

RATHMELL.

UNVEILING OF MEMORIAL CROSS.

The memorial to the men of Rathmell who gave their lives in the war was unveiled and dedicated on Sunday last. The memorial was designed and the greater portion of the work carried out by residents in the village, and the stone (excepting the slate slabs) was procured entirely from the Appleside Estate. The Cross is 12ft 6in. in height, and stands in a commanding position facing south-east. It has been erected on ground which Mrs. Geldard proposes to give to the village. The column is nine inches square, and the names of the nine men who fell are recorded on the slabs.

The service of unveiling and dedication opened with the singing of the National Anthem and the hymn, "O God, our help in ages past." Mr. James Mansergh read the lesson, which was followed by the hymn, "For all our sons." The Vicar of the Parish recited the prayers and performed the dedication, and Captain Geldard, M.C., D.S.O., unveiled the memorial.

The Rev. R. Shipman, vicar of Long Preston, in an earnest address, pointed out that the memorial was now the sacred property of the parish, and that it behoved all, young and old alike, to see that due respect was paid to it.

RATHMELL WAR MEMORIAL.

Unveiling & Dedication

OF THE

Memorial Cross

SUNDAY, 2ND MAY, 1920.

At 3 p.m.

LAMBERT, PRINTER, SETTLE.

Entrance
Catholic Church, Rathmell

SETTLE NATIONAL SCHOOLS.

REMEMBER

The Jumble

Sale

in the SCHOOL-ROOM,

On Saturday, 15th May, 1920,

IN AID OF

MEMORIAL TABLET TO OLD SCHOLARS

Auctioneer: Mr. P. M. RALPH.

Open at 2 p.m. Admission, Twopence.

A house to house collection of goods will be made by Scholars on Wednesday Evening, May 12th.

PLEASE HAVE SOMETHING READY FOR THEM.

J. W. Lambert, Printer, Oneapside, Settle.

National School's Memorial Scheme.—A meeting of the old scholars associated with the National School was held in the Schoolroom on Tuesday last, but not more than a dozen people were present, and of these the greater proportion were ladies. The meeting was called to consider a proposed school memorial scheme, but little interest was evinced. Mr. C. J. Lord presided. A design of the brass tablet which it is proposed to erect was on view. Mr. Roberts, the schoolmaster, stated that the scheme was first mooted during the early stages of the war. Subscriptions amounting to £3 8s. 3d. were collected, the greater part of which went in on compulsory service being introduced. It was eventually decided not to appeal to the general public for subscriptions in view of the many calls that were being made upon their generosity, but that, as it was an old scholars' memorial, the cost should be defrayed voluntarily by them. From social functions a sum of £33 17s. 2d. had been raised, and the tablet was estimated to cost £60. He did not anticipate the slightest difficulty in obtaining the remaining £27 required. Close upon 40 old scholars had fallen, an average attendance of a school with Miss Wood expressed regret at the small attendance which she said seemed to show a lack of interest in the scheme by old scholars. In referring to the sacrifice made by the fallen, she said that it was duty to the old scholars who had survived to show their appreciation of that sacrifice, by erecting a memorial, which would assist a future generation to keep in mind the sacrifice of those men whose names would appear on the tablet. The Rev. W. E. Jirney supported the scheme and expressed the view that an appeal should be made to the old scholars for practical support towards raising the balance required, and a small committee was appointed to further that view. It was suggested that the unveiling of the tablet should take place on Armistice Day.

SETTLE NATIONAL SCHOOL.

Memorial Tablet Scheme.

A MEETING

OF THE

OLD SCHOLARS OF THE SETTLE NATIONAL SCHOOL,

Will be held in the School, on TUESDAY, JUNE 22nd, 1920, at 8 p.m.,

To discuss the above scheme.

All former scholars are cordially invited, and are asked to make the meeting known as widely as possible so that a successful meeting may result.

Short speeches will be given by several old scholars, after which the meeting will be thrown open for discussion.

Suggestions from any Old Scholar will be heartily welcomed.

Chairman: C. J. LORD, Esq.

A design of the proposed Tablet will be on view during the meeting.

RALLY ROUND THE OLD SCHOOL.

J. W. Lambert & Sons, Printers, Oneapside, Settle.

COMRADES' SUNDAY AT SETTLE

Distribution of Memorial Volumes.

On Sunday the annual memorial service was held on the Cricket Field, Settle, in connection with the "Comrades' Sunday." A large number of Comrades assembled at the Crown Rooms, and headed by the Settle Brass Band marched down to the field. Addresses were given by Rev. W. E. Linney (vicar), Rev. E. G. Charlesworth (Wesleyan minister), and Rev. L. J. Malkinson (Congregational). A collection on behalf of St. Dunstan's Hospital realised £16 13s. 9d. After the service the distribution of the memorial volume of Craven men who fell in the war was under the general direction of Mr. T. Brayshaw, and the process was admirably organised by the ex-service men amongst the law clerks of Settle. An applicant first filled up a form giving his name and rank. This was handed in to two "checkers," who consulted a previously prepared list to see that the man was entitled to a copy, and it was then passed on to three skilled writers, one of whom neatly penned the name of the recipient on a label which was pasted inside each copy, and the book was then presented to the men by Mr. J. T. Clayton, the compiler of the work.

The first copy was formally presented, on behalf of Mr. Morrison, to Lieut.-Col. Birkbeck, who commanded the 1st 6th Battalion Duke of Wellington's when they first went to France in April, 1915.

In making the presentation, Mr. Brayshaw gave some interesting details as to the origin of the scheme, which was first mooted at a conference between Mr. Morrison and Mr. Clayton. It was then intended to include a complete list of every man who "joined up" from Craven; but as time went on, this was found to be impracticable, as there would inevitably be so many errors and omissions that the list would be of but little value. As the roll of those who fell gradually assumed a formidable total, it was decided to change the character of the Volume, and to make it principally a memorial to the dead; but, as the "Duke's" Regiment is especially associated with this district, a list of the men comprising the first and second battalions of the Sixth Duke's, with an account of their doings in Flanders, forms a prominent feature of the publication.

Col. Birkbeck, in acknowledging the gift, conveyed a message from Mr. Morrison to the men, expressive of his great regret that the coldness of the day prevented his being present with them.

"COMRADES' SUNDAY,"

JULY 4TH, 1920.

Order of Service.

Hymn No. 1.

ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice;
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell,
Come ye before Him, and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
Without our aid He did us make;
We are His flock, He doth us feed,
And for His sheep He doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His courts unto;

Praise, laud, and bless His Name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? the Lord our God is good;
His mercy is for ever sure:
His truth at all time freely stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God Whom Heaven and earth adore
From men and from the Angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore. Amen.

Introductory Remarks—Rev. W. E. LINNEY.

Prayer by the Rev. W. E. LINNEY.

The Lord's Prayer.

Lesson—(Isaiah LV) Rev. R. R. RICKERS.

Hymn No. 2.

NOW thank we all our God,
With heart, and hands, and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done,
In Whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mother's arms
Hath bless'd us on our way
With countless gifts of love,
And still is ours to-day.

O may this bounteous God
Through all our life be near us,
With ever joyful hearts
And blesséd peace to cheer us;

And keep us in His grace,
And guide us when perplex'd,
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next.

All praise and thanks to God
The Father now be given,
The Son, and Him who reigns
With them in highest Heaven,
The One Eternal God,
Whom earth and Heav'n adore,
For thus it was, is now,
And shall be evermore. Amen.

A PERFORMANCE OF
"THE PRINCESS"
(TENNYSON)

WILL BE GIVEN BY

The GIRLS of the SETTLE HIGH SCHOOL,

IN AID OF

The Fund for Disabled Soldiers and Sailors,

ON TUESDAY, JULY 27TH,

at 2-30 and 7-30,

ON

WEDNESDAY, July 28th,

at 2-30.

TICKETS—Front of Hall, 2/6 ; Back of Hall, 1/3.

Edmondson & Wilson, Printers, Settle.

Catholic Church, Settle.

LANGCLIFFE WAR MEMORIAL,

Cross Unveiled.

On Saturday the unveiling and dedication service in connection with the memorial cross at Langcliffe took place in fine weather, before a large gathering. The fountain in the centre of the village has been converted, the upper portion being taken away, and the cross inserted into the bottom basin. After the hymn "On the Resurrection morning," prayers were said by Rev. E. C. Charlesworth (Wesleyan minister).

The unveiling ceremony was performed by Lieut.-Col. Bateman, D.S.O., colonel of the 6th Duke of Wellington's Regiment, who said they were there that day to perpetuate the memory of those who fell in the great war, and they had placed there a cross as a perpetual reminder of it. The world, it seemed, had not yet fully realised that peace, for which they had fought, and at the present time it seemed that we should not recognise the fullness of that peace for some years.

The Vicar of Langcliffe, Rev. Mr. James, read the lesson (Revelations xxi., 1-5). After the hymn "For all the saints," the dedication took place, and an inspiring address was given by Rev. A. P. Gower Rees, M.C., Vicar of Bolton, Bradford. Then followed the hymn "O God our help in ages past," and the "Last post" was sounded by Mr. A. T. Bilton. The Langcliffe Brass Band accompanied the hymns, which were sung by the united choirs of the Parish Church and the Wesleyan Church, conducted by Mr. John Leaworthy.

On one side of the cross are the words: "In memory of the men of Langcliffe who gave their lives in the great war, 1914-1919"; and on the other three sides are inscribed the following names:—Capt. C. D. Bennett, Lieut. R. V. Atkinson, Lance-Corpl. T. Monk, Pte. A. Smales, Pte. R. Thompson, Pte. G. Venn, Pte. J. West, Pte. W. Hartley, Pte. J. Higginson, Pte. W. Hilton, Pte. T. H. Percy.

The arrangements for the service were in the hands of Messrs. H. M. Bannister and C. Rawthorne. A large number of beautiful floral tributes were placed round the cross, amongst them being the following: "From the members of the Comrades' Club, Settle branch"; "From the Service men of Langcliffe, to the memory of our comrades who have not returned; they have fought the good fight, they have kept the faith, and have finished their course"; "In loving memory of our dear son Walter, from his father and mother"; "In loving memory of dear uncle Walter, from his nephews James, Sam, and Walter"; "In loving memory of our dear brother Walter, from his sisters Lillie and Sissie"; "In loving memory of W. Hilton, from his grandmother and Jimmie"; "In loving memory of Pte. Thomas Percy, from his affectionate child and wife"; "In loving memory of Rupert, 'The flowers he loved,' Bowerley"; "In tenderest memory of Capt. Claude Bennett, killed in action July 18th, 1917, 'For God and Liberty,' Annie and Eva"; "In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Lance-Corpl. Thomas Monk, from mother, sisters, brother, Chapel House, Langcliffe, R.I.P."; "In loving memory of Capt. C. D. Bennett, from his friends"; "In affectionate remembrance, from Elizabeth Bowerley"; "In loving memory of Pate, Albert Smales, killed in action on the Somme 3rd September, 1916, 'At rest for all time'; "In loving memory of Pte. John West, from Home and Auntie." The following inscription also appeared:—

IN MEMORIAM.

For Britain's sons who gave their all for Hearth and Home upon the battlefield.
They passed through death to life that we might live.

Let us so keep in memory "The Sacrifice,"
They tried to follow in the life they gave,
That we might meet them at home again,
Where war shall be no more nor death nor pain.

But God's own everlasting peace shall reign,
And sorrow, sickness, weeping be for ever stilled.

And joy and peace and love shall be fulfilled.

Settle War Memorial.

At a meeting of the Settle War Memorial Committee, held yesterday week, it was decided to postpone further negotiations in connection with the cenotaph until the spring of 1921. The committee were reluctant to take this course, but the work at the lowest tender would cost over £500, and the balance at the disposal of the committee is only £390. In a letter to the committee, the architect advised them to wait until building prices declined and firm contracts could be obtained, or adopt some other scheme, and probably it will be necessary to have new plans made and a less costly scheme referred to the subscribers.

Settle 1920

WEDNESDAY, July 28th,

at 6-45 p.m.

UNVEILING

of the

War Memorial Tablet

and PERMANENT ROLL of HONOUR,

In the Wesleyan Church, Settle.

For details see other bills.

At 7-30 p.m.

LECTURE

by the

Rev. THOS. TIPLADY,

M.C., of Huddersfield.

'The things that impressed me most at the Front.'

Chairman: Geo. K. Charlesworth, Esq.

OFFERTORY FOR MEMORIAL FUND.

J. W. Lambert & Sons, Printers, Cheapside, Settle.

ORDER OF SERVICE

to be used at the

UNVEILING

of the

War Memorial Tablet

and

PERMANENT ROLL of HONOUR,

in the

WESLEYAN CHURCH, SETTLE,

on

WEDNESDAY, July 28th, 1920,

AT 6-45 P.M.

WESLEYAN WAR MEMORIAL. — On Wednesday evening week a large congregation attended the Wesleyan Church on the occasion of the unveiling of the war memorial tablet and permanent roll of honour. The unveiling ceremony was performed by Col. Birkbeck. To some perhaps that would be an occasion of sadness, he said, for there could not be many who during the last five years had not directly or indirectly been made to feel the great sorrow and suffering that had been amongst them. He thought these memorials were the last token of respect for the men whose lives were written on them. Throughout the British Empire in every village, in every town, these memorials were being erected. The flower of our manhood was lying in soldiers' graves. He could not remain indifferent regarding the objects for which these men died. They laid down their lives that England might be saved. To him, this tablet meant one thing above all others, that a man's life was not measured by noble deeds,—rather was it measured by the willingness to answer the call of duty and to live a life of self-sacrifice for his fellow men. Finally, Col. Birkbeck asked them to remember the sacrifice these men had made, to follow their noble example, and never forget what they had done for us.—On the tablet are the names of those who have fallen, and on the left of this is the Roll of Honour containing the names of the men who went out. Special music was rendered by the choir under the conductorship of Mr. J. Silverwood, whilst Mr. J. Harger presided at the organ. Amongst the music was the anthem "Glorious in Heaven." A short address was given by Rev. Thos. Tiplady, M.C., and prayers were offered by the minister, Rev. E. G. Charlesworth. In the evening Rev. Thos. Tiplady gave an interesting lecture entitled "The things that impressed me most at the Front," the chair being taken by Mr. G. K. Charlesworth. The oak tablet and the parchment roll have been designed and illuminated by Mr. W. T. Shuttleworth, of Skipton, the cabinet work and carving by Mr. E. Robinson, of Skipton. At the end of the dedication service the "Last post" was sounded by Mr. A. T. Bilton.

National School, Settle.

UNVEILING OF War Memorial Tablet

BY

JOHN WILSON, ESQ.

(Headmaster, 1863-79).

DEDICATION by THE VICAR.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 11th, 1920,
AT 8 P.M.

"This tablet is a tribute to all former Scholars of this School who served in the Great War of 1914-1918, and in undying memory of the following who gave their lives for us."

GEORGE ABRA
FRED BALDWIN
ROBERT BATESON
JOHN E. BELL
ROBERT W. BELL
HARLEY BENTHAM
WILLIAM G. BRADLEY
FRANK BULCOCK
GEORGE R. BULLOCK
HARRY BULLOCK
CYRIL BUTLER
HERBERT CLARK
JOHN COKELL
DAVID H. J. CRACKNELL
ERNEST DICKINSON
EDWARD ELLERSHAW
JAMES EWART
ROBERT EWART
FREDERICK FROST

CHARLES GROVES
HAROLD HODGSON
JOHN HODGSON
ROBERT F. JONES
JOSEPH R. LORD
FANNY MASON
RICHARD MONK
GEORGE R. MILLEN
JOHN PACKARD
JAMES PARKER
DORIS J. PROCTER
SYDNEY J. PROCTER
ALBERT RALPH
WILLIAM TROUGHTON
GEORGE E. TURNER
JOHN E. WILSON
ERNEST T. WOUFF
ROBERT J. WOUFF

ORDER OF CEREMONY.

OPENING HYMN 165, Ancient & Modern

O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home;

Beneath the shadow of Thy Throne
Thy Saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is Thine Arm alone
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the Same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

Short Prayer THE VICAR

Chairman's Address C. J. LORD, ESQ.

Headmaster's Report E. E. ROBERTS, ESQ.

Unveiling of the Tablet JOHN WILSON, ESQ.

Dedication of the Tablet THE VICAR

HYMN 447, Ancient & Modern

Soldiers, who are Christ's below
Strong in faith resist the foe:
Boundless is the pledg'd reward
Unto them who serve the Lord.

'Tis no palm of fading leaves
That the conqueror's hand receives:
Joys are his, serene and pure,
Light that ever shall endure.

For the souls that overcome
Waits the bounteous heavenly home
Where the Blessèd evermore
Tread, on high, the starry floor.

Passing soon and little worth
Are the things that tempt on earth;
Heavenward lift thy soul's regard;
God Himself is thy Reward.

Father, Who the crown dost give,
Saviour, by Whose Death we live,
Spirit, Who our hearts dost raise,
Three in One, Thy Name we praise.
Amen.

Short Addresses

REV. L. J. MALKINSON

REV. E. G. CHARLESWORTH

REV. R. R. RICKERS

HYMN... .. 437, Ancient & Modern

For all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confess'd
Thy Name, O Jesu, be for ever blest.
Alleluia!

Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light.
Alleluia!

O may Thy soldiers, faithful true and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold.
Alleluia!

O blest communion! fellowship Divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.
Alleluia!

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again and arms are strong.
Alleluia!

The golden evening brightens in the west;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors comes their rest;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.
Alleluia!

But lo! there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The Saints triumphant rise in bright array:
The King of glory passes on His way.
Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia!

Collection in aid of St. Dunstan's Home for Blinded Soldiers.

Blessing

Last Post and Reveille

"GOD SAVE THE KING."

BER, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER

SETTLE WAR MEMORIAL.
UNVEILING AND DEDICATION OF NATIONAL SCHOOL MEMORIAL
TABLET.

The tablet erected by the old scholars of the Settle National School in memory of all old scholars who served during the war, and in particular of those who gave their lives, was unveiled and dedicated on Armistice Day night (Thursday last). There was a large attendance of old scholars and parents. Mr. Charles J. Lord presided. The tablet, which is placed in the large schoolroom, is of rich design, in brass, the work having been executed by Messrs. Osborne and Co., of London, and is mounted on an unpolished oak surround with plate-glass front, the total cost being about £84. The tablet bears the following inscription:—

"This tablet is a tribute to all former scholars of this school who served in the Great War of 1914-1918, and in undying lives for us."

- | | |
|-----------------------|-------------------|
| George Abra | Charles Groves |
| Fred Baldwin | Harold Hodgson |
| Robert Bateson | John Hodgson |
| John E. Bell | Robert F. Jones |
| Robert W. Bell | Joseph R. Lord |
| Harley Bentham | Fanny Mason |
| William G. Bradley | Richard Monk |
| Frank Bulcock | George R. Millen |
| George R. Bullock | John Packard |
| Harry Bullock | James Parker |
| Cyril Butler | Doris J. Procter |
| Herbert Clark | Sidney J. Procter |
| John Cokell | Albert Ralph |
| David H. J. Cracknell | William Troughton |
| Ernest Dickinson | George E. Turner |
| Edward Ellershaw | John E. Wilson |
| James Ewart | Ernest T. Wooff |
| Robert Ewart | Robert J. Wooff. |
| Frederick Frost | |

The proceedings commenced with the singing of the hymn "O God our help in ages past," followed by a short prayer offered by the Vicar, Rev. W. E. Linney.

Mr. Lord said he himself was an old boy, and that the proceedings were the more gratifying to him because his old schoolmaster, Mr. John Wilson, was present that night to unveil the tablet. That day had been chosen for the event because it was the anniversary of Armistice Day, when the whole nation was paying honour to its dead, and an unknown Warrior was laid to rest in Westminster Abbey. Whilst they were honouring the dead let them not forget the living. He appealed to all present to assist in the resettlement of the 25,000 unemployed soldiers—men who gave up their jobs and left their homes in the days of direst need. In conclusion, he said the memorial tablet would perpetuate the memories of those who died and fought for England.

Mr. C. E. Roberts (the present schoolmaster) gave a brief outline of how the scheme originated, and mentioned the fact that £13 odd was still required to meet the expenses which he hoped those old scholars who had not already responded would speedily rectify.

The Chairman then called upon Mr. John Wilson (headmaster of the schools from 1863 to 1879) to unveil the tablet.

Mr. Wilson, who had a very cordial reception, said: "I have the honour to unveil this tablet to the memory of those scholars who gave up their lives in upholding the defence of King and country and of us all. I have been asked to perform this ceremony because I was headmaster of these schools. It is 40 years since I retired, and although I did not personally know all the persons whose names appear on the tablet, I remember many of the names, and doubtless some of the parents have at some time been under my care; and to those who have lost their sons I beg to offer my deepest sympathy."

Mr. Wilson then unveiled the tablet by withdrawing the Union Jack therefrom.

The Vicar dedicated the memorial, and short addresses were given by Rev. L. J. Malkinson (Congregational), Rev. E. G. Charlesworth (Wesleyan), and Rev. R. R. Rickers (Primitive Methodist).

During the last hymn, "For all the saints who from their labours rest," a collection was taken in aid of St. Dunstan's Home for Blinded Soldiers, which totalled £5 1s. 9d.

The Settle Brass Band accompanied the singing of the hymns, and a very impressive ceremony was brought to a close by the sounding of "The Last Post" and the singing of the National Anthem.

National

War M

JOHN

DEDIC

THURSDAY

"This tablet is a tribu
the Great War of 1

- GEORGE ABRA
- FRED BALDWIN
- ROBERT BATESON
- JOHN E. BELL
- ROBERT W. BELL
- HARLEY BENTHAM
- WILIAM G. BRAD
- FRANK BULCOCK
- GEORGE R. BULLOCK
- HARRY BULLOCK
- CYRIL BUTLER
- HERBERT CLARK
- JOHN COKELL
- DAVID H. J. CRACK
- ERNEST DICKINSON
- EDWARD ELLERSHAW
- JAMES EWART
- ROBERT EWART
- FREDERICK FROST

Settle.

Tablet

1920, no served in ollowing

Settle Parish Church War Memorial MUSTER ROLL.

The general principle on which the Roll has been prepared has been to include men who joined up from Settle and men whose homes were at Settle but who joined up elsewhere.

Airey, J. A.
Airey, J. E.
Airey, Matthew Armistead, G.
Atkinson, George
Atkinson, J. W.
Atkinson, Thomas
Baldwin, George
Baldwin, Frederick
Baldwin, Wellington
Ball, Frederick
Barwick, William
Bateson, W. G.
Bell, Arthur C.
Bell, James
Bell, Stephen H.
Bentham, Frank
Bentham, Thomas
Birkbeck, John
Birkbeck, Victor John Bolt, Herbert
Bolt, M.
Boyes, John William
Booth, John Bradley, James
Bradley, J. E.
Bradley, Thomas
Bradley, Thomas
Brassington, Fred
Brassington, Tom H.
Brayshaw, Thomas
Brennand, John
Briggs, W. T.
Brown, Edgar W.
Bulcock, Charles
Bulcock, Fred
Bulcock, Thomas Allen
Bullock, Fred
Bullock, William
Bullock, William
Campbell, Ernest
Carr, George W.

Carr, John
Cardus, John Thomas
Cardus, Gordon
Cardus, Kenneth Cavan,
Clark, Adam
Clark, Edward
Clark, Frank R.
Clark, George
Clark, John
Clark, Robert Clark, Walter
Clark, William H.
Close, Frederic
Cokell, Adam
Cokell, Ernest
Cokell, Frank
Cokell, Lawrence
Congreve, Walter H.
Corney, John W.
Cox, Robert
Cox, Charles William
Cox, George
Cox, Harry
Cox, William
Dawson, William
Dickin, Frank
Dickinson, Charles W. T.
Dickinson, Ernest
Dickinson, H.
Dickinson, Herbert
Dickinson, John Robinson
Dickinson, William
Donoghue, William
Duxbury, Alexander
Duxbury, George Harold Duxbury, John
Earnshaw, Thomas
Earnshaw, William
Easter, Thomas
Eccleston, William J.
Edmondson, Mathew Graham

Edmondson, Thomas
Ellis, Anthony Norman
Ellis, Christopher Reginald
Ellis, John B.
Elmer, George
Embley, Arthur
Embley, Harold
Evans, John
Falshaw, John
Fearn, Bertram H.
Fearn, Cecil A.
Fern, J. J.
Fletcher, William
Forster, Wilson
Foster, Arthur
Foster, Eli
Foster, F. H.
Foster, Harold
Foster, Walter Alfred
Foster, William
Foxcroft, Harold
Foxcroft, Thomas
Frankland, Charles
Frankland, Thirston
Garnett, William Baines
Gibson, William Edward Gilchrist, John Henry
Gilchrist, William Fowler
Giles, Tom Tasker
Gill, Harold Graham, Harold Gratton, Harry Gratton, Sam
Grisedale, Herbert
Hall, Joseph
Hancock, John
Hardacre, Thomas
Harris, John
Hartley, J. W.
Hayes, Arthur
Haygarth, James
Haygarth, Matthew Thompson
Hayton, John
Hayton, Thomas
Hayton, William Edward
Heard, F. J.
Heelis, John
Herrington, Edgar Hickling, Joseph
Hirst, William Henry
Hodgson, Robert
Hodgson, Luke
Hodgson, T. W. S.
Hoggarth, William Thos. M.
Holdsworth, J. Stanley
Holmes, Thomas

Holt, George Frederick
Horner, Arthur W.
Horner, Anthony
Horner, Bryan
Horner, Edward Holmes
Horner, Harry
Horner, Michael T.
Horner, Thomas
Horner, Wilfred
Howarth, John
Hubbard, Edwin
Humphrey, Ernest Willam
Humphrey, John
Hyslop, Balfour Stuart
Ion, John Thomas
Jackson, Archibald
Jackson, John Edwin Jellett, George
Jeffery, W.
Johnson, Edgar
Johnson, Joseph E.
Jones, Herbert
Kelly, Thomas
Kendal, Charles
Kew, Harold Kew, Westby
Kitchener, Allan
Kitchener, Arthur
Kitchener, Charles Kitchener, Edwin
Lamb, John
Lambert, Ernest
Lambert, Victor
Laytham, Thomas
Limmer, William Frederick
Lord, Arthur
Lord, Fred
Lord, John
Lord, John
Lord, James
Lord, Thomas Preston
Lord, Thomas
Lord, Richard
Lyne, H.
Marsden, Charles
Marsden, Harry
Marsden, Herbert
Marsden, John
Marsden, Richard
Marsden, W.
Marshall, Sidney
Maudsley, H. Victor
Mauders, A.
Mauders, R. Henry
Mauders, Walter P.
Maynard, H. E.

McLeod, E.
Metcalf, Joseph Stamper
Middlemiss, George Whitson
Milford, Charles Archibald
Miller, Harold Millington, Charles
Moorby, John
Moorby, John Thomas
Moorby, E.
Moorby, George
Moorby, W.
Moore, Thomas
Morphet, Edwin Redmayne
Nelson, John
Nelson, Emily
Nelson, Norman
Newhouse, Robert
Nicholson, Ronald Schofield
Parker, Arthur
Parker, Charles
Parker, Christopher Walker
Parker, Clifton Yeadon
Parker, George Henry
Parker, Henry Joseph
Parker, James Walker
Patchett, Ernest Edwin Phillipson, William Pilkington, Alfred
Potter, J. B.
Potter, G. T.
Pratt, John
Pratt, Robert
Procter, Herbert
Procter, John
Pullen Frederick
Ralph, Alfred
Ralph, Craven Wilson
Ralph, Percy
Ralph, Sidney
Ralph, Thomas
Ralph, Walter
Ralph, William
Ralston, Joseph
Rawdin, Robert
Redmayne, Samuel Hodgson
Redmayne, William
Reilly, Charles
Reilly, Harry Render, F. H.
Renshaw, Joel Hector
Richardson, John Lambert
Richardson, William
Robinson, George
Robinson, John
Rushton, Herbert W.
Russell, Arthur

Sanctuary, Rawson
Segger, Robert
Segger, Wilfred Charles
Sherwin, Arthur W.
Shepherd, William
Short, George
Sidwells, John W.
Simpson, Holborn
Simpson, R. S.
Smith, Alex.
Smith, Joseph Victor
Stanmore, R. B.
Sturdy, Ernest
Sturdy, John H.
Sturdy, Reginald B.
Sunter, Fred
Tindall, J. W.
Tomlinson, John
Tomlinson, John
Tomlinson, R. Mason
Towler, Joseph
Towler, Winfred
Turner, Robert
Umpleby, Walter
Walker, John Fraser
Wallace, W. J. B.
Walsh, T.
Walsh, Joseph
Walton, Ernest
Ward, Christopher John
Ward, Rowland
Warwick, Leonard
Webb, Solomon R.
Whipp, Fred
Whipp, Joseph
Whipp,
Whitehead, J. R.
Whiteley, Samuel
Whiteley, Percy
Whitworth, Thomas Stanley
Woods, William E.
Woods, Henry
Woolerton, Benjamin
Woolerton, Frank
Woolerton, Fred
Woolerton, Harry
Wright, Thomas
Yates, Walter
Yesson, Charles
Yesson, Joseph
Yesson, F. H.
Young, Hubert
Young, Tom
Vant, Eustace Hazel

If the "Last Post" be sounded, it should be immediately before the Blessing.

Suitable Hymns for the Service are the following:—

- "God of the living."—A. & M., 608
- "Soldiers who are Christ's below."—447
- "For all the Saints."—437
- "There is a Land of pure delight."—536
- "O God, our help in ages past."—165

Order of Service

Sanctioned for Use

IN

The Diocese of Bradford

AT THE

Dedication of War Memorials

Church of the Holy Ascension, SETTLE.

DEDICATION of WAR MEMORIAL TABLET

BY

The Lord Bishop of Bradford.

MONDAY, JUNE 28th, 1920,
at 7-30 p.m.

"To the glory of God and in ever grateful remembrance of those connected with this parish who laid down their lives in the Sacred cause of freedom and good faith and in defence of their homes and country during the war with Germany and her allies 1914-1918."

| | | |
|-------------------------|------------------------|------------------------|
| George Abra | Edward Ellershaw | Charles Peachey |
| John Barrett | Ernest Foster | Thomas Howarth Preston |
| John Edward Bell | Frederick Frost | Sidney J. Procter |
| Robert William Bell | Harold Goss | Albert Ralph |
| George Schofield Bellas | Alfred Gower | John Francis Thwaites |
| Harley Bentham | Charles Henry Hallmark | Robert Tomlinson |
| William George Bradley | Frank Halpin | William Troughton |
| William H. Brassington | Harold Hodgson | George Edward Turner |
| Frank Bulcock | John Hodgson | Harry M. Walton |
| George Robert Bullock | Peter Hodgson | Wilfred W. Whiteley |
| Harry Bullock | Robert Francis Jones | John Edward Wilson |
| Herbert Clark | Richard Monk | Ernest Thorpe Wooff |
| John Cokell | George Robert Millen | Robert John Wooff |
| D. H. J. Cracknell | John M. Morphet | Doris Procter— |
| George Creighton | John Packard | V. A. D. Nurse |
| Ernest Dickinson | James Parker | |

Order of Service.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

OR

NATIONAL ANTHEM.

OPENING SENTENCES.

"Jesus said, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live, and whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die."—JOHN XI., 25-26.

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends."—JOHN XV., 13.

"I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."—REV. XIV., 13.

LET US PRAY.

Our Father, etc.

- V. O Lord, open Thou our lips,
R. And our mouth shall show forth Thy praise.
V. O God, make speed to save us.
R. O Lord, make haste to help us.

All Stand.

- V. Glory be to the Father, etc.
R. As it was in the beginning, etc.
V. Praise ye the Lord.
R. The Lord's name be praised.

Then shall be sung one or both of the following Psalms :

PSALM XXIII.

THE Lord is my shepherd : therefore can I lack nothing.

2 He shall feed me in a green pasture : and lead me forth beside the waters of comfort.

3 He shall convert my soul : and bring me forth in the paths of righteousness, for His Name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil : for Thou art with me ; Thy rod and Thy staff comfort me.

5 Thou shalt prepare a table before me against them that trouble me ; Thou hast anointed my head with oil, and my cup shall be full.

6 But Thy loving-kindness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life : and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

PSALM XLVI.

GOD is our hope and strength : a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved : and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell : and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God : the holy place of the tabernacle of the most Highest.

5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed : God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved : but God hath shewed His voice, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

8 O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord : what destruction he hath brought upon the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease in all the world : He breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God : I will be exhaled among the heathen, and I will be exhaled in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is with us : the God of Jacob is our refuge.

THE LESSON.

Wisdom III., 1-6 ; or Rev. VII., 9-end ; or Rev. XXI., 1-5.

HYMN.

THE APOSTLES CREED.

Then shall follow this bidding.

LET US REMEMBER before God the brave and the true who have died the death of honour, and have departed into the resurrection of eternal life, especially those men of this parish (and congregation) who fell in the Great War. For which purpose silence will be kept for a space, the congregation kneeling.

V. O Lord, hear our prayer.

R. And let our cry come unto Thee.

LET US PRAY.

WE COMMEND unto Thy mercy, most merciful Father, the souls of our brothers departed, beseeching Thee of Thine infinite goodness to give us grace to live in Thy fear and love, and to die in Thy favour : that when the judgment shall come, which Thou hast committed to Thy well-beloved Son, both these our brothers and we may be found acceptable in Thy sight, and receive that blessing which Thy well-beloved Son shall then pronounce to all that love and fear Thee, saying, Come ye blessed children of my Father, receive the Kingdom prepared for you before the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech Thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

ALMIGHTY GOD, our heavenly Father, who didst give unto our sailors and soldiers grace to suffer and to die for the salvation of our country and Christendom from tyranny and destruction, we give Thee humble thanks for these Thy servants. Grant, we beseech Thee, that we may be more worthy of so great a sacrifice, and help us so to live, that justice and liberty, peace and brotherhood may abound amongst us, and that Thy blessed Kingdom may be enlarged, through Him who gave Himself on the Cross for the salvation of the world, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMFORT, O LORD, we pray Thee, all who are mourning the loss of those who are near and dear to them. Support them in Thy love. Teach them to rest and lean on Thee. Give them faith to look beyond the troubles of this present time, and to know that neither life nor death can separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord, to whom with the Father and the Holy Ghost be all honour and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

HYMN, OR ANTHEM.

At the conclusion of the Hymn the Clergy and Choir will proceed to the Memorial, which shall then be Unveiled.

Then shall the Bishop (if he be present) say—

IN THE FAITH OF JESUS CHRIST we dedicate this Memorial to the Glory of God, and in memory of those from this parish (or connected with this Church) who fell in the War, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY FATHER, Lord of Heaven and Earth, vouchsafe we beseech Thee to accept this offering at our hands (for the adornment of Thy House of Prayer), and to consecrate this our gift to Thy Glory, and ourselves to Thy service, for Jesus Christ's sake. Amen.

ALMIGHTY AND MERCIFUL GOD, of whose only gift it cometh that Thy faithful people do unto Thee true and laudable service, grant, we beseech Thee, that we may so faithfully serve Thee in this life, that we fail not finally to attain Thy heavenly promises, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

THE Grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.

HYMN.

ADDRESS.

HYMN.

BLESSING.

*If the "Last Post" be sounded, it should be immediately
before the Blessing.*

Suitable Hymns for the Service are the following:—

- "God of the living."—A. & M., 608
- "Soldiers who are Christ's below."—447
- "For all the Saints."—437
- "There is a Land of pure delight."—536
- "O God, our help in ages past."—165

SETTLE CHURCH WAR MEMORIAL.

Unveiling and Dedication Service.

On Monday evening the memorial tablet erected in the Church of the Holy Ascension, Settle, in memory of those connected with the parish who laid down their lives during the war, was unveiled and dedicated.

The tablet is of hand-carved bronze in relief, and is of rich design, the work having been executed by Messrs. A. R. Mowbray and Co., of London. It measures 4 feet by 2 feet, and is mounted on an unpolished oak surround. The tablet is erected on the western wall of the Church and bears the following inscription:—

"To the glory of God and in ever grateful remembrance of those connected with this parish who laid down their lives in the sacred cause of freedom and good faith; and in defence of their homes and country during the war with Germany and her allies, 1914-1918."

Then follow the names of

THE 47 WHO FALL IN THE WAR.

George Airm, John Barrett, John Edward Bell, Robert William Bell, George Schofield Ballins, Harley Bentham, William George Bradley, William H. Brassington, Frank Bullock, George Robert Bullock, Harry Bullock, Herbert Clark, John Colwell, D. H. J. Craikell, George Cwigham, Ernest Dickinson, Edward Ellerslaw, Ernest Foster, Frederick Frost, Harold Goss, Alfred Gover, Chas. Henry Hallmark, Frank Halpin, Harold Hodgson, John Hodgson, Peter Hodgson, Robt. Francis Jones, Richard Monk, George Robert Millen, John M. Mopriet, John Packard, James Packer, Charles Peachey, Thomas Haworth Preston, Sidney J. Procter, Albert Ralph, John Francis Thwaites, Robert Tomlinson, William Traughton, George Edward Turner, Harry M. Walton, Wilfred W. Whiteley, John Edward Wilson, Ernest Thomas Wolff, Robert John Wood, Doris Proctor—V.A.D. nurse.

The following text appears on the scroll at the foot of the tablet:—"In Thy light shall we see light" (Ps. xxxvi. 9). The whole is surrounded by a carved border of oak leaves and acorns.

A large congregation attended an impressive service which was conducted by the Lord Bishop of Bradford (Dr. Perowne) and the vicar, Rev. W. E. Lintey, assisted by Rev. T. D. Wheeler, vicar of Ruffell, the special form of service for the dedication of memorials in the diocese of Bradford being used.

The congregation included a goodly number of ex-service men who marched to the Church from the headquarters of the Comrades' Club, headed by the Settle Brass Band.

The Bishop in his address spoke on the subject of the League of Nations.

Lieut.-Col. J. Birkbeck, who was in command of the First 6th Battalion Duke of Wellington's Regiment on its embarkation for France in April, 1915, unveiled the tablet, and in a few terse sentences summed up the lessons to be learned from the sacrifices the men had made.

The distinction ceremony also included a Book of Remembrance, or Muster Roll of Honour, which contained the names of all who had served in the war from the parish. The book was supplied by Messrs. Bumpus and Co., of London, and is enclosed in a case of unpolished oak with glass front, the inscription on the case being "Grant us Thy peace."

During the ceremony the Bishop was presented by Col. Birkbeck with a copy of the book provided by Mr. Walter Morrison, of Malham Taro, entitled "Seven's Part in the Great War."

The musical portion of the service was in the capable hands of the organist and choristress, Mr. F. Lord, the anthem "Give us, O Lord," being well rendered by a strong choir.

The Last Post, sounded by Mr. A. J. HIBSON, followed by the singing of the National Anthem, brought a most impressive service to a close. The tablet was unveiled by Mrs. G. H. and was for the Rev. Dr. Perowne's Honor by Hisself, etc.

SETTLE. PARISH CHURCH WAR MEMORIAL.

At a meeting of the members of the congregation of the above Church held in May last a resolution was passed that a subscription list be opened for the raising of funds to place a memorial tablet in the Church to the Settle men who died on active service, together with a book of remembrance containing the names of all from the Parish who served with the Colours. A committee appointed by the meeting, after having gone thoroughly into the matter, recommended that the proposed tablet be of hand-carved bronze, in relief, measuring not less than 4ft. by 2ft., and that the work be entrusted to Messrs. A. R. Mowbray and Co., of London. The Committee also recommends that the book of remembrance be the "Muster Roll of Honour," specially prepared for Parish Churches, Colleges and School Chapels, by Messrs. Edward Bumpus Ltd., of London. The estimated cost of the above is £120 which amount has almost now been subscribed.

The proposed inscription is as follows:—

"To the Glory of God and in ever grateful remembrance of those connected with this Parish who laid down their lives in defence of their homes and country and in the sacred cause of freedom and good faith during the War with Germany and her Allies 1914-1918."

Following this are the names of about 50 soldiers who have fallen at the War, with a text at foot, "In Thy light shall we see light" (Ps. xxxvi. 9).

A list of the names of soldiers to appear on the tablet will shortly be posted in the Church porch, and in order that such list may be as complete as possible, the Committee responsible for the compilation would be much obliged if relatives would see that the names of those in whom they are interested are duly recorded.

2nd July 1920

LOCAL WAR MEMORIALS UNVEILED.

BRONZE TABLET AT SETTLE PARISH CHURCH.

A crowded congregation assembled at the Church of the Holy Ascension, Settle, on Monday evening to witness the unveiling and dedication of a tablet erected in memory of the 45 soldiers and one nurse from the village who lost their lives during the war. The tablet, which has been placed between the third and fourth windows on the west wall inside the church, is of hand-carved bronze in relief, and measures four feet by two feet.

Settle's "Noble Roll."

It is set within a border of light oak, and bears the following inscription:—

"To the glory of God and in ever grateful remembrance of those connected with this parish who laid down their lives in the sacred cause of freedom and good faith and in defence of their homes and country during the war with Germany and her Allies 1914—1918."

- | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|
| George Abra | Harold Hodgson |
| John Barrett | John Hodgson |
| John Edward Bell | Peter Hodgson |
| Robert William Bell | Robert Francis Jones |
| George Schofield Bellas | Richard Monk |
| Harley Bentham | George Robert Millen |
| William George Bradley | John M. Morphett |
| William H. Brassington | John Packard |
| Frank Bulcock | James Parker |
| George Robert Bullock | Charles Peachey |
| Harry Bullock | Thomas Rowarth |
| Herbert Clark | Proston |
| John Cokell | Sidney J. Procter |
| D. H. J. Cracknell | Albert Ralph |
| George Creighton | John Francis Thwaites |
| Ernest Dickinson | Robert Tomlinson |
| Edward Ellershaw | William Troughton |
| Ernest Foster | George Edward Turner |
| Frederick Frost | Harry M. Walton |
| Harold Goss | Walter W. Whitely |
| Alfred Goss | John Edward Wood |
| Charles George Harrison | Ernest George Wood |
| Frank Help'n | Robert John Wooff |
- Doris Procter—V.A.D. Nurse.

The inscription is surmounted by a cross beneath a martyr's crown, and there is also the text, "In Thy Light shall we see light." The tablet itself has a border of oak-leaves and acorns.

The tablet has cost £100, subscribed for by members of the Church.

The scheme of commemoration includes, in addition to the tablet, a handsome volume, bound in red leather and heavily gilded, which rests in a case of light oak set immediately beneath the tablet. The volume contains the names of all the men who joined the forces from Settle, and has been prepared and fixed at a cost of £20.

The committee established to carry out the memorial scheme comprised the following:—The Rev. W. E. Lunney (chairman), Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Goss, Miss Goldard, Messrs. A. Parker (secretary), J. W. Shepherd, C. J. Lord, G. Broughton, and J. Moore.

Unveiling by Colonel Birkbeck.

The unveiling ceremony was performed by Lieutenant-Colonel J. Birkbeck, who commanded the 16th Battalion of the Duke of Wellington's Regiment on embarkation to France in 1915. The tablet was dedicated by the Bishop of Bradford (Dr. Perowne), and assisting at the service were the Vicar of Settle and the Vicar of Rathmell (the Rev. T. D. Wheeler). On the western side of the church seats were reserved for members of the Settle branch of the "Comrades" Association, and some thirty marched to the church, headed by the Settle Brass Band under the conductorship of Mr. A. Bliton. A feature of the service was the admirable singing of the choir (who contributed the anthem, "Save us, O Lord!") and the polished accompaniments of the organist (Mrs. F. Lord). The usual order of service set apart for the dedication of war memorials at churches within the Bradford diocese was gone through, the hymns being "O God, Our Help in Ages Past," "There is a Land of Pure Delight," "God of the Living," and "Soldiers who are Christ's."

Colonel Birkbeck, in unveiling the tablet, expressed his deep appreciation of the honour which that emblem of remembrance implied to the men of Settle who fell for their country.

Craven's "Memorial" Volume.

The Bishop having dedicated the tablet, he was presented by Colonel Birkbeck with a copy of the book entitled "Craven's Part in the Great War." This publication has been compiled by the initiative of Mr. Walter Morrison for the purpose of recording the names of the men who fell in the great struggle of the British from the outbreak and have been compiled by Mr. Morrison for the purpose of dedicating the tablet erected in the Parish Church in the memory of the men throughout the hymns being "Of God, Our Heavenly Ages Past," "There is a Land of Pure Delight,"

"God of the Living," and "Soldiers who are Christ's."

Colonel Birkbeck, in unveiling the tablet, expressed his deep appreciation of the honour which that emblem of remembrance implied to the men of Settle who fell for their country.

Craven's "Memorial" Volume.

The Bishop having dedicated the tablet, he was presented by Colonel Birkbeck with a copy of the book entitled "Craven's Part in the Great War." This publication has been compiled at the instance of Mr. Walter Morrison for distribution at his expense to the men (or their relatives) who joined the forces from the Skipton Parliamentary Division.

In handing the volume to Dr. Perowne,
Colonel Birkbeck said:—"Your Lordship,—
You have been so good as to visit Settle this day for the purpose of dedicating the tablet erected in the Parish Church to the memory of the men from Settle who laid down their lives during the Great War.

It may, therefore, be deemed fitting to state that some ten thousand men responded to the call of patriotism and joined one branch or other of His Majesty's Forces from that part of your Diocese known from ancient times as "Craven."

More than fifteen hundred of these made the Supreme Sacrifice, and to commemorate their gallant lives and noble deaths, Mr. Walter Morrison had caused to be compiled a Memorial Volume in which their deeds are recorded, and their features are depicted, in order that future generations may honour the memory of our Glorious Dead, and emulate their lofty example.

Your acceptance of a copy of this work is therefore asked, as it is felt that it is closely and tenderly associated with the especial object of to-day's ceremony.

The Bishop, in reply, acknowledged what he described as the honour and privilege of receiving a record of such magnificent war service. It would be, he said, his object, sedulously to preserve it.

Dr. Perowne on "Giving" and "Not Getting."

The remainder of the proceedings were distinguished by a thoughtful and eloquent address by Dr. Perowne. Their first thought, he said, must be connected with those whom they had assembled to honour—a few of that noble roll contained in the book presented to him by Col.
Birkbeck. The book was a record of which Yorkshire might well be proud, and which Craven would cherish as a testimony to its contribution to the peace that had been won.
"We honour their names and their heroism," he declared, "and we believe their deeds will be immortal."

The death of those whom they commemorated was not, he said, a matter for unrelieved sadness.
There was a note of triumph in their sacrifice, and their death was not to be marked by a broken column, but by a morning star pointing to a glorious day. Many of the men who had died on the battlefield were not perhaps living lives full of holiness, yet they had that spark of faith which linked them up to Christ who was "finishing them up to your dreams." Their message to those who were left, went on Dr.
Perowne, was "to give and not to get" in order that the fruits of the victory they had achieved might be realised. There was a tremendous responsibility resting upon each individual to live a Christian life. "We see all around us," said the Bishop, "people spending their whole time and energy in getting instead of giving—getting by profligating amongst other ways.
He submitted that the lack of anxiety and the presence of an extraordinary joy in the disposition of our men at the front was due to the fact that they were "giving out all the time."
They must extend sympathy to, rather than blame those, who, in the throes of a terrible reaction, now neglected to attend Church.

One way, went on Dr. Perowne, in which we could contribute to a solution of the many terrible problems which lay in front of the country, was by supporting the League of Nations scheme. This scheme, he declared, was the first practical expression of the Christian faith as applied to international relationships.
Labour men and trades unionists, realising that force was no good, were now crying out against conscription. The only thing with which to replace material force, he submitted, was spiritual power.

At the close of the service the "Last Post" was sounded by Mr. Bilton.

A collection for the benefit of St. Dunstan's Hostel amounted to £11 13s.

DISTRIBUTION OF MR. MORRISON'S BOOK.

At the close of a united memorial service to be held in the Settle cricket field on Sunday afternoon, a copy of Mr. Morrison's "presentation" volume will be distributed to every man and woman in town who served during the war. In regard to those entitled to copies of the book, who cannot attend the service, arrangements will be made to present them with copies at a future date. If the weather is unfavourable, the distribution will take place at the Victoria Hall.

HUBBERHOLME'S TABLET OF MARBLE.

On Saturday, in the beautiful old Church at Hubberholme a tablet in memory of those from the parish who fell in the war, was unveiled and dedicated. The tablet, of white marble bordered with yellow Cornish marble, bears the following names:—

| | |
|-----------------|-------------------|
| John Turnbull | Wilfred E. Holmes |
| James Banks | Matthew Holmes |
| Matthias Dixon | Bernard Tennant |
| Gilbert Tennant | Rowland Parke |
| Francis Kendall | |

Colonel Mandle, of the Fleet, Ryelstone, unveiled the tablet, and the dedication was performed by the vicar (the Rev. J. B. M. Chaplin).

A large and varied congregation was present.

SETTLE PARISH CHURCH.

JULY, 1919.

DEAR SIR OR MADAM,

Settle Church War Memorial Fund.

A Meeting of Members of the Congregation was held on May 7th, and a resolution adopted that a subscription list be opened for the raising of Funds to place a Memorial Tablet in the Church, to the Settle men who died on active service connected with the late war, together with a Book of Remembrance containing the names of all from the parish who served with the Colours.

A Committee, appointed by the Meeting, after having gone thoroughly into the matter, recommend that the proposed Tablet be of hand-carved bronze, in relief, measuring not less than 4ft. x 2ft., and that the work be entrusted to Messrs. A. R. Mowbray & Co., of London. They also recommend that the Book of Remembrance be the "Muster Roll of Honour," specially prepared for Parish Churches, Colleges, and School Chapels, by Messrs. Edward Bumpus, Ltd., of London.

The total cost of carrying out the above projects is estimated at £120.

It is confidently hoped that this sum may be quickly and willingly subscribed, for an object which, it is believed, must appeal both widely and deeply, and your generous help is invited to this end. Should any considerable sum be contributed in excess of the requirements, a meeting of subscribers will be called to consult as to how the balance should be applied.

Subscriptions may be paid to the Hon. Treasurer—Mr. A. Stockil, at the London Joint City & Midland Bank, or to the Vicar, Churchwardens, Sidesmen, or any Member of the War Memorial Committee.

The subscription list will be closed on Saturday, August 16th.

We are, in behalf of the Committee,

Yours faithfully,

W. E. LINNEY, Chairman.

A. STOCKIL, Hon. Treasurer.

A. PARKER, Hon. Secretary.

SETTLE CHURCH WAR MEMORIAL FUND.

I have pleasure in enclosing for the above Fund.

£

..

s.

d.

Signed,

To A. STOCKIL, Esq.

Novelty Studio, Plymouth.

THE FIRST BISHOP OF BRADFORD.

confidence in the God of all Goodness. To live in this faith gives us the victory, even over the grave. In this faith we look beyond! We see further on. We feel that "if we still love those we lose we can never lose those we love." Nay, we believe that, by and by, even we shall see again

Those angel faces smile

Which we have loved long since, and lost awhile.

The O.T.C. of Giggleswick School will furnish a Guard of Honour.

Saint
Alkelda's Church,

Giggleswick-in-Craven.

ORDER OF THE Unveiling of the Memorial Panels

BY

Lt.-General Sir F. IVOR MAXSE, K.C.B., C.V.O., D.S.O.
(Commandant of the Northern Army),

AND THE

Dedication of the Chapel of Remembrance

BY

The Right Reverend BISHOP TAYLOR SMITH, C.B., C.V.O., D.D.
CHAPLAIN-GENERAL TO THE FORCES.

On Thursday, 6th October, 1921, at 7 o'clock.

Let those who visit
This Consecrated Ground
Remember
that the Men whose Names
Live on these Panels Died in their Youth or their Prime that Future Generations Might inherit a Happier World and a Human Society more righteous and more Loving than these Brave Men and their Generation knew.

EDGAR W. BROWN,
JAMES CLARK,
JOHN GRAHAM,
SAMUEL HICKLING,
WILLIAM CALVERT, Convener.
THEODORE PERCY BROCKLEHURST, Minister.

} Churchwardens.

They gave their bodies to the commonwealth, and received each for his own memory praise that will never die, and with it the noblest sepulchre—not that in which mortal bones are laid, but a home in the minds of men.

It is for us the living to resolve that these Dead shall not have died in vain.

INTRODUCTORY VOLUNTARY, "Cavatina" in D C. Böhm.

The Choir, the Churchwardens, Members of the Church Council, Clergy and Ministers, together with Official Representatives will proceed to the Chancel during the singing of the Hymn following:—

J. S. Arkwright.

Old 124th.

LAND of our love, with grief and glory crowned,
After long travail, where shall rest be found?
What faithful star is thine in heaven to see,
Or light to guide thee through the years to be?

Wise men of old were guided by a star,
And, trusting, made their journey from afar.
Go kneel with them in Bethlehem to-night,
Before the Truth of Truth, the Light of Light.

Turn yet again to where the Saviour stands
With pierced side and nail-prints in His hands;
And learn of Him, O land that nobly mourns,
The passing beauty of a Crown of Thorns.

Lift up thine eyes to where, at dawn of day,
God's radiant angel rolls the stone away;
And through the riven portals of the grave
The Great Deliverer comes in strength to save.

Land of our love, entrust thy way to Him,
Alike in sunshine and in seasons dim;
And He shall lead thee through the ages far,
Light of thy life, thy Saviour and thy Star.—Amen.

When all are in their places, silence shall be kept for a space, after which the Vicar shall say:—

In the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

V. O God, make speed to save us,

R. O Lord, make haste to help us.

PSALM XCI.—Qui habitat.

mf WHOSO dwelleth under the defence of the | most | High : shall abide under the | shadow · of | the Al- | mighty.

2 I shall say unto the Lord * Thou art my hope | and my | strong hold ; my God in | Him | will I | trust.

3 For He shall deliver thee from the snare | of the hunter : and | from the | noisome | pestilence.

4 He shall defend thee under His wings * and thou shalt be safe |
under · His | feathers : His faithfulness and truth shall | be thy | shield and | buckler.

5 Thou shalt not be afraid for any | terror · by | night : nor
for the | arrow · that | flieth · by | day.

6 For the pestilence that | walketh · in | darkness : nor for the sickness that de- | stroyeth | in the | noon-day.

7 A thousand shall fall beside thee * and ten thousand at | thy right | hand : but it shall | not come | nigh | thee.

8 Yea with thine eyes shalt | thou be- | hold : and see the re- | ward of | the un- | godly.

9 For Thou Lord | art my | hope : Thou hast set Thine house of de-
| fence | very | high.

10 There shall be no evil happen | unto | thee : neither shall any |
plague come | nigh thy | dwelling.

11 For He shall give His angels charge | over | thee : to keep |
thee in | all thy | ways.

12 They shall bear thee | in their | hands : that thou hurt not
thy | foot a- | gainst a | stone.

13 Thou shalt go upon the | lion · and | adder : the young lion and the dragon shalt thou | tread | under · thy | feet.

14 Because he hath set his love upon Me * therefore will I de- | liver | him : I will set him up * because | he hath | known My | Name.

15 He shall call upon Me and | I will | hear him : yea I am with him in trouble * I will deliver him and | bring | him to | honour.

*crs*16 With long life will I | satis-fy | him : and | shew him | My sal- | vation.

GLORIA.

Then shall be read the lesson from Rev. vii. 9-end.

By THE REV. G. H. BROWN.

AFTER this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.

And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces and worshipped God.

Saying, Amen: Blessing and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. Amen.

And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them.

They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

Then shall be sung the Anthem.

H. W. Longfellow.

Edgar Bainton.

INTO the silent land!
 Ah! who shall lead us thither?
 Clouds in the evening sky more darkly gather,
 And shattered wrecks lie thicker on the strand.
 Who leads us with a gentle hand
 Thither, O thither,
 Into the silent land?
 Into the silent land!
 To you, ye boundless regions
 Of all perfection! tender morning visions
 Of beauteous souls! the future's pledge and band!
 Who in life's battle firm doth stand
 Shall bear Hope's tender blossoms
 Into the silent land!

O land! O land!
 For all the broken-hearted
 The mildest herald by our faith allotted,
 Beckons, and with inverted torch doth stand
 To lead us with a gentle hand
 Into the land of the great Departed,
 Into the silent land.

After which the Churchwardens, the General, Bishop and Clergy will proceed to the Chapel, whilst the Organist will play

"I know that my Redeemer liveth."

From the "Messiah," by Händel.

Then all the Congregation shall stand, and the Vicar shall say:

Let us remember in love and thanksgiving all who went forth from this parish and laid down their lives for us.

| | |
|----------------|--------------------|
| BANKS | WILLIAM HENRY |
| BANKS | JOSEPH MILES |
| BRASSINGTON .. | WILLIAM HENRY |
| BURROWS.. .. | HERBERT WILLIAM |
| CREIGHTON .. | GEORGE |
| DYER | HARRY FRANK |
| HARPER | JOHN ABBOTSON |
| JENKINSON .. | CHRISTOPHER THOMAS |
| KILBURN | JOHN WILLIAM |
| LEEMING | HENRY RICHARD |
| LEEMING | WALTER |
| MARLOR | ERIC |
| MASON | FANNY |
| PEACHEY | CHARLES |
| PIERCE | THOMAS HENRY |
| PIERCY | THOMAS HIGSON |
| PIERCY | ARCHIBALD GORDON |
| PRESTON | THOMAS HAWORTH |
| RAYNER | NOEL RODERICK |
| STACKHOUSE .. | WILLIAM THOMAS |

[GOD proved them, and found them worthy of HIMSELF.]

The Vicar will then request the General to unveil the Memorial Panels, and after so doing, the General will speak to the people and, in turn, will ask the Bishop to dedicate the Chapel of Remembrance.

The Bishop will then say:

Let us Pray.

O GOD, Who hallowest places dedicated to Thy Name, give ear unto the worship and prayers which shall be offered unto Thee in this Chapel; be ever present with those who shall gather here for rest and worship, pouring upon them the fulness of Thy blessing, and granting them so to serve Thee in this life that in the world to come they may be glad in the joy of Thy countenance, where Thou livest and reignest everlastingly. Amen.

O ALMIGHTY God, Who hast knit together Thine elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of Thy Son, Christ our Lord: grant us grace so to follow Thy blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those unspeakable joys, which Thou hast prepared for them that unfeignedly love Thee: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"To the Glory of God and in grateful memory of those who gave their lives for King and Country and a righteous cause I dedicate this Memorial. May all who look upon it realise the peace of sins forgiven; the joy of faithful service and the power of the endless life, to which may God vouchsafe to bring us all; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Then will be sounded the Last Post, to be followed by the Reveille.

Let us pray.

O MERCIFUL God and Heavenly Father, our only help in time of need, look with pity upon all those whom war makes desolate and broken-hearted. Endue them with all patience and fortitude, lift up Thy countenance upon them and give them peace: through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A LMIGHTY God, who hast made us citizens of this realm, enable us to be worthy of those who have died for us. Grant us with a willing spirit to do whatever duty may be laid upon us; with gladness to make all sacrifices to which we may be called; and with undaunted faith to shed abroad in the hearts of the people both courage and good cheer; that, whether by patience or by service, we may take our part with our brethren in the hour of our country's need; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

HYMN.

S. C. Lowry,

J. B. Dykes.

FATHER of all, before Thy footstool bending,
Not without hope Thy mercy we implore,
Hear us to Thy most tender care commending
Those who for us have died on sea or shore.

Can we forget those spirits keen and daring?
England they saved, themselves they would not save:
Faithful to death, for truth and honour caring
More than for ease or gain, their lives they gave.

O valiant souls, your name shall live for ever,
Deep in your country's heart enshrined it lies;
God give us grace, by honest brave endeavour
Worthier to prove of so great sacrifice. Amen.

As this hymn is being sung, all those Officiating will proceed to the Chancel.

The Bishop will then speak to the people.

HYMN.

(During which a Collection will be made for the Chapel of Remembrance Fund).

J. S. Arkwright.

Anon.

O VALIANT Hearts, who to your glory came Through dust of conflict and through battle fame;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the Land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank to war,
As who had heard God's message from afar;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave
To save Mankind— yourselves you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made,
Into the light that nevermore shall fade;
Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
Who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.

Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still,
Rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill,
While in the frailty of our human clay
Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self-same way.

Still stands His Cross from that dread hour to this
Like some bright star above the dark abyss:
Still, through the veil, the Victor's pitying eyes
Look down to bless our lesser Calvaries.

These were His servants, in His steps they trod
Following through death the martyr'd Son of God:
Victor He rose; victorious too shall rise
They who have drunk His cup of Sacrifice.

O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our Dead,
Whose Cross has bought them and whose Staff has led—
In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing Land
Commits her Children to Thy gracious hand. Amen.

The Bishop then shall say:

O ALMIGHTY God, the Lord of the spirits of all flesh; fulfil we beseech Thee the purpose of Thy love in those that are at rest, that the good which Thou hast begun in them may be perfected unto the day of Jesus Christ, Who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen.

A LMIGHTY God, from whom all thoughts of truth and peace proceed; kindle, we pray Thee, in the hearts of all men, the true love of peace, and guide with Thy pure and peaceable wisdom those who take counsel for the Nations of the Earth; that in tranquility Thy Kingdom may go forward, till the Earth is filled with the knowledge of Thy Love: through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Let us sum up our prayers and thanksgivings in the words which Christ Himself has taught us, saying:—

OUR Father Who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy Name, Thy Kingdom come, Thy Will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation: but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen,

SAINTE ALKELDA'S BENEDICTION.

THE Lord shed forth upon you showers of heavenly blessing and, by His Holy Spirit, pour into your hearts the gift of His own Charity; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then shall be Sung The National Anthem.

God save our Lord the King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King.
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign!
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice.
God save the King.

Lord, let war's tempests cease,
Fold the whole world in peace
Under Thy wings,
Make all Thy nations one,
All hearts beneath the sun,
Till Thou shalt reign alone,
Great King of Kings.

[SILENT PRAYER.]

HYMN.

(During which all those officiating will leave the Church.)

H. Atford.

J. B. Dykes.

TEN thousand times ten thousand,
In sparkling raiment bright,
The armies of the ransomed Saints
Throng up the steeps of light:
'Tis finish'd! all is finish'd,
Their fight with death and sin:
Fling open wide the golden gates,
And let the victors in.

What rush of Alleluias
Fills all the earth and sky!
What ringing of a thousand harps
Bespeaks the triumph nigh!
O day, for which creation
And all its tribes were made!
O joy, for all its former woes
A thousand-fold repaid!

Oh, then what raptured greetings
On Canaan's happy shore,
What knitting sever'd friendships up,
Where partings are no more!
Then eyes with joys shall sparkle
That brimm'd with tears of late;
Orphans no longer fatherless,
Nor widows desolate.

Bring near Thy great Salvation,
Thou Lamb for sinners slain,
Fill up the roll of Thine elect,
Then take Thy power and reign:
Appear, Desire of nation,
Thine exiles long for home;
Show in the heavens Thy promised sign:
Thou Prince and Saviour, come. Amen.

CONCLUDING VOLUNTARY, The "Hallelujah" Chorus
from the "Messiah" by Händel.

FAITH'S VICTORY OVER DEATH.

"O Death where is thy sting? O Grave where is thy victory? . . . But thanks be to God Who giveth us the victory!" Us; those of us who have laid hold of Christ's Faith. We have no fear of death; the grave is not going to conquer us; we believe in the Life Beyond; and our faith in the love and power of God, in all emergencies, can give us a sense of victory.

It is a wonderful faith, and has done wonders in the hearts of millions since Christ's day. Think of it! This strange, human confidence in the goodness and power of God—that He will do what is right and best for us—that He loves and cares for our loved ones with a care and a love even greater than our own—and that what we would do for them, He will do, only more and better—with such a faith, the poorest man, living or dying, can look through death, and beyond the grave—yea, with a sense of victory.

This is Christ's way of looking upon death. And is it not, in some degree, the way of our own hearts at their best? Faulty, faltering as we are, we know the best way for us. It is the way of quiet, reverent submission to what has to be—the way of simple confidence in the God of all Goodness. To live in this faith gives us the victory, even over the grave. In this faith we look beyond! We see further on. We feel that "if we still love those we lose we can never lose those we love." Nay, we believe that, by and by, even we shall see again

Those angel faces smile

Which we have loved long since, and lost awhile.

The O.T.C. of Giggleswick School will furnish a Guard of Honour.

Oct 1925

THE CRAVE

MR. BRAYSHAW AND RECREATION GROUND FUNDS.

A monthly meeting of the Settle Parish Council was held at the Town Hall on Monday night. Mr. T. Bradley presided, and others present were Messrs. J. W. Dales, A. C. Segger, J. Harrison, F. L. Bland, Rev. M. E. Tillman, J. Hancock, J. Redmayne, W. Wilman (markets inspector) and Mr. H. Bolt (clerk).

A letter was read from the Clerk to the Settle Rural District Council referring to the question of the shoring up of the asphalt on the west front of the Town Hall. The letter stated that at the last meeting of the District Council the following resolution was passed: "That although the actual ownership of the piece of land immediately fronting the west front of the Town Hall may not be now vested in the District Council, such Council are satisfied that there are ample grounds to support Councillor Hunter's statement that the owners of the Town Hall previous to its acquisition by the Council had a good claim to such piece of land."—After consideration, satisfaction was expressed that the claim that the Rural District Council owned the piece of land in question had been withdrawn.

The question of a public library was again referred to, and consideration was deferred to the next meeting.

The Council, at a recent meeting, decided to ask Mr. T. Brayshaw for information on any funds that existed for the provision of a playground. In reply they received a letter stating that in the year 1897, when Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee was celebrated at Settle, subscriptions were raised for such a purpose, and a balance of nearly £22 remained in hand and trustees were appointed to hold the balance, which was only to be paid over for the purpose of providing a recreation ground for Settle alone or for Settle and Giggleswick jointly. Mr. Brayshaw stated that he believed this money was deposited in the Bank and was still there with accrued interest. The letter further said that the Settle and District War Relief Fund was formed in 1914 and was still in operation. The total balance now remaining in hand under the various headings of "Relief," "Special Relief," "Christmas Gifts" and "Wounded Soliders," amounted to £123 15s. 7d. The money was partly at the disposal of the whole Relief Committee and partly under the control of Mr. G. K. Charlesworth and himself.—The Clerk was instructed to send a letter of thanks to Mr. Brayshaw for supplying the information.

Presentation to Special Constables.—The Chief Constable of the West Riding (Colonel J. d'E. Coke) presented medals to the Special Constables of the Settle district at the Court House, Settle, on Tuesday afternoon. All the recipients mentioned below, with the exception of Messrs. F. L. Band, R. Ireland, and R. Procter, attended the investiture. The following is a list of the recipients:—Medal and Bar: Frederick Lincoln Band, Settle; Alfred Richard Bilton, Settle; Arthur Thomas Bilton, Settle; Richard Clark, Settle; Elias Davis, Settle; James Fletcher, Settle; Henry Laycock, Settle; Edward Ellis Roberts, Settle; Thomas Tomlinson, Settle; Thomas Ward, Settle; William Wilman, Settle; James Boothman, Newton; Richard Ireland, Bashall Eaves; Richard Procter, Bashall Eaves; Harry Harrison, Clapham; William Capstick, Clapham; Robert Howson, Clapham. Medal: Matthew Jackman, Longpreston; John Moore, Settle; William Sanderson, Rathmell.

Hymn 4.

For all the Saints who from their labours rest,
Who Thee by faith before the world confessed,
Thy Name, O Jesu, be for ever blest.

Alleluia !

Thou wast their rock, their fortress, and their might ;
Thou, Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight ;
Thou, in the darkness drear, their one true Light.

Alleluia !

O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the saints who nobly fought of old,
And win, like them, the victor's crown of gold.

Alleluia !

O blest communion, fellowship divine !
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine ;
Yet all are one in Thee, for all are Thine.

Alleluia !

And when the strife is fierce, the warfare long,
Steals on the ear the distant triumph-song,
And hearts are brave again and arms are strong.

Alleluia !

The golden evening brightens in the west ;
Soon, soon to faithful warriors cometh rest ;
Sweet is the calm of Paradise the blest.

Alleluia !

But lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day ;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array ;
The King of glory passes on His way.

Alleluia !

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son and Holy Ghost.

Alleluia !

GIGGLESWICK SCHOOL.

Feast of S. Michael & All Angels, Sept. 29th, 1922.

ORDER OF SERVICE

for the unveiling and dedication of the Memorial Tablet to the old boys of the School, who gave their lives for their country in the Great War.

HYMN—All people that on earth do dwell.

SENTENCE—I am the Resurrection and the Life (sung by the Choir).

THE LORD'S PRAYER AND VERSICLES.

PSALM 46.

LESSON—Rev. VII 9—end.

THE APOSTLE'S CREED AND PRAYERS.

HYMN—O God, our help in ages past.

During the singing of the hymn the Bishop, the General, the Headmaster and Clergy will proceed to the Memorial Tablet.

ROLL OF HONOUR (read by the Headmaster).

THE UNVEILING by Lieut-Gen. Sir Noel Birch (o.g.)
K.C.B., K.C.M.G.

THE DEDICATION by The Rt. Rev. The Lord Bishop of Bradford. (All kneeling).

THE LAST POST AND REVEILLE.

HYMN—God of our fathers, known of old.

ADDRESS BY THE BISHOP.

HYMN—For all the Saints.

NATIONAL ANTHEM.

BLESSING.

Hymn 1.

All people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice ;
Him serve with fear, His praise forth tell ;
Come ye before Him and rejoice.

The Lord, ye know, is God indeed ;
Without our aid He did us make ;
We are His folk, He doth us feed ;
And for His sheep he doth us take.

O enter then His gates with praise,
Approach with joy His Courts unto ;
Praise, laud, and bless His name always,
For it is seemly so to do.

For why? The Lord our God is good ;
His mercy is for ever sure ;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God Whom Heaven and earth adore,
From men and from the Angel-host
Be praise and glory evermore.

Hymn 2.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Under the shadow of Thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure ;
Sufficient is Thine Arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be Thou our guard while life shall last,
And our eternal home.

Hymn 3.

God of our fathers, known of old,
Lord of our far-flung battle line,
Beneath whose awful hand we hold
Dominion over palm and pine,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget !

The tumult and the shouting dies,
The captains and the kings depart ;
Still stands thine ancient sacrifice,
An humble and a contrite heart,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget !

Far-called, our navies melt away,
On dune and headland sinks the fire ;
Lo, all our pomp of yesterday
Is one with Nineveh and Tyre !
Judge of the nations, spare us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget !

If, drunk with sight of power, we loose
Wild tongues that have not Thee in awe,
Such boasting as the Gentiles use
Or lesser breeds without the Law,
Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet,
Lest we forget—lest we forget !

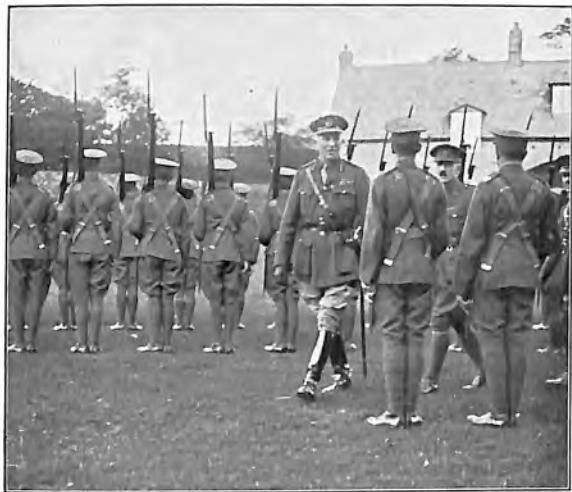

For heathen heart that puts her trust
In reeking tube and iron shard,
All valiant dust that builds on dust,
And guarding calls not Thee to guard—
For frantic boast and foolish word,
Thy mercy on Thy people, Lord.

PHOTO. BY

[F. G. M. WIGRAM.]

THE MEMORIAL TABLET.

PHOTOS. BY]

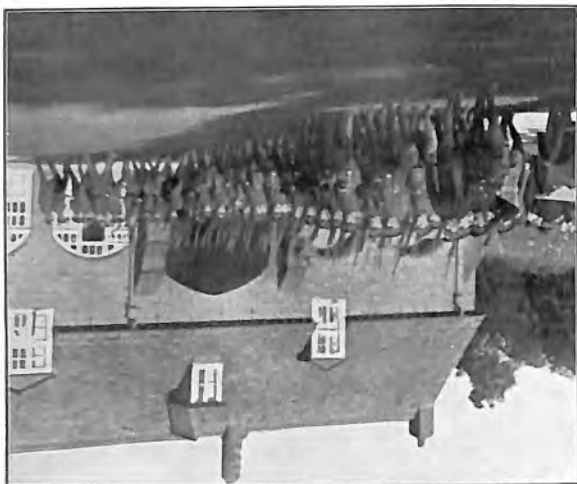

[MR. P. HASWELL.

THE UNVEILING (I.)

THE UNVEILING (II.)

[MR. P. HASWELL.]

PHOTOS. BY

GIGGLESWICK SCHOOL,
SETTLE,
YORKS.

WAR MEMORIAL.

Dear

It is proposed to erect a memorial to those Old Boys of Giggleswick who have lost their lives in the war as a consequence of service in one of His Majesty's Forces. To our knowledge they number now 86 and there are probably many others of whose death we have not received notice. So great a sacrifice should obtain a suitable Memorial in the School, and one which should be permanent, to stand as a reminder of the noble sacrifice and glorious example of the past sons of Giggleswick, and an inspiration for all future generations.

It is further proposed to record as part of the memorial the names of all those Old Boys and Masters who have served during the War, and thus to make a fitting acknowledgment of their readiness to serve their King and Country.

The Governors of the School have considered several proposals; and the scheme which they approve and recommend is one for erecting a block of buildings comprising an Entrance Gateway, an Armoury for the O.T.C. and a Library, the extent of the building to depend on the amount of money subscribed. The School-buildings would be greatly improved by a handsome Gateway and a better approach: the Armoury is much needed to replace the present inadequate provision for housing the arms, etc., of the O.T.C. and would be an appropriate feature of a War Memorial: while, if the amount of funds subscribed enables a good School Library to be included in the proposed Memorial, this would be a great acquisition. It may prove necessary to incur some expense in providing the site and laying out the road of approach.