Peace Thanksgiving Service.—On Sunday afternoon last a united thanksgiving service was held on the Cricket Ground, when a large gathering of people attended. The service was conducted by the vicar (the Rev. W. E. Linney), and the Revs. L. J. Malkinson (Congregationalist), G. Yates (Wesleyan), and R. R. Rickers (Primitive Methodist). The music was provided by the Settle Brass Band, under the leadership of Mr. J. Bilton. As the people left the field a collection was made on behalf of the Settle Branch of the Comrades of the Great War and realised a good sum.

ENTHUSIASM AT LANGCLIFFE.

On Monday night the villagers turned out in fine style to celebrate the signing of peace. A procession was formed of characters both ancient and modern, sailors dressed as in the days of Nelson, soldiers from the time of Waterloo to the present date. There were also Professors of Music, Old English gentlemen, Irish Colleens, Japanese, Chinese, Nuns, Nurses, and others too numerous to mention. The procession, headed by the village band, started from the Big Tree and proceeded by Langcliffe Hall, Paper Mill, Locks, Langcliffe Place, to Settle, where the townspeople had a pleasant surprise. Collecting boxes in aid of the Band funds were well patronised, and a goodly sum will be handed over. The procession returned by 10-30, when the band played for dancing by torchlight, and the most comical couples could be seen doing the "Jazz" in the heartiest fashion until late on into the night. Thanks were expressed to the band, and to all who had taken part, especially the "Charlie Chaplin" character. The villagers hope to surpass themselves when the peace celebrations take place.

Settle Peace Festivities

SETTLE.

Peace celebrations commenced here in good time. Many of the juniors determined to start the night before the 19th, and on Friday night an air of excitement might have been observed in Upper Settle, where the ladies entertained to a first-class supper the discharged soldiers, sailors, and men on leave in the Wapping Hall, a no mean supper either, for the king of all fish (salmon) gleamed resplendent beside the toothsome "bunny," not to mention the first fruits of the well-cultivated allotments in the way of prize-winning earlies; then to the National School, where a victory and fancy dress ball organised by the Settle Branch of the Comrades of the Great War took place, 250 persons being present in attractive dresses. The four first prizes given by the committee were won by Miss Gilchrist as a Dutch girl, Mrs. Tomlinson (Settle) as a lady of the early Victorian period, Mr. Render (Settle) as an Armenian refugee, and Mr. W. Bulcock (Giggleswick) as an English maid. Special prizes were awarded to Miss Nuttall, "Shuttlecock and battledoor"; Miss Thornber, "Packets of seeds"; Miss Allan, "England and France"; Miss Hall; Miss Fell, "Gipsy"; Miss Knowles, "Weldon's fashions"; Miss Tomlinson, "Ivy leaves"; Mr. J. Easter, "Charlie Chaplin"; Mrs. Mounsey, "Charwoman"; Mr. Moore, jun., "John Bull"; Messrs. Close and Stoope, "Artistes of the Latin Quarter"; Mr. F. Brassington, "Robin Hood"; Messrs. Syers and Foster, "Old country folk"; Mr. and Mrs. Render, "Armenians." Extra special prizes: Mr. J. Maunders, "Turk"; Miss N. Williams, "Eastern lady"; Miss Wilson, "Eastern lady." The prizes in the respective classes were given by the following: W. F. Clark, Mr. J. Moore, Mrs. Cresswell, Mr. Renshaw, Mrs. Nicholson, Miss Williams, Col. Birkbeck, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Birkbeck, Mrs. J. Birkbeck, Mr. Renshaw. The judges were: Ladies, Mrs. Nicholson (Ingfield Hall), Mrs. Cresswell, and Miss Williams; gentlemen, Mr. W. F. Clark, Mr. J. Moore, Mr. C. Renshaw, Mrs. J. Birkbeck presented the prizes. The music was supplied by Wilson's band to the evident appreciation of those who "tripped the light fantastic toe" until 2 a.m., and "so to bed," as Pepys would say, "tired, but well content."

On Saturday the programme was arranged by the War Memorial Committee, and afforded deep and general satisfaction. The weather in the morning appeared very threatening, but cleared towards mid-day and became all that could be desired. Early in the afternoon the children assembled in the Market Place, and, headed by the Settle Brass Band, marched to the Archery Field, where an interesting programme of sports was carried out. Distance running, egg and spoon, skipping, and potato races and other open competitions took place, and numerous prizes were offered. Subsequently the children under nine left for tea served in the National Schoolroom, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, and here a capable band of voluntary helpers, under the supervision of Mrs. J. W. Dugdale and Mrs. Malor, provided an ample repast. The older children were marshalled into procession and later left the field for tea, which was followed by the sports, in which the humorous competitions occasioned much amusement. Shortly after seven o'clock the streets began to fill, and a large number of visitors from the immediate neighbourhood were attracted by the fancy dress parade. This was undoubtedly one of the finest displays seen in Settle. The procession started from Overdale, headed by the Band, and paraded the principal streets. The competitors included numerous historical and national characters, comic representations, and five clever tableaux mounted on vehicles—one from Giggleswick representing "Peace," arranged by Miss Hird, with Miss M. E. Brassington in the title role; "Victory," arranged by Misses Ward; "John Bull and Co.," with Mr. W. F. Clark as John Bull, supported by England, Scotland, Ireland, and Wales, with representatives of the army and navy; and a decorated motor car "conveying the ex-Kaiser to St. Helena," closely guarded by stalwart looking soldiers and police, an "incident" arranged by Messrs. Lamb entitled "How are the mighty fallen." The Settle Ambulance Division surpassed all previous efforts in their delightful setting of a ward room scene, with nurses in attendance. It is estimated there were over 350 entrants, and the judging, which took place on the Cricket Field, was witnessed by about 3,000. The following were declared winners, and were presented with prizes by Mrs. Nicholson, Ingfield Hall:—Best tableaux (mounted), "Victory," the Misses Ward; 2, "John Bull and Co., Mr. W. F. Clark; ladies' best fancy costume, 1 Mrs. Harrison ("Lady of early Victorian period"), 2 Miss M. Marsden ("Tango girl"), 3 Miss Whitehead ("Witch"); gents' fancy costumes, Mr. and Miss Tomlinson ("Mephistopheles and Peace"), 2 Mr. G. Cox ("Japanese lady"), 3 Mr. Render ("Armenian") and Mr.

GIGGLESWICK PEACE CELEBRATIONS.

19th JULY, 1919.

Giggleswick,
16th July, 1919.

Dear Sir,

As a mark of grateful appreciation of the services which you have rendered in the great struggle for "right against might," the Committee appointed, on behalf of the inhabitants of Giggleswick, to arrange the proceedings for the public Celebration of the Declaration of Peace, cordially invite you to take part in the Festivities to be held on Saturday, the 19th instant. They will esteem it a great favour if you will occupy a position in the procession, and will also partake of tea to be served in the Provided Schools at 4-0 p.m.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

W. J. ROBINSON,

Hon. Secretary to the Committee.

GIGGLESWICK.
A JOYFUL PEACE DAY.

The Peace celebrations at Giggleswick were held on Saturday. About nine o'clock in the morning the bells of the old Parish Church rang out merry peals. The inhabitants had decorated the exterior of their houses, and the village was quite en fete, the village Cross, as usual, having its display of bunting, etc. At ten o'clock the inhabitants assembled at the Cross, where the National Anthem was heartily sung. A fancy dress parade and procession was afterwards formed, and, headed by the Giggleswick Brass Band, perambulated the village by way of Bell Hill, the Mains, Stackhouse, Bank Well, the Workhouse, and the Giggleswick School Grounds. At halting places en route the national airs of the Allies were sung, and at the School ground, through the kind invitation of the Headmaster, the fancy dress parade was drawn up on "The Flat" for judging. There was a large and varied number of characters and the judges (Mrs. Douglas and Miss Benson) had some difficulty in making their awards as follows:—Sentimental (open): Miss M. and E. Mason (nurse and wounded soldier), 2 Master J. and Miss Moore (John and Mary Bull), 3 Miss L. Kilburn (Victorian period), consolation Mr. Fred Brassington (Robin Hood). Comic: Mr. H. Heaton and Miss Heaton (Italian organ grinder and wife), 2 Miss M. Garrett (private secretary), 3 Mrs. W. Baynes (Welsh girl), consolation Mr. J. Wright (unemployed), special A. Hallam ("Old 'Erb."). Children's comic class: T. Cox (Dick Whittington), 2 D. Silverwood (jester), 3 Jas. Hartley (Chinaman), consolation H. Hudson (Indian). Children's sentimental class: Irene Barwick (early Victorian), 2 Frank Merckel (naval), 3 K. Baynes (Serbian), consolation C. I. Robinson (fairy). In the afternoon varied sports took place on the Giggleswick School Football Field (kindly lent by the Governors), selections being rendered by the Band. Tea was provided between the hours of four and six p.m. for the children of the elementary school, or under 15 years of age; to all old people over 60 years of age; and to all returned sailors and soldiers. Afterwards, on the Football Field, there was provision for dancing for adults, whilst the children played games and took part in further sports. "Aunt Sally" also proved an attractive feature. Prizes were given for the best decorated house, Messrs. Peachell and Teversham being the judges, and their awards were:—Mr. J. W. Bentham, 2 Mr. J. Wright, 3 Mr. J. Hodgson. In the procession Messrs. C. H. Jenkinson (as an Army officer), Thos. H. Brassington (as huntsman) and W. Pratt (as groom to officer) acted as marshals. A special prize was given to a tableaux on a lorry representing "Peace, Truth, and Justice," surrounded by a group carrying the Allied flags. The representations were very symbolical, and tastefully arranged. A very enjoyable day was spent, and large numbers attended from Settle and district to witness the procession. It is understood that through the kindness of Miss Stansfeld, each child is to be presented with a medal specially struck to commemorate the day. Owing to lack of time these could not be procured in time for the day, but will be given later.

Newton, Lena Preston, Kate Simpson, Mollie Newton, Dorothy Simpson, Mary Bolland, Annie Bolland, Florence Schofield, Nancy Earnshaw, Joan Earnshaw, George Richardson. A "Mounted Infantry" race, prizes for which were given by Mr. Smith, proved a very interesting feature. The married men's race was won by Mr. Taylor, 2 Mr. Smith, 3 Mr. H. Parker; and the married ladies race by Mrs. Smith, 2 Mrs. H. Preston, 3 Mrs. J. Walker (Skellands); and the ladies race by Miss Taylor, 2 Miss Rickards, 3 Miss Rose Thwaite. A cricket match between married and single resulted in a draw.

After the sports an excellent tea was provided in the Wesleyan Schoolroom, the trays being in charge of Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. C. Metcalfe, Mrs. W. Bell, Mrs. Dinsdale, Miss Taylor and Miss Rickards, with Mrs. K. Earnshaw in charge of the provision room. All aged or sick people were remembered, receiving an assortment of the good things provided.

After the tea a public meeting was held in the Council School, when the scholars opened the programme by singing the song "What do I owe to England?" Following this a Scandinavian dance was given by some of the scholars, a short address was given by Mr. R. K. Richardson, and the prizes were distributed by Mr. E. Taylor. In addition to the money prizes, special prizes consisting of books, knives, sweets, handkerchiefs, &c., were given by Mr. Taylor and Mr. Smith. Special praise is due to the teachers (Miss Thompson and Miss Thwaite), and the Ladies Committee, for the excellent arrangements.

Two books were given to the School library by Mrs. Morkill, of Newfield Hall, who has also kindly promised to give to each scholar a book as a memento of the Peace Celebrations. Votes of thanks were passed to all who had rendered help, also to Mr. Taylor for the loan of the field. Short addresses were given by Mr. Taylor and Mr. J. Walker, of Skellands, bearing on the war.

One of the scholars (Dick Thwaite), on behalf of the school, proposed a very hearty vote of thanks to all who had contributed to such a happy day. After hearty cheers by the scholars the National Anthem was sung.

CLAPHAM.

Peace Celebrations.—The village was early astir in anticipation of the Peace celebrations. The only question was: Would it rain, or would the sunshine favour the festivities? Happily about three o'clock there was every promise of the latter prevailing, and a most enjoyable afternoon and evening was spent by all concerned. A committee of ladies, under Mrs. W. Metcalfe, had provided a very substantial tea for the children, some 120 of whom partook of a most excellent fare, and did full justice to the "spread" before them. After tea sports were held in a field behind the New Inn and were most thoroughly enjoyed by old and young—boys' and girls' races, skipping, tug-of-war, etc. At the conclusion of this part, the Vicar (Canon Rawdon Briggs) thanked all who had contributed to the success of the entertainment. The soldiers were invited to a supper at 7-30 in the New Inn, provided by Mr. A. E. Carter, at which speeches were made by the Vicar, Lieut. Sidney Farrer, and Dr. Lovett. Dancing was continued during the evening, and after eleven o'clock some went one way, some another, to view the illuminations on Ingleborough, which were pronounced to have been the best they had seen, an everybody went home thoroughly satisfied with the Peace celebrations of 1919.

HELLIFIELD.

The peace day festivities were held on Saturday, the weather being very favourable. The village was gaily decorated with flags and bunting, and it was evident that everyone was bent on having a good time. Assembling at the station at 1-30 p.m., the judging of the various classes was proceeded with, the adjudicators being Mrs. Nicholson and Rev. A. J. Whyte, whose task was by no means an easy one. Prizes were awarded as follows: Best fancy dressed girl: 1, Florrie Lewis ("Flags of victory"); 2, Bessie Bownass ("Good luck"). Best fancy dressed boy: 1, Henry Higgins ("Dr. Quack"); 2, Jas. Brogdon ("Bridegroom"). Best comical pair: 1, Miles Kinder and Ed. Barton ("Rags and bones"); 2, J. W. Robinson and W. Garrod ("End of a perfect day"). Decorated mail cart with baby: Mrs. P. Anderton. Comical mail cart: Dora Fairhurst ("Meat supply"). Best decorated cycle: 1, Miss May Riding; 2, Miss Marjorie Wilson. Fancy dressed woman: 1, Mrs. Drury ("Dick Whittington and cat"); 2, Miss Lois Walker ("Egyptian Princess"). Fancy dressed man: 1, Major Coates ("Robin Hood"); 2, Edgar Smith ("Indian Prince"). A special feature in the children's classes was that of the village wedding, characterised by Mr. Grierson (minister), Jas. Brogdon (bridegroom), Hilda Lewis (bride), John and Maurice Hoar (page boys), Ethel and Janie Grime, Kathleen Hodgson, and Florrie Tuffin (bridesmaids). The procession started soon after two o'clock, and, headed by the Clitheroe Band, proceeded in the following order:—Members of the Parish Council, the demobilised soldiers and sailors, local Cadets, scholars, fancy dressed girls and boys, decorated mail carts, decorated bicycles, comical pairs, fancy dressed women, fancy dressed men, ladies' and men's Ambulance Brigades, and the public. The route was to The Peel, where Mr. W. Nicholson handed cigars to the soldiers, sailors, and the public, and gave each child a new sixpence. The procession returned to the village, and then to the Auction Mart, where pennies were given to the children by Miss Peel and Miss Dugdale. A sumptuous tea had been prepared by the ladies, and the children, the soldiers and sailors, and their wives, and all residents over 60 years of age, were catered for first. There was a plentiful supply of energetic helpers, so that there was no delay of any kind during the whole time. In the evening sports were held. The children's events had been arranged by the Band of Hope committee, whilst the members of the Sports Committee conducted the sports for adults. One of the most popular events was a pillow fight. Selections were given by the Clitheroe Band, under the conductorship of Mr. Bert Cross. A bonfire was lighted on the Haw at the official hour.

STAINFORTH.

PEACE REJOICINGS.

Owing to the closing of the day school for a period of ten weeks, the rejoicings in connection with the signing of Peace could not take place. The Medical Officer of Health having notified the scholars free from "carrying" diphtheria and able to go to school, the committee decided to hold the festivities on Friday evening and Saturday last.

On Friday evening, although stormy, a delightful dance was held in the New Hall and was well attended, Mr. H. Wilson's Band being engaged.

Saturday was very chilly but fine, and the village was gaily decorated. At 2-30 p.m. the children, teachers and committee met the Langcliffe Band at Taitland's gates. Marched round the drive and through the village to the sports field, kindly lent by Mr. Mitton.

After some of the sports, the children had a free tea in the New Hall. Before leaving the Hall, Mrs. im Thurn, on behalf of Mr. Knowles, presented to each child a huge copper medal commemorative of the signing of Peace at Versailles, and also a large tin of sweets. The Vicar, after recalling the many acts of kindness to the children by Mr. Knowles, called for hearty cheers, which were readily given. A splendid free tea was provided for all the villagers, and the ladies, who had the matter in hand are to be congratulated on their success in providing such a large and varied assortment of good things.

In the field the band supplied music for dancing. A good programme of sports for children and adults had been arranged, and the events were keenly contested, especially the tug-of-war, high jump, long distance race, women's race, and wheel-barrow race. At dusk dancing was indulged in until late at the New Hall.

On Sunday the services were of a thanksgiving nature, and prayers were offered for those who had fallen to win victory. The Vicar announced that a tablet would be erected in the church to the memory of the village lads who had died fighting for their country.

LONGPRESTON.

Longpreston, gaily bedecked with flags, opened its programme with a procession including returned soldiers, many lavishly decorated vehicles conveying groups of children and older folk, and a series of admirable tableaux. After marching through the streets, headed by Giggleswick Band, the procession returned to the Concrete, where judging took place. On a raised platform, Annie Hargreaves (chosen by her school-fellows) was crowned Rose Queen, and this ceremony was followed by an address by Rev. R. Shipman (vicar). He gave the soldiers a hearty welcome home, and announced the following list of distinctions:—Commissions, J. E. Beecroft, R. Carr, J. Cowgill, J. Clark, and J. Hogan; Military Cross, J. E. Beecroft and J. Hogan; Military Medal, W. Jones and W. Carr, the last-named having also been presented with a Belgian award. Cigarettes, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Archer, were distributed to the soldiers, and a silver medal, it was announced, would be given to each of them by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Preston (Fern Hill). The medals had not come to hand, and Mrs. Preston affixed corresponding ribbons to the coats of the heroes. Children's performances followed under the direction of Miss Parker and the staff of the Endowed Schools. A group of tiny children gave a Scandinavian folk song and dance "The shoemakers"; a further group "The rose dance," a third company comprising older scholars acquitted themselves well in "The single plait," "The spider's web," and "The gipsies' tent," and Maypole dances. They wore appropriate costumes. In the fancy and comic competitions the winners were: Best decorated "pram" with baby, Mrs. H. Bullock; best decorated bicycle and costume, Miss K. Wilson; best character costume, Miss May Delves ("Britannia"); 2 Miss B. Cambiay ("Irish colleen"); best comic characters, Messrs. Parker and Bentham ("Wanted a house"); 2 Mr. E. Fairhurst ("Mounted policeman"); men's character costume, J. Whinray ("Indian chief"); J. Thexton ("Buccaneer"); character representation, Misses L. Nixon and E. Thompson ("Old English couple"); 2 Miss Marjery Preston ("Early Victorian"). The judges were Mrs. D. Hall and Dr. Daly. Subsequently the children, ex-soldiers, their wives and others were served with tea in the schools. The rooms were brightly adorned with plants and flowers. In a field adjoining what was formerly the boys' old school, kindly lent by Mr. T. Preston, a variety of sports were provided for children, and later for adults. The half-mile race, tug-of-war, and high jump were keenly and closely contested. The celebrations closed with a dance in the schools.—On Saturday evening, at 11 o'clock, bright fares were lighted on Beacon Copy by Lieut. Cowgill and Sergt. Evans, and from that historic elevation about 20 other peaks could be seen ablaze with either flares or bonfires.

AUSTWICK.

PEACE CELEBRATION: CHILDREN'S DAY.

Although snow fell in the early hours of Saturday morning the weather was fairly favourable during the day, and the children of the village made the most of it. The day was given to the children with the idea of impressing the rising generation with the meaning of peace, and also to end a period when amusements and small enjoyments for children have been only too few.

The day opened with a combined children's service, conducted by the Rev. A. C. Sutcliffe (vicar) and the Rev. Jesse Moore, of Bentham, who gave a short address. A happy crowd were afterwards photographed in a group round the old cross. At 2 p.m. a procession, headed by the Giggleswick Brass Band, marched round the village to the sports field, kindly lent for the occasion by Mr. J. Robinson, where a long and very varied programme was carried through. Sweets for the children were plentiful, a large box being generously presented to them by Mrs. Hodgkinson. An excellent tea was provided for the children in the Wesleyan Sunday School, where adults afterwards were catered for.

In the evening the scholars of Austwick Church of England School gave a children's concert in the Parish Hall to a crowded audience. Action songs, recitations, and tableaux made up the programme, which concluded with an amusing exhibition of the latest musical novelty, "The Singaphone."

Dr. Lovett (Clapham), called on by the Vicar to propose a vote of thanks, expressed his enjoyment of the performance, and in replying on behalf of the teachers and children, Mr. J. Moss (headmaster), speaking of the co-operation and mutual understanding between teachers and children which made such a concert possible, emphasised the importance of a similar feeling between parents and teachers. At the conclusion of the concert there was a display of fireworks, and a fire balloon was sent up. It is hoped that the memory of the day will be with the children for a long time to come.

I.

When Britain first, at Heaven's command,
Arose from out the azure main,
Arose, arose, arose from out the azure main,
This was the charter, the charter of land,
And guardian angels sang this strain:

Rule, Britannia! Britannia rules the waves;
Britons never shall be slaves.

The nations not so blest as thee
Must in their turn to tyrants fall,
Must in their turn, their turn to tyrants fall;
While thou shalt flourish, shalt flourish great and free,
The dread and envy of them all.

Rule, Britannia! &c.

The muses still, with freedom crown'd,
Shall to thy happy coast repair,
Shall to thy happy, happy coast repair:
Blest isle, with beauty, with matchless beauty crown'd,
And manly hearts to guard the fair!

Rule, Britannia! &c.

Yours truly,

T. EDMONDSON, Secretary.

Welcome to Returned Soldiers.—A meeting in connection with the welcome to the returned soldiers which it is proposed to hold on Saturday the 9th of August was held in the Adult School on Monday afternoon, when it was decided to suggest the following programme for the occasion: Parade and march of the men who have served in the Forces; tea, smoking concert and dance for the warriors and their ladies; and an out-door dance for the general public on the Cricket Field, if the field is available and the ground be hard and dry. Settle, Giggleswick and Langcliffe Brass Bands have offered their services. The Tradesmen's Association has decided that the shops shall be closed from 3 to 5, and the Farmers' Association has voted £10 10s. towards the expenses. Mr. Thomas Brayshaw was appointed chairman for the day, and several ladies and gentlemen undertook to assist in various departments of the work that will be necessary.

PUBLIC WELCOME TO RETURNED SOLDIERS.

This interesting function on Saturday seems to be developing into a bigish affair as the attendance, judging from the applications for tickets, will be far in excess of the calculations of the Committee. It is possible some little crowding may be the result, but the Committee feel sure that everyone will cheerfully submit to this, and they trust that all will combine to make the enterprise a huge success, and will whole-heartedly fall in with the programme. On some minor points differences of opinion are shown, as is natural, but it is hoped that all such will be put on one side on an occasion such as this. The committee of the "Comrades of the Great War" have greatly assisted the committee with helpful suggestions.

Offers of personal assistance during the afternoon and evening will be most gratefully received.

Welcome

Ticket for the Soldiers' Reception is sent herewith. The owner must bring it with him and it is not transferable.

Green tickets are for the second "sitting-down" at tea. Owing to the very large number of acceptances there will probably be a little crowding, but men who have been through the hardships of Army life will readily excuse this. For the same reason some slight alterations to the programme may be necessary.

The "Presentation of Medals" is to a few men who have been already awarded them, but to whom they have not yet been actually presented.
