heard] by a local jury.

The jurors say that the parties have agreed and the defendant is in mercy.

page 38a Image E32c cont'd

Christopher Cockett complains against William Taylour in a plea of trespass whereby the same defendant entered into a certain parcel of land of the said complainant at Mayneshedd in Giggleswick aforesaid, and took and carried away hay lying and being in the same place to the value of thre plattes, and to the use etc, to the [damage] of the same complainant of 3s 4d as he said.

Defendant not guilty.

To a local jury. We fynd Wylllyam Tayler in ...

Thomas Burton complains against William Craven in a plea of detinue of a coverlet ... .. was delivered to him by the aforesaid complainant to look after, and on the day when [it was] to be given back ... .. and gave back as ~~he says~~ neither the coverlet nor the aforesaid 4s 6d ... <...> for ... [to] the damage of 4s 6d

Defendant did not withhold it.

To a local jury.

John Burton and Elizabeth Carr widow complain against John Armitsted, dyer, in a plea whereby the same defendant [entered] into a certain close of the said complainants called The Calfe <Close>, which the same complainants had demised to them, amongst other things, by the noble George, Earl of Cumberland,

And the aforesaid defendant entered the aforesaid [close] and took the produce growing thereupon for one whole year now past, and turned it [to the use] of the same defendant, and other offences, to the damage of 13s 4d, as he says.

[It is put to the order] of Christopher ..., Thomas Banckes and Robert Craike, to be decided before the next court to be held in the same place.

William Craven complains against Thomas Burton in a plea of debt of 5s which he unjustly withholds, that is to say, 3s 4d in arrears from the price of one cow which was bought from the same, ... .. for one saddle, in English a saddle, to be paid etc, as he says.

To a local jury.

it ... .. & Wyll[ya]m Craven in beleve

James Armytsed, through Thomas Brashey his pledge, complains against Thomas Carr in a plea of trespass, because the same defendant did not build his ditch at Caplesyd Carr in Rathmell,

~~as agreed, and it was agreed between them by an award~~ from which the same complainant suffered great damage, that is to say 10s, as he says.

~~The defendant not guilty by a local jury~~

To the order of Robert Crake and Richard Radcliff.

Both in mercy.

Roger Armitsted complains against Thomas Hall in a plea of trespass because the same defendant with his cows depastured and consumed the crop of the said complainant, being in stacks, at Armitstede, to the value of 40 staks, and other offences, to the damage of the same complainant of 10s, as he says.

The defendant is summoned by the bailiff and does not appear, in contempt of court.

Therefore he is in mercy 12d.

At the second court the defendant acknowledges the trespass, and for damages to a local jury.

The jurors say that the defendant made a trespass against the complainant to the damage of 2s.

Adam Browne complains against Christopher Kokett in a plea of debt of 36s 8d which he owes him and unjustly withholds, payable for one horse bought from the same complainant etc, as he says.

The defendant acknowledges the whole debt.

To this court comes Robert Shute and shows an acquittance dated the 26th day of September 1590, by which it appeared that the same Robert was to be admitted tenant of various parcels of land, with one barn  $\text{œ}$ , by the assignment of Richard Radclif, gentleman, and a parcel of a tenement specified in a certain indenture of demise made by the late Earl of Cumberland to a certain John Atkinson for the term of seven years (amongst other things) as yet unfinished, and of which the same Robert was to have the lord's warranty, at an annual rent of 5s. Gersum according to the aforesaid acquittance. Paid in part, 50s. William Ferrand

To the same court comes Thomas Dockrey and shows a similar acquittance dated the 10th day of October 1590 by which it appeared that the same Thomas was to be admitted tenant of a parcel of one messuage lately granted to John Atkinson by the assignment of Richard Radclif to the same Thomas, which messuage, indeed, is of the annual rent of 28s 8d, and he paid for entry £11 17s 1d. Giggleswick

6th day of May in the 32nd year of Queen Elizabeth

James Eshe of Laikland complains against Richard Burton of Giggleswick in a plea of ~~debt of~~ 9s 8d trespass whereby when John Burton was indebted to the same James in the sum of 8s 8d for one stone of wool bought by him, John, from the same James.

The same Richard, at Settle, in consideration that the aforesaid James would release the same John from the aforesaid debt, <faithfully promised to the same James, and took it upon himself,> that then the same Richard would well and faithfully pay and satisfy the said 8s 8d to the same James on a certain day now past,

And although the same James has often asked the for the aforesaid John to be released from the debt, and for the aforesaid Richard to pay the said 8s 8d, according to the promise etc, this however the aforesaid Richard has refused to pay, to the damage of 10s, as he says.

Pledge for prosecuting, Roger Armitsted.

Not guilty according to the local jury.

It is voided upon the court's examination, because nothing is proved in [such] manner and form.

William Armitsted of Laikland complains against William Wilson of Giggleswick in a plea of

of 13s 2d which he owes him and unjustly withholds <in arrears of and> for the rent of various parcels of land in Laikland demised to him by the same complainant for one year etc, as he says.
