Strayshaw. 250.

THIS race was run on the Settle course, On Saturday last, with exciting force, And folks turned out to see the fun, And watched it keenly till it was done. "Defender" was favourite from the start, How his coat did shine, he was groom'd up smart, Over seventeen hands, with sinew and bone, A likelier horse there never was known. The pistol went off. Away he is gone, With such leaps and bounds he hurries on, Not carrying much flesh, with good staying powers, He look'd like galloping on for hours. Neither too young, nor too old, but just at his best, He's soon a long way ahead of the rest, And being well train'd, and used to the track, Away he goes straight without looking back. Every time he goes past, you see well enough He's taking it coolly, not a bit out of puff. He's further in front, every time he goes round, He's got such a terrible stroke of the ground. The winning post now is close to his breast, He's a quarter the distance ahead of the rest. He wins quite easy, 'tis true, I declare, Not a bit out of breath, nor sweating a hair.

Sturgeon. 147.

But further down, as we look back, There's more excitement on the track; There's 'Fretwork' coming nicely up, Determined to win a share in the Cup. He's very well train'd, good manners, and fast, It's good to see he'll not be last; In all respects he's a likely horse, Having run before upon the course. He once had a race with 'Rollicking Roy,' The result of which he didn't enjoy, And knowing that 'Roy' was now on the track, He gallop'd his best, and dare not look back. "There's no horse before me, only 'Bold Defender'

(By jove how he sail'd ahead in splendour) But I'll be second, on this I vow, 'Roy' beat me before, but not so now." So away he went, with all his speed, And nicely he maintain'd his lead Until the winning post was seen, With not a horse to come between. And as the winning post he pass'd, Says he, "I've won a place at last;" And so it was when all was reckon'd, 'Fretwork' made a Capital Second.

Murdor. 108.

Not much more fun was to be seen, There's 'Rollicking Roy' coming over the green, He's nicely in front of the other three; Says he, "This will not do for me, There's 'Fretwork' I see just passing yon bend, We must alter this before the end; I beat him before in a race that we had, If I don't beat him again it will be sad; But he gallops quite different to what he did then, Where he's got his speed I dunno ken." So he bids the other three horses 'Good-day,' Puts speed to his heels and gallops away; And having so much hunting blood in his veins As the race goes on he gently gains; And being high bred, and good in his wind, He leaves the three horses a long way behind. "I must catch 'Fretwork,' that is my test," And he gallop'd quite savagely, doing his best, But he can't catch 'Fretwork,' no, no, he can't do it, The winning post's there, but 'Fretwork' is through it. 'Roy' now comes up, but only to find That he is about thirty yards behind. Some folks were surprised at this sudden turn For 'Roy' was a hunter, bred and born.

Murdor. 112.

Not much need be said of the other three, The prizes are all gone you see; But if down the track you happen to look You'll see they're together like leaves in a book. There's old 'Steel Grey' leads the others a bit, But to run in a race he seems hardly fit; He goes a bit stiff on his legs do you see, And limps on one foot, as lame as can be. He has been a good un, had it been once in his day No doubt he would have shewn 'em the way To the top of the Poll, or else very near it, There's hardly anybody seems to fear it. He's a grand old horse, though not in the elect, Everybody speaks of this horse with respect;

You see that he's aged, if you look at his face, More likely for farm-work than winning a race.

Swale 88. Winton 90.

There are two other horses yet in the race, But so far behind they're quite out of place; One's a promising young colt, the other middle aged, They run close together, seem nicely engaged. The older's a good honest worker, true drawn, His useful qualities are very well known; Not speed for this race, no chance from the start, He seems more likely for shafting a cart. Young 'Blue Blood's' untrain'd, never been out before, So it was't very likely that he would score; He reared, an' he buck-jump'd, an' went side-afore, That was't the way to get a-X the moor; But with a galloping practice now and then, He may do better when tried again. He's come of good stock, and kept well fed, But he's perhaps a bit rackle—only been halter led; But nevertheless he's a likely young horse, When he gets a bit more used to the course. These two last horses ran hard in their way, They thought they would catch the old 'Steel Grey' But they soon found out it could'nt be done, Their wind was finished, their strength was gone; And this was the end of that wonderful speck, Young 'Blue Blood' was last by a 'head' and a 'neck.'

Of course the winners' got a pat and a stroke, They were crack'd on, an' talk'd to, as if they were folk; How they pranc'd an' they paw'd, and neigh'd their thanks, An' lots of other bits of pranks. Then to their stables they were led, To a good feed of corn and well-made bed: They were sheeted up to keep them warm, For fear they might have caught some harm; But they've stood it well, I'm glad to say, All being in excellent form next day.

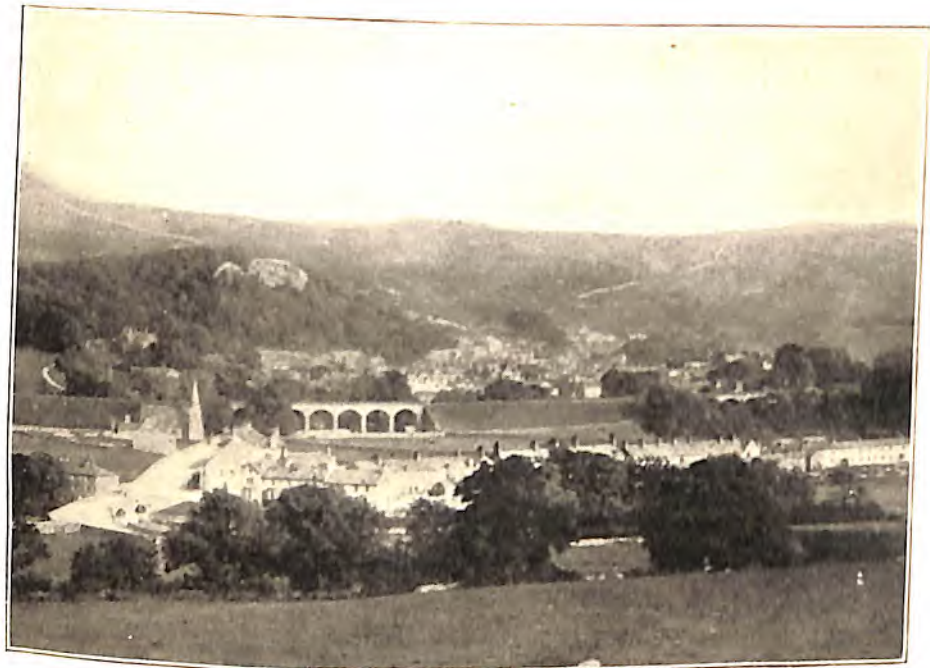

And now that the race is over and past, And the winners are declared at last; For peace and contentment now let all try, And to the race-course say "GOOD-BYE."

HECTOR CHRISTIE, Esq., J.P., C.C.—Chairman of the Committee.

J. W. SHEPHERD, Esq.—Treasurer.

At a Parish Meeting recently held in Settle it was decided that the inhabitants should commemorate the auspicious event of the Coronation by holding a Festival on Thursday, the 26th June, 1902.

A Committee was accordingly appointed, which included the Settle District Councillors, representatives of the Parish Meeting, the Tradesmen's Association, and the Parish Council. This Committee, having enlarged its numbers and given the matter its best consideration, has accordingly decided to have (1) a Procession, (2) Sports for Children and Adults, (3) Cycle Parade, and (4) Presentation of Medals to Children. Other items will be added as funds permit, but it is obviously impossible to finally settle details until an approximate idea is formed as to the financial support likely to be received.

The foregoing suggestions refer merely to the Festivities on the appointed day, but if sufficient support is promised to establish a permanent memorial of the happy event, the Committee recommend that a small Museum—to which a Library, Reading Room, &c., could be gradually added—would be most suitable. This plan would have the advantage that it might be commenced on a very modest scale, and be improved and added to in the course of time as funds permitted.

The venerable Market Town of Settle, which for more than 650 years has been in the enjoyment of a Charter, has ever been to the fore in works of philanthropy and utility, and in demonstrations of loyalty, and it is to be hoped that it will on this occasion fully maintain its ancient reputation. Every one is therefore invited to contribute to the fund which is being raised for the above purposes, and as the Committee wish to form an early estimate as to what amount will be at their disposal, it is hoped that a speedy and favourable response will be made to this appeal.

Subscriptions may be paid to Mr. J. W. Shepherd (Treasurer), Messrs. Geo. K. Charlesworth, J. E. Hindle, E. R. Morphet, and T. Dickinson (Finance Committee), or to other accredited collectors.

God bless the Queen!

Peace Festivities!

The Committee who have charge of the Festivities at Settle have carefully considered the question of abandoning the same in view of His Majesty's illness. But as the King, with his usual thoughtfulness and tact, has expressed an "earnest hope that the Celebrations in the Country shall be held as already arranged," the Committee have decided, in view of the advanced state of the local preparations, and of the great trouble and expense already incurred, to proceed with the arrangements already made, in order to commemorate the welcome Peace, unless distinctly unfavourable news be received respecting His Majesty's health.

The TORCMLIGHT PROCESSION will be ABANDONED, and the Open-Air United Religious Service will be altered to a Service of Intercession, and of Thanksgiving for Peace.

UNITED † RELIGIOUS † SERVICE

AT 11-30 A.M.

1. Selection by the Band.

2. Hymn.

God bless our native land,
May Heaven's protecting hand
Still guard our shore ;
May peace her power extend,
Foe be transformed to friend,
And Britain's rights depend
On war no more !

Through every changing scene,
O Lord, preserve our King ;
Long may he reign !
His heart inspire and move
With wisdom from above ;
And in a nation's love
His throne maintain !

May just and righteous laws
Uphold the public cause,
And bless our isle !
Home of the brave and free,
The land of liberty,
We pray that still on thee
Kind Heaven may smile !

3. Prayer for the King's Majesty, and Special Prayer from official Coronation Service. Rev. C. S. Forsyth.

4. The Lord's Prayer, the Rev. C. S. Forsyth leading, and all the people joining.

5. Short Address by the Rev. G. H. Brown.

6. Hymn.

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him, and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed ;
Without our aid He did us make ;
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto ;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

7. Short Address by the Rev. C. S. Forsyth.

8. Short Address by the Rev. E. S. Thies.

9. Hymn.

O King of Kings ! Thy blessing shed
On our anointed Sovereign's head ;
And, looking from Thy holy heaven,
Protect the Crown Thyself hast given.

Him may we honour and obey,
Uphold his right and lawful sway ;
Remembering that the powers that be
Are ministers ordained of Thee.

And, oh ! when earthly thrones decay,
And earthly kingdoms fade away,
Grant him a throne, in worlds on high,
A crown of immortality.

10. Benediction.

CORONATION & PEACE

→* FESTIVITIES. *←

THURSDAY, JUNE 26th, 1902.

God Save the King.

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King!

Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King!

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign!
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King!

Lord, let war's tempests cease,
Fold the whole world in peace,
Under Thy Wings.
Make all the nations one,
All hearts beneath the sun,
Till Thou shalt reign alone,
Great King of Kings.

PEACE CELEBRATION

At SETTLE.

JUNE 26th, 1902.

As the third Hymn of the United Religious Service is hardly appropriate to the present occasion, when our gracious King is lying on a bed of sickness, the following will be substituted:—

O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Beneath the shadow of Thy Throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine Arm Alone,
And our defence is sure.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

BENEDICTION

... .. REV. A. CROFTON.

PROCLAMATION OF KING EDWARD VII AT SETTLE.

When our late beloved Queen, Victoria the Good, passed away, and her eldest son, Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, was called to the Throne of England, the Privy Council issued a Proclamation to that effect, to be publicly read in towns. As such Proclamations had invariably been made in Settle Market-place from time immemorial, the District Councilors for the Township placed themselves in communication with the Under-Sheriff of the County, and in response to their application a copy of the document was forwarded by him.

It was decided to have it proclaimed on Saturday, February 27th 1901, and as the Services held at the various places of worship in the town that afternoon in memory of Her late Majesty, were arranged to conclude soon after three o'clock, the hour of four was fixed on for the ceremony.

A pedestal was erected close to the Market Cross (from the shaft of which the Union Jack hung at half-mast high). The members of the District and Parish Councils took their places to the left of this, whilst to the right were grouped the Clergy, Ministers and public officials. The Volunteers, under the command of Lieut. Hudleston, formed three sides of a hollow square in front, some poor school children occupying the centre. The general public formed a dense ring round the Volunteers, over 2000 people being present.

At the appointed hour Mr. C. E. Bygrave, Clerk to the Settle Rural District Council, announced the purport of a letter received from the Under-Sheriff, which accompanied the Proclamation, and, handing the latter document to Mr. Thos. Brayshaw, the senior District Councillor for Settle, requested him to "Proclaim the King."

After a fanfare of bugles by Messrs Bulcock, Edmondson, and Brown, the Proclamation, which declared Edward VII to be our lawful King, and acknowledged loyalty to him, was read by Mr. Brayshaw, and on his terminating the reading thereof with the exclamation "God save the King!" the Volunteers gave a Royal Salute.

The flag was then hoisted to the top of the cross, whereupon the buglers gave a second fanfare, and the Volunteers saluted the flag.

After "Three cheers for the King" had been called for and given, the assembly joined in singing "God save the King," after which the flag was again lowered to half-mast high, and the ceremony of proclaiming a new Sovereign at the Market-cross of the Loyal and Ancient Chartered Market-town of Settle, (which spot had witnessed many similar scenes in by-gone centuries), had once more been performed.

Dear Mabel & Edith.

A committee of four -
Bertha Rhodes and myself, (old girls)
Alice Dodgson, (day girl) and Marjorie Clayton (boarder), went down to Bradford at the end of term and with Mrs. Hankinson's help chose the present for Mrs. Foster. It consisted of a "Chesterfield" sofa and an easy chair upholstered to match in "Liberty" cretonne. The nett amount-collected was £13-12-6, so we had a balance of 12/6 with which we propose to buy a tray.

Mrs. Foster was delighted with her present, and I believe intends writing to each one to thank her.

With best wishes for a Happy New Year, believe me,

Sincerely yours
Elvie Gunnell

TECHNICAL INSTITUTE.—On Tuesday a "literary and artistic soiree" was given in the Victoria Hall, under the auspices of the above Institute. The first part of the programme consisted of the musical cantata "The Daisy Chain," the various parts being taken by Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Musgrave, Mr. Conway Rees, and Mr. Walrond, Miss Benson kindly assisting as accompanist. In the second part Mrs. Musgrave, Mrs. Atkinson, and Mons. Charlier favoured the audience with songs, and Mr. Leonard Watkins gave an exquisite violin solo. The third part consisted of Moinaux's comedy in French, "Lex Deux Lourds" (the two deaf men). The principal characters were filled by Miss Brayshaw, Mons. Charlier, Mons. Briquelot, and Mr. C. Graham, all of whom acquitted themselves admirably. The many humorous points in the play were readily grasped by the well filled house, who testified to their appreciation of the performers efforts by repeated plaudits. The miscellaneous part of the programme was as follows:—Song, "Le Perdu," M. Charlier; song, "Aimons," Mrs. Musgrave; violin solo, Mr. Leonard Watkins; song, "Samson et Delilah," Mrs. Atkinson; song, "Les Plongeurs a Cheval," M. Charlier; song, "Les Perles d'or," Mrs. Musgrave; song, "La Pêche a la Ligna," M. Charlier.

Messrs. HARGER BROS.,

Cabinet Makers, Upholsterers,
Manufacturers and Importers of all kinds of Fretwork Machinery and Accessories, &c, SETTLE.

Business was established 50 years ago, and is carried on the North side of the Victoria Street, in the building known as the "Victoria House."

This business was established 50 years ago. The firm are extensive manufacturers of all kinds of fret work and wood carving tools and machinery, &c, and hold the unique position of being the pioneers of the fretwork trade in this country. Messrs. Harger Bros. have a world wide reputation for the superior excellence of their lathes for fretwork and other purposes, a great number of which we saw in stock, including all the necessary tools and other accessories. Numbers of these useful machines are continually being sent to all parts of the country and abroad. The space at our disposal forbids of more than passing notice of a few of the leading lines in our department. Here may be seen all kinds of tools, fretwork saws, also numbers of combined lathes and mortises, worked by foot or steam power according to requirements, and are suitable either for amateurs or the trade. In addition there are cramps, drills, complete sets of tools in boxes, with lock and key for the tool, and all process carving tools and requisites, including articles of copyright and other original designs. There are also mathematical instruments, drawing boards, all kinds of hand saw work, materials, and tools, &c, also English and foreign timber and other fancy woods, all well seasoned and carefully selected, suitable for fret work, wood carving, and other purposes, and many other useful articles and novelties which for further particulars we must refer our readers to the tastefully got up price list, containing scores of engravings and a fund of useful and other information issued by the firm. In addition to the above department, Messrs. Harger Bros. are cabinet makers, upholsterers, and complete house furnishers, and in their extensive showrooms at New Street may be seen a choice and varied selection of well made furniture of every description, suitable for furnishing either a cottage or mansion, all of which are of the best workmanship and the latest design. Furniture of all kinds made to order, and old furniture re-upholstered and repaired equal to new, the prices in all cases being most reasonable. The workshops at Goldlands are very extensive, and are fitted with all the latest machinery, tools, and appliances necessary for the trade, only skilled workmen employed, and all work done under the personal supervision of the principals. The numerous testimonials received by this firm from all parts of the country is a guarantee as to the excellence of all goods turned out by this house.

Miss J. E. FELL,

High-class Milliner and Costumier, Post Office Buildings, SETTLE.

FASHIONS change so frequently nowadays that it is a pleasure to know an establishment which keeps well abreast of the times. The above business has been in existence a great many years, and is certainly one of the most popular in the district. The interior of the shop is well arranged for the comfort and convenience of customers. The window display is invariably most attractive, and many elegant specimens of the milliner's art are always on view. The stock of flowers, feathers, straws, as well as the latest novelties in French millinery, gloves, veilings, and ribbons, is thoroughly represented. All the latest fashions in costumes, dresses, and mantles are on view. We might say this business was in the hands of a Mrs. Preston when the 19th century dawned, who was noted for her bonnets and caps—a bonnet being then the possession of a lifetime. Miss Wilkinson and Mrs. James Wilkinson and Beetham held it successively nearly 70 years; it has been in the present hands 12, and, in the meantime, in new and more convenient premises. Visits to London are made two or three times a year. Parcels are forwarded from London and Manchester; everything being thus kept up to date. Mantles, millinery, and costumes a speciality.

Miss Fell is an enthusiast on the beauty of the neighbourhood, and is never happier than in aiding others to see and enjoy it.

Mr. J. W. LAMBERT,

Printer, Bookbinder, Stationer, and Newsagent, the Caxton Printing Works, Cheapside, SETTLE.

This business was founded by the present proprietor, Mr. J. W. Lambert, in 1881. The premises hold a very good position in the leading thoroughfare of the town, and have a most prepossessing appearance. There is a thoroughly representative stock of commercial, school, artistic, and general stationery, including all the recent novelties that are constantly being introduced into the trade. The printing works are on the top floor, and are liberally provided with the most improved machinery and appliances. There are also the best appliances for bookbinding. Bright and effective printing is constantly turned out, much skill and originality being shown in the display: this is more particularly the case with the black and coloured posters, auctioneers' bills, window bills, showcards, catalogues, essays, pamphlets, reports, balance-sheets, invoices, business cards, menus, billheads, memorial cards, &c. Mr. Lambert is the publisher of "Lambert's Settle Almanac and General Advertiser," a truly marvellous two-penny-worth, full of interesting information. Other publications include the "Giggleswick Chronicle," and an interesting guide book, with chapters on local history and tradition, entitled: "On Foot Round Settle," by Rev. G. H. Brown. He also publishes a good penny guide by the same author.

FAMILY DAWSON GROCER

FAMILY GROCER
ESTABLISHED 1880

CHEESE

MANCHESTER
HOUSE

(14)
M

O WILKINS

Mr. THOMAS DAWSON,

Family Grocer and Provision Merchant,
Duke Street, SETTLE.

AMONGST the many high-class establishments devoted to the grocery and provision trade in this town none occupies a higher rank than the above well-known house. This business was established as far back as 1864, and is, therefore, one of the oldest in this particular line in Settle. The premises are neat and compact in appearance, and are in every way the beau ideal of a successful business establishment. The stock throughout is carefully selected, and embraces everything coming under the heading of groceries and provisions—flour, teas and coffees, patent and homoeopathic medicines, &c. every article being guaranteed for its purity and general excellence. The house enjoys the patronage of a very large and influential connection, each succeeding year only helping to furnish fresh proof of continual development. The proprietor is a gentleman of long and practical experience, intimately acquainted with every detail of the trade. He is highly respected and much esteemed in the town and district.

Mr. GEORGE WILKINS,

Cordwainer, Bootmaker, Leather
Merchant, &c., Manchester House, 16, Strawberry Dale Road, HARROGATE.

G. WILKINS has worked at his profession for over 40 years, and travelled through some of the largest towns in England to gain all the knowledge possible for the benefit of the boot and shoe business. He commenced business for himself in Manchester in 1881, where he gained a good trade; but in 1892 he removed from Manchester to Harrogate, at a great expense, to the above-named premises, where he at present carries on the business of a practical boot and shoe maker, leather merchant, and dealer in everything for the use of the trade. He also keeps a stock of ready-made boots, shoes, and slippers, and deals in boot creams, black, white, and brown polish, and blacking; also tools for the trade. He makes ladies' and gentlemen's boots and shoes to order—hand-stitched, pegged, and riveted at reasonable prices. Repairs are neatly and promptly executed on the premises. Strict attention is paid to this department by the proprietor, who asks the inhabitants and visitors for their kind patronage and support.

Messrs. THOMAS CLARK & SONS,

Grocers, Provision Dealers, and Italian Warehousemen; also
English and Foreign Fruit Merchants,
Fish, Game, and Poultry Dealers,
Market Place, SETTLE.

Established 1850.

The important business of grocers, provision merchants, and Italian warehousemen, as well as that of fishmongers, game and poultry dealers, and English and foreign fruiterers, claims special attention at our hands, recognising, as we do, that a fresh supply of good fish is an absolute necessity if the health of our towns and cities is to be maintained. The above well known firm has been established here since 1850, and is acknowledged to be the leading one of its kind in the district. The premises in occupation are well adapted for the trade. In the fish department the supply is always fresh and good, coming direct from the chief sources of supply. There is always a large stock of game and poultry, as well as a large variety of English and foreign fruit and vegetables direct from the markets, &c., which are disposed of daily. The prices charged are strictly moderate and consistent with high class quality. Messrs. Clark & Sons are well known and respected in Settle and district, and have the patronage of some of the best families in the neighbourhood. A nursery and market garden is connected with the business, and anything in the trade supplied.

Mr. JAMES JACKSON,

Tailor, Woollen Draper, and Hatter,
Market Place, SETTLE.

THE tailoring establishment conducted by Mr. J. Jackson is well known in Settle and district. This gentleman has had considerable experience in the trade. The stock of woollens is very extensive, embracing all the newest designs from the best manufacturers. The best possible value is given in all goods dealt in, whilst the quality of the material and finish leave nothing to be desired. Only skilled workmen are employed under personal supervision. Mourning orders are executed upon the shortest notice. In the outfitting department will be found an excellent assortment of hats and caps, ties, braces, cuffs and collars, gloves, &c., in all the latest fashions. Customers may rely upon their orders being promptly executed, and by carefully studying their individual wants, Mr. Jackson has built up a lucrative business, and one which cannot fail to increase.

A special department is devoted to ladies. Here will be found at all times an excellent assortment of Briggs' transferring papers; all kinds of traced linen goods and art needlework; Harris's linen thread; Briggs' boiling dye silks; a good assortment of ladies' embroidered handkerchiefs; and many other fancy goods too numerous to be mentioned.

Messrs. TATHAM & SON, Ltd.

(Established 1816.)

There is no branch of business that has a more personal bearing on a community than that of the grocer and provision merchant. The distribution of select general groceries, prime provisions, and all manner of kindred commodities, to meet the demands of a large connection, finds able representatives in the hands of the above old-established and well-known firm. The premises in occupation are extensive, having good storage accommodation, and are well adapted to the needs of the trade. The stock includes general groceries, teas, coffees, fruits, spices, biscuits, confectionery, provisions; all the best known proprietary articles; jams, jellies, pickles, sauces, preserved meats, fruits, and vegetable extracts, and all the specialities of the leading manufacturers of comestibles, &c. Messrs. Tatham & Sons, Ltd.

are extensive buyers, dealing directly with the manufacturers and producers. They are enabled to give their customers the advantage of all intermediate profits, and to offer goods of the best quality at market price. A large assortment of breakfast and luncheon delicacies, suitable for visitors, always kept in stock. Orders for seaside and other holiday resorts carefully packed. Samples submitted when desired, with special prices for quantities. In the drapery department will be found a large stock of general and fancy drapery of every description, including all the latest novelties, as soon as placed upon the market. In every department customers can always depend upon receiving prompt and polite attention, and it is very evident that the effort is spared by the firm to give the best interests of patrons and insure a continuance of that gratifying measure of support they have for so long enjoyed.

Mr. G. WILKINSON,

High-class Boot and Shoe Manufacturer,
High Street, Market Place, SETTLE.

This face is said to be the reflection of the mind, and, similarly, there are certain points in a lady's or gentleman's attire which denotes the character. Well-shod feet and nicely-gloved hands stamp the wearer as being neat, orderly, and refined. The business conducted by Mr. Wilkinson has been established about 14 years. The premises are conveniently located in the High Street, Market Place. The stock is most comprehensive, and includes all kinds of ladies' and gents' and children's boots and shoes, all of the best manufacture. The proprietor is also agent in Settle for the well-known "Regal Fedora" and "Loyalty" boots and shoes, as worn by H.M. the Queen and H.R.H. the Duchess of York. The agency is also held for the "Marchioness" and "Best Policy" boots, all of which are high-class goods, and can be thoroughly recommended. Ladies' and gentlemen's boots are made to measure, hand-sewn work and gents' water-proof shooting boots being a speciality. All kinds of repairs are quickly and promptly carried out, while the prices charged in every case are most reasonable.

Mr. JAMES HUNT,

Watchmaker and Jeweller,
Dealer in Electro-plate and Cutlery,
Town Hall, SETTLE.

AMONG modern trades there are few that require more careful training to insure success and expertness than watch and clock making, and in this connection we have much pleasure in calling attention to the establishment presided over by the above gentleman, whose premises are well known in the town. Commencing business here over 20 years ago, this gentleman very soon commanded the confidence and support of all who intrusted him with their patronage. These ends have been secured by energy and ability, combined with an increasing desire to give every satisfaction. Good workmanship is always bound to command success, and in this way the proprietor is intrusted with the cleaning and repairing of watches, clocks, and jewellery by most of the leading inhabitants of the district. There is a good selection of watches, clocks, and jewellery of every description always kept in stock. In addition to the jewellery, all kinds of cutlery, solid silver and electro-plate, leather goods, portmanteaus, &c., are kept on hand.

We must not forget to mention the ladies' and gentlemen's hairdressing rooms; and also a special department, which is devoted to the best and choicest brands of cigars and tobaccos from all the leading manufacturers, the prices in all cases being most moderate. In connection with this shop is also a depot for the sale, hire, and repair of cycles.

Special attention is paid to repairs, which are promptly executed by skilled workmen in all the above branches. In conclusion, we may say this house is a decided acquisition to the town and district.
