THE PROCESSION

Will take the following

ROUTE:

The Giggleswick Procession will leave Giggleswick at 10.30 a.m. to join the Settle division in the Settle Market Place at 10.45. The whole will then move off at 11 a.m., passing through Duke Street, turning round the lamp-post, returning by Chapel Street through Upper-Settle to the Green, turning and passing along the foot of Castlebergh down Constitution Hill and behind the Shambles to Mr. Tatham's; thence it will pass the Town Hall down Kirkgate to Giggleswick, and (leaving the Giggleswick division) return by the high-road, up Church Street, to Settle and separate in the Market Place.

Parties joining the Procession at Giggleswick are requested to assemble not later than a quarter-past 10, and those at Settle not later than half-past.

To prevent confusion the Rifle Corps, Clubs and Schools at Settle will form at their respective rooms, joining the rest in the Market Place on the arrival of the Giggleswick division at 10.45 a.m.

By order of the respective Committees of Settle and Giggleswick for organising the same,

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR. GEORGE HORNER.

The painfully sudden death of Mr. George Horner on Thursday last caused quite a sensation in the town, which has lost another of its notabilities. Mr. Horner, although he had not been well for some time, was carrying on his business practically up to the last moment. He had a sudden seizure and before medical aid could be summoned he passed away. He was 66 years of age.

He had carried on the business of a bookseller in the shop where he died for the past 33 years, and had a large connection, having had an excellent lending library. He was of a kind and sympathetic nature, and if he considered the cause good, he always endeavoured to subscribe, even to his own detriment. He was not one who sought publicity, but when he formed an opinion he was always prepared to back it up as ratepayers know who have attended the Parish Meetings. For many years he pleased the children of the district by announcing that on Christmas Day he would give each who attended a Christmas Card, and it was a pleasure to see the look of delight on each child's face as an orange or a penny was handed to it along with the card. Mr. Horner derived much personal pleasure from these gifts, and it was a keen regret to him that of late years he had to stop them. He was a public servant for 34 years, being the water rate collector for Settle, Giggleswick and Langcliffe, and prior to the sanitary authority taking over the water works in 1882 he acted under the old Water Board. There are many deeds of kindness to his credit in this capacity, but few of them are known. His familiar figure and arguments will be much missed at the parish and other meetings, and many of the public accounts will miss probably their only official checker. He was a staunch supporter of total abstinence and was a member of the Rechabites and Mechanics' Clubs. He leaves a wife and two sons and a daughter, and much sympathy is felt for the family.

The two sons, being in His Majesty's Forces in France, were unable to attend the funeral on Monday last at the Parish Church, the service being taken by the Rev. W. H. Stansfield, of St. Agnes' Church, Leeds, in the absence of the vicar, Rev. W. E. Linney, through illness. There was a large gathering of friends, and amongst those who followed the mourners were Messrs. T. Harger, T. Brayshaw, T. E. Pearson, T. A. Foxcroft, Jas. Parker, R. Southwell, J. W. Hesleden, H. Brennand, T. Ward, R. Sutherland, A. Sharp, John Handby, R. Brennand, W. Brown, A. Burroughs, E. Handby, Jos. Tomlinson, G. Nowell, S. Butler, T. Ward, R. Sutherland, A. Sharp, John Handby, J. Redmayne, A. Holmes, A. Bilton, R. Davis, Jos. Bell, J. Harrison, J. Hardy jun., Jas. Hunt, J. Hardy sen., T. Simpson, Lieut. J. Brennand, Mr. and Mrs. Butterworth, Mr. and Mrs. J. Silverwood. Members of the Rechabites and Mechanics' Clubs preceded the coffin. Mr. S. Hodgson had charge of the arrangements, the bearers being Mr. Jos. Parker, Mr. R. W. Garner, Mr. Jas. Grisedale and Mr. John Batty.

A TREAT FOR THE CHILDREN.—On Christmas Day the children of Settle and neighbourhood had quite an enjoyable time. Mr. George Horner having intimated that Christmas cards, etc., would be given to every child under 14 years of age who called at his residence in Church-street on Christmas Day, a gathering of between 200 and 300 children assembled, and after being formed into a procession, which reached as far as Settle Church, the children marched past and each received a Christmas card, a new penny (the gift of Mrs. Calvert), and a packet of sweets. The children appeared to be very happy and enjoyed themselves immensely.

CRICKET.—We understand the Settle Cricket Club is re-established with renewed vigour, and that a most eligible plot of ground has been obtained for a term. It is most conveniently situated in the North Fields, and near to the Town. Subscriptions will no doubt be required to keep it on foot, and we hope so healthful an exercise for those whose occupation is of a sedentary nature will meet with the required support. Bats, Balls &c. are expensive and wear out, and the Rent of the Field is an annual expense.

A STARTLING SKY EFFECT.

To the Editor of The Yorkshire Post.

Sir,—The beautiful appearance of the northern sky last night could not fail to excite the surprise and admiration of those who witnessed the effect of what might be described as a midnight sunset beyond the North Pole.

The soft shades of pearl grey on the west of north toning to amber and then to rosy red on the east, lighted up the landscape in a marvellous manner for the late hour of this phenomenal display. At half-past eleven o'clock the spire of Hunsingore Church was plainly visible amongst the trees at a distance of  $3\frac{1}{2}$  miles away, the outline of the Hambleton Hills at a distance of 25 miles; the time was observed and the second hand of a white-faced watch distinctly seen without the glasses I have to use for telling the time in the dusk after sunset.

The reflected light from windows facing due north and the buildings tinged with a rosy glow as of the setting sun was at that time of night a most remarkable sight.—Yours, etc.,

C. R. F.
