

V. Turn us, O God our Saviour.
R. And let thine anger cease from us.
 V. O God, make speed to save us.
R. O Lord, make haste to help us.
 V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost.
R. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.
 V. Praise ye the Lord.
R. The Lord's Name is praised.

To be sung.

Make thy way plain before my face.

PSALM V.—Verba mea auribus.

PSALM XXIII.—Dominus regit me.

PSALM XXVII.—Dominus illuminatio.

To be sung.

Make thy way plain before my face.

To be sung.

I heard a voice from Heaven.

BENEDICTUS.

ST. LUKE I. 68.

To be sung.

I heard a voice from heaven saying, "Write: Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord."

LESSON.—1 COR. xv. 20.

Here may follow this or some other suitable Anthem:

ANTHEM. Goss.

AND the king said to all the people that were with him, Rend your clothes, and gird you with sackcloth, and mourn. And the king himself followed the bier.

And they buried her. And the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave; and all the people wept.

And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great one fallen this day in Israel.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

OUR Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

V. O Lord, deal not with us after our sins.
R. Neither reward us after our iniquities.
 V. Enter not into judgment with thy servant,
 O Lord:
R. For in thy sight shall no man living be justified.
 V. The souls of the righteous are in the hands of the Lord:
R. Who preserveth them that are true of heart.
 V. Turn again then unto thy rest, O my soul:
R. For the Lord hath rewarded thee.
 V. Thou, Lord, hast delivered my soul from death:
R. Mine eyes from tears, and my feet from falling
 V. I will walk before the Lord:
R. In the land of the living.

Priest.

ALMIGHTY GOD, with whom do live the spirits of them that depart hence in the Lord, and with whom the souls of the faithful, after they are delivered from the burden of the flesh, are in joy and felicity; We give thee hearty thanks, for that it hath pleased thee to deliver our Queen, thy Servant VICTORIA, out of the miseries of this sinful world; beseeching thee, that it may please thee, of thy gracious goodness, shortly to accomplish the number of thine elect, and to hasten thy kingdom; that we, with all those that are departed in the true faith of thy holy Name, may have our perfect consummation and bliss, both in body and soul, in thy eternal and everlasting glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OMERCIFUL God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is the Resurrection and the Life; in whom whosoever believeth shall live, though he die; and whosoever liveth, and believeth in him, shall not die eternally; who also hath taught us (by his holy Apostle Saint Paul) not to be sorry, as men without hope, for them that sleep in him; We meekly beseech thee, O Father, to raise us from the death of sin unto the life of righteousness; that, when we shall depart this life, we may rest in him, as our hope is our Queen VICTORIA, thy servant, doth; and that, at the general Resurrection in the last day, we may be found acceptable in thy sight; and receive that blessing, which thy well-beloved Son shall then pronounce to all that love and fear thee, saying, Come, ye blessed children of my Father, receive the Kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world. Grant this, we beseech thee, O merciful Father, through Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Redeemer. Amen.

O GOD, who hast prepared for them that love thee such good things as pass man's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love towards thee, that we, loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, whose nature and property is ever to have mercy and to forgive, receive our humble petitions; and though we be tied and bound with the chain of our sins, yet let the pitifulness of thy great mercy loose us; for the honour of Jesus Christ, our Mediator and Advocate. Amen.

V. The Lord be with you.

R. And with thy spirit.

May the Lord of His mercy grant to us with all the faithful departed rest and peace.

HYMN.

O GOD, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home;
Beneath the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.
A thousand ages in thy sight
Are like an evening gone,
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.
Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

Here may follow a Sermon.

PSALM CXXX.—De profundis.

Thanksgiving.

O GOD, whose Providence ruleth all things both in heaven and earth, by whom Kings reign and princes decree justice, we thank thee for all the blessings which thou hast bestowed upon us through our Queen VICTORIA lately taken from us. We thank thee for the wisdom of her counsels, for the care and love with which she watched over her people, for the bright example of her noble life, for the prosperity which we enjoyed during her happy reign; and we pray thee to fill our hearts with gratitude for all these benefits, and to give us grace that we may use the memory of them as a perpetual call to live according to thy will for the good of our fellow men and the glory of thy great Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for His Majesty the King.

ALMIGHTY GOD, who rulest over all the kingdoms of the World, and disposdest of them according to thy good pleasure; We yield thee unfeigned thanks, for that thou hast been pleased to place thy Servant our Sovereign Lord, King EDWARD, upon the Throne of this Realm. Let thy wisdom be his guide, and let thine arm strengthen him; let justice, truth, and holiness, let peace and love, and all those virtues that adorn the Christian Profession, flourish in his days; direct all his counsels and endeavours to thy glory, and the welfare of his people; and give us grace to obey him cheerfully and willingly for conscience' sake; that neither our sinful passions, nor our private interests, may disappoint his cares for the publick good; let him always possess the hearts of his people, that they may never be wanting in honour to his Person, and dutiful submission to his Authority; let his Reign be long and prosperous, and crown him with immortality in the life to come; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymns may be added to this Service at the discretion of the Minister.

The Secretary and Managers will attend at the Institute, on Wednesday and Friday, September 17th and 19th, from 7-30 to 9-30 p.m., to enrol students. It is hoped that as many as possible will attend.

Settle & District Technical Institute.

IN opening the Institute for this Session with a more complete curriculum, the Managers desire to point out that, while not for a moment disparaging the advantages of an all-round education, it is their wish to impress upon Students the desirability of making choice of such a group of Subjects as will afford to the individual the educational equipment necessary for his own special career, rather than a smattering of everything. The enlarged Class List provides very special advantages to the Commercial Student. Thus, the Business Methods Classes afford a practical knowledge of the daily routine of a well-ordered office; the Bookkeeping Classes, the best methods of recording its financial transactions; the Commercial Arithmetic Class, facility in short methods of dealing with many figures, and the numerous calculations indispensable to the business man; and the Commercial Geography Course, a knowledge of the markets of the world, and the many and changing channels of its commerce. These four subjects are of the first importance and form the nucleus of all Commercial Education.

It is unnecessary to press the claim of Shorthand, as Settle Students have perhaps an exaggerated idea of its value. The advantages of an opportunity of learning French are obvious, as there are many business houses where no clerk is employed who has not some knowledge of a modern language.

To not quite so complete an extent as in Commercial Classes, the Managers are endeavouring to group other Subjects, and it is hoped that those who go in for the various classes in Domestic Arts, will also take the General Domestic Management Course, which links them all together.

Further, Building Construction Students will be greatly helped by taking Geometrical Drawing, and Wood-Carving Students the Lessons in Designs from Mr. Shuttleworth, which will make them independent of "patterns."

For those younger boys and girls who are unequal to the Technical Classes of the Institute, the Managers would recommend the Classes at the neighbouring Evening Schools, which are preparatory to the Institute Courses and on the same lines.

Finally, they desire to impress upon all students the necessity for Home Work, without which, the weekly lesson is of little value.

Hymns at THE MORNING SERVICE, 11 a.m.

PROCESSIONAL, No. 326.

"Honour the King."

GOD save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,

God save the King!

Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the King!

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,

Long may he reign!
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice,
God save the King!

Lord, let war's tempests cease,
Fold the whole world in peace,
Under Thy wings,
Make all the nations one,
All hearts beneath the sun,
Till Thou shalt reign alone,
Great King of Kings.—Amen.

AFTER THE 3RD COLLECT, No. 267.

"The Children that were crying in the Temple and saying,
'Hosanna to the Son of David.'"

HOSANNA we sing, like the children dear,
In the olden days when the Lord lived here;
He blessed little children, and smiled on them,
While they chanted His praise in Jerusalem.
Alleluia we sing, like the children bright,
With their harps of gold and their raiment white,
As they follow their Shepherd with loving eyes,
Thro' the beautiful valleys of Paradise.

Hosanna we sing; for he bends His Ear,
And rejoices the hymns of His own to hear;
We know that His Heart will never wax cold
To the lambs that He feeds in His earthly fold.
Alleluia we sing in the Church we love,
Alleluia resounds in the Church above;
To Thy little ones, LORD, may such grace be given,
That we lose not our part in the song of heaven.

Amen.

BEFORE THE SERMON, No. 205.

"He that sitteth on the Throne shall spread His Tabernacle over them."

AROUND the Throne of GOD in heaven
Shall countless children stand,
Children whose sins are all forgiven,
A holy, happy band,
Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

In flowing robes of spotless white
Each one shall be arrayed;
Shall dwell in everlasting light,
And joys that never fade;
Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

How shall they reach that world above,
That heaven so bright and fair,
Where all is peace and joy and love?
How came those children there,
Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

Because the Saviour shed His Blood
To wash away their sins;
Bathed in that pure and precious flood,
Behold them white and clean,
Singing, Glory, glory, glory.

On earth they sought their Saviour's grace,
On earth they loved His Name.
At last they see His blessed Face,
And stand before the Lamb,
Singing, Glory, glory, glory.—Amen.

AFTER THE SERMON, No. 172.

"Suffer the little children, and forbid them not, to come unto ME."

I THINK, when I read that sweet story of old,
When JESUS was here among men,
How He called little children as lambs to His fold;
I should like to have been with Him then.

I wish that His Hands had been placed on my head,
That His Arm had been thrown around me,
And that I might have seen His kind look when he said,
"Let the little ones come unto Me."

Yet still to His footstool in prayer I may go,
And ask for a share of His love;
And if I thus earnestly seek Him below,
I shall see Him and hear him above:

In that beautiful place He has gone to prepare
For all who are washed and forgiven;
And many dear children are gathering there,
"For of such is the kingdom of heaven."

But thousands and thousands who wander and fall,
Never hear of that heavenly home;
I should like them to know there is room for them all,
And that JESUS has bid them to come.

I long for that blessed and glorious time,
The fairest, and brightest, and best,
When the dear little children of every clime
Shall crowd to His Arms and be blest.—Amen.

RECESSIONAL, No. 323.

"Thy Holy Child Jesus."

LORD JESUS, GOD and MAN,
For love of man a Child,
The VERY GOD, yet born on earth
Of Mary undefiled.

LORD JESUS, GOD and MAN,
In this our festal day
To Thee for precious gifts of grace
Thy ransomed people pray.

We pray for childlike hearts,
For gentle holy love,
For strength to do Thy Will below,
As Angels do above.

We pray for simple faith,
For hope that never faints,
For true communion evermore
With all Thy blessed saints.

On friends around us here
O let Thy blessing fall;
We pray for grace to love them well,
But Thee beyond them all.

O joy to live for Thee!
O joy in Thee to die!
O very joy of joys to see
Thy Face eternally!

LORD JESUS, GOD and MAN,
We praise Thee and adore,
Who art with GOD the FATHER ONE
And SPIRIT evermore.—Amen.

Hymns at THE AFTERNOON SERVICE, 2-30 p.m.

PROCESSIONAL, No. 232.

"Resist the devil and he will flee from you."

Do no sinful action,
 Speak no sinful word;
 Ye belong to JESUS,
 Children of the Lord.
 CHRIST is kind and gentle,
 CHRIST is pure and true,
 And His little children
 Must be holy too.
 There's a wicked spirit
 Watching round you still,
 And he tries to tempt you
 To all harm and ill.
 But ye must not hear him,
 Though 'tis hard for you
 To resist the evil,
 And the good to do.
 For ye promised truly,
 In your infant days,
 To renounce him wholly,
 And forsake his ways.
 Ye are new-born Christians;
 Ye must learn to fight
 With the bad within you,
 And to do the right.
 CHRIST is your own Master,
 He is good and true,
 And His little children
 Must be holy too.—Amen.

BEFORE THE ADDRESS, No. 274.

"While I live will I praise the Lord."

(ALL.)

COME, praise your Lord and Saviour
 In strains of holy mirth;
 Give thanks to Him, O children,
 Who lived a Child on earth.
 He loved the little children,
 And called them to His side,
 His loving Arms embraced them,
 And for their sake He died.

(MALE VOICES ONLY.)

O JESU, we would praise Thee
 With songs of holy joy;
 For Thou on earth didst sojourn
 A pure and spotless Boy.
 Make us like Thee, obedient,
 Like Thee from sin-stains free,
 Like Thee in God's own Temple,
 In lowly home like Thee.

(FEMALE VOICES ONLY.)

O JESU, we too praise Thee,
 The lowly maiden's Son;
 In Thee all gentlest graces
 Are gathered into one.

Oh, give that best adornment
 That Christian maid can wear,
 The meek and quiet spirit
 Which shone in Thee so fair!

(ALL.)

O Lord, with voices blended
 We sing our songs of praise;
 Be Thou the Light and Pattern
 Of all our childhood's days;
 And lead us ever onward,
 That, while we stay below,
 We may, like Thee, O JESU,
 In grace and wisdom grow.—Amen.

AFTER THE ADDRESS, No. 176.

"Whatsoever ye do, do all to the Glory of God."

In our work, and in our play,
 JESUS, be Thou ever near,
 Guarding, guiding, all the day,
 Keeping in Thy holy fear.
 Thou didst toil, a lowly Child,
 In the far-off holy land,
 Blessing labour undefiled,
 Pure and honest, of the hand.
 Thou wilt bless our play-hour too,
 If we ask Thee succour strong;
 Watch o'er all we say and do,
 Hold us back from guilt and wrong.

Oh, how happy thus to spend
 Work and play-time in His sight,
 Till the rest which shall not end,
 Till the day which knows no night!—Amen.

RECESSIONAL, No. 173.

"He made Himself of no reputation."

JESUS was once a little child,
 A little child like me;
 Was cradled in His mother's arms,
 And sat upon her knee.
 Once He was just the age I am,
 And was as helpless too;
 He used to sleep, and walk, and speak,
 Just as all children do.
 And yet, though He was once a Child,
 He is the God of all;
 And angel hosts before His Throne
 In lowly worship fall.
 And why was it He chose to be
 A Child so poor and weak?
 It was that I might learn from Him
 How blessèd are the meek;
 It was that I might learn from Him
 My parents to obey,
 And, like the Child of Nazareth,
 Grow holier every day.—Amen.

Hymns at THE EVENING SERVICE, 6-30 p.m.

PROCESSIONAL, No. 276.

"My song shall be always of the loving-kindness of the Lord."

COME, sing with holy gladness,
High Alleluias sing;
Uplift your loud Hosannas
To JESUS, Lord and King;
Sing, boys, in joyful chorus
Your hymn of praise to-day;
And sing, ye gentle maidens,
Your sweet responsive lay.
'Tis good for boys and maidens
Sweet hymns to CHRIST to sing;
'Tis meet that children's voices
Should praise the children's King;
For JESUS is salvation,
And glory, grace, and rest;
To babe, and boy, and maiden
The one Redeemer Blest.
O boys, be strong in JESUS!
To toil for Him is gain;
And JESUS wrought with Joseph
With chisel, saw, and plane.
O maidens, live for JESUS,
Who was a maiden's Son!
Be patient, pure, and gentle,
And perfect grace begun.
Soon in the golden city
The boys and girls shall play,
And through the dazzling mansions
Rejoice in endless day.
O CHRIST, prepare Thy children
With that triumphant throng
To pass the burnished portals,
And sing the eternal song.—Amen.

AFTER THE 3RD COLLECT, No. 247.

"Speak, Lord, for Thy servant heareth."

HUSHED was the evening hymn,
The temple courts were dark;
The lamp was burning dim
Before the sacred ark;
When suddenly a voice Divine
Rang through the silence of the shrine.
The old man, meek and mild,
The priest of Israel, slept;
His watch the temple-child,
The little Levite kept;
And what from Eli's sense was sealed,
The LORD to Hannah's son revealed.
Oh, give me Samuel's ear,
The open ear, O LORD!
Alive and quick to hear
Each whisper of Thy Word;
Like him to answer at Thy call,
And to obey Thee first of all.
Oh, give me Samuel's heart!
A lowly heart, that waits
Where in Thy House Thou art,
Or watches at Thy gates
By day and night, a heart that still
Moves at the breathing of Thy will.
Oh, give me Samuel's mind!
A sweet, un murmuring faith,
Obedient and resigned
To Thee in life and death,
That I may read with childlike eyes
Truths that are hidden from the wise.—Amen.

BEFORE THE SERMON, No. 227.

"Watch ye, stand fast in The Faith, quit ye like men, be strong."

We are soldiers of CHRIST, Who is mighty to save,
And His banner the Cross is unfurled;
We are pledged to be faithful and steadfast and brave
Against Satan, the flesh and the world.
We are brothers and comrades, we stand side by side,
And our faith and our hope are the same;
And we think of the Cross on which JESUS has died,
When we bear the reproach of His Name.
At the font we were marked with the cross on our brow
Of our grace and our calling the sign;
And the weakest is strong to be true to his vow;
For the armour we wear is Divine.

We will watch ready armed if the tempter draw near,
If he come with a frown or a smile;
We will heed not his threats, nor his flatteries hear,
Nor be taken by storm or by wile.

We will master the flesh, and its longings restrain,
We will not be the bondslaves of sin,
The pure SPIRIT of God in our nature shall reign,
And our spirits their triumph shall win.

For the world's love we live not, its hate we defy,
And we will not be led by the throng;
We'll be true to ourselves, to our FATHER on high,
And the bright world to which we belong.

Now let each cheer his comrade, let hearts beat as one,
While we follow where CHRIST leads the way,
'Twere dishonour to yield, or the battle to shun,
We will fight, and will watch, and will pray.

Though the warfare be weary, the trial be sore,
In the might of our GOD we will stand;
Oh, what joy to be crowned and be pure evermore
In the peace of our own Fatherland!—Amen.

AFTER THE SERMON, No. 153.

"And yet there is room."

THOU didst leave Thy Throne and Thy kingly crown,
When Thou camest to earth for me;
But in Bethlehem's home was there found no room
For Thy holy nativity.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS,
There is room in my heart for Thee!

Heaven's arches rang when the angels sang,
Proclaiming Thy royal degree;
But of lowly birth didst Thou come to earth,
And in great humility.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS,
There is room in my heart for Thee!

The foxes found rest, and the birds had their nest
In the shade of the forest tree;
But Thy couch was the sod, O Thou SON of GOD!
In the deserts of Galilee.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS,
There is room in my heart for Thee!

THOU camest, O Lord, with the living Word
Thou shouldst set Thy people free;
But with mocking scorn, and with crown of thorn,
They bore Thee to Calvary.

Oh, come to my heart, Lord JESUS,
Thy Cross is my only plea.

When heaven's arches shall ring, and her choir shall sing
At Thy coming to victory;
Let Thy voice call me home, saying, "Yet there is room,
There is room at My Side for thee;"

And my heart shall rejoice, Lord JESUS,
When Thou comest and callest on me.—Amen.

(Sung kneeling after The Blessing).

Now, Father, we commend
Ourselves to Thee this night;
O watch us, keep us, and defend
Till break of morning light.—Amen.

RECESSIONAL, No. 184.

"He careth for you."

GOD will take care of you. All through the day
JESUS is near you to keep you from ill;
Waking or resting, at work or at play,
JESUS is with you, and watching you still.

He will take care of you. All through the night
JESUS, the Shepherd, His little one keeps;
Darkness to Him is the same as the light,
He never slumbers, and He never sleeps.

He will take care of you. All through the year
Crowning each day with His kindness and love,
Sending you blessings, and shielding from fear,
Leading you on to the bright home above.

He will take care of you. Yes; to the end,
Nothing can alter His love for His own;
Children, be glad that you have such a Friend;
He will not leave you one moment alone.—Amen.

The North Ribblesdale Agricultural Association.

President—T. Benson Pease Ford, Esq., J.P., C.C.

Vice-President—C. A. L. Swale, Esq., J.P.

Secretary & Treasurer—Mr. Geo. K. Charlesworth, Solicitor, Settle.

This Association, which was originally founded in 1848, became defunct from 1866 to 1878, during the raging of the cattle plague, and was resuscitated at an influential meeting of landowners and farmers, presided over by Walter Morrison, Esq., in the latter year. The Association, although always popular with the inhabitants of the district, owing to various causes (the interest among its supporters, judging from the state of the funds and the small attendance at committee meetings being at a low ebb) was again in danger of becoming defunct, until at the annual meeting in 1894 the whole Association was re-organised, and a large and influential committee appointed, since which date the Association has had an uninterrupted course of success. The interest now taken in the Association, as shown by the large attendances at the committee meetings throughout the district, is simply marvellous. Naturally, some members are lost annually, but the gains every year far exceed the losses, and the tabulated list of exhibits given below speak for themselves:—

The Annual Show this year was held on Saturday, August 25th. The morning, as usual, was wet, and to make matters worse the wind demolished the large tent on the field, and poultry, pigeons, rabbits, cats, &c., escaped in all directions, whilst butter, eggs, stewards, and exhibitors were alike hurled to the ground. The stewards were equal to the occasion, and these exhibits were judged, but under great difficulties.

The Butter Prizes given by Mr. H. Leighton Hare, Mr. Hector Christie, Mr. A. S. J. Musgrave, and Mr. William Dawson were keenly competed for.

The Cattle Classes were, as usual, a grand lot, there being 23 entries (a record) for the open class for the best Cow in calf or milk. The competition in the Bull Classes and Mr. W. Morrison's Special being this year very keen.

The Poultry Classes were strong, there being many more Specials than usual.

The Gate-money was a record, but this was owing to rs. being charged for admission up to three o'clock instead of one o'clock. This change caused much ill-feeling among the general public, and the committee will probably make some fresh arrangement for next year.

The thanks of the Association are again due to the donors of special prizes. A feature of this Show is the large and influential company got together at the luncheon on the field, provided by Mr. Samuel Worthington, of the Wheat Sheaf Hotel, Ingletun, the tent being crowded to excess. All the attractive classes recently added to the schedule by the committee again appeared this year. As yet, and we hope for many years to come, the Annual Show of this Association is without a competitor among local shows for its exhibition of Dairy Cattle, it being a moot point in the writer's estimation whether or not, taking the Dairy Cattle as a whole, it is beaten even by the Royal Show itself.

The 1901 Show will be held on the third Saturday in August.

VOTE FOR THOMSON

SKIPTON DIVISION

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION, 1900.

THE QUESTIONS FOR THE DECISION OF THE ELECTORS.

---

The Candidates and their supporters having spoken—and tons of Literature posted and distributed, it is now possible to briefly summarise the issues between the two Candidates.

SOUTH AFRICA NOT THE ONLY QUESTION.

Mr. Morrison, the Tory Candidate, suggests that the only question is “the future settlement in South Africa, after the War.” Mr. Thomson, the Liberal Candidate disagrees, alleging that, in addition, the conduct of the late Government and that of Mr. Morrison, your ex-Member, and their proposals for the next Parliament, which may last seven years, are also proper subjects for the Electors’ consideration.

There is no substantial difference about the future settlement. The two South African Republics having been conquered, and by proclamations formally annexed to the British Empire, no responsible politician suggests that those proclamations should be annulled. It is also admitted that for some years government under military authority will be necessary, and that ultimately government on colonial lines may be conceded. It is on other matters, therefore, that the election should be decided.

LIBERAL ATTACK ON THE TORY GOVERNMENT.

Mr. Thomson attacks the Government on, amongst others, the following grounds:—

- 1.—Some broken pledges made at the last Election, principally as to Old Age Pensions and Temperance Reform.
- 2.—Grants of money to Classes, to the prejudice of the Masses.
- 3.—Inadequate preparations for and mismanagement in the conduct of the war; lack of long-range guns, clothing, food, medical and other stores, entailing unnecessary suffering and loss upon our brave soldiers and inhabitants of besieged places.
- 4.—Concessions without adequate return to European powers, to the detriment and loss of trade.

The defence made in regard to these charges has in some cases been extremely feeble, and in others not attempted.

EXCEPTING ARMY REFORM, MR. MORRISON ANNOUNCES NO PROGRAMME FOR NEXT PARLIAMENT.

Notwithstanding the next Parliament may last seven years, Mr. Morrison in his programme for the future mentions in his address only one item, viz.: the need for large reforms in our military system. The question for the Electors is, Which political party will be the more likely to effect the drastic reforms necessary?

ARMY REFORM.

The last attempt at serious Army Reforms, involving amongst other things, the abolition of Purchase in the Army, the adoption of the Short-service system, and the creation of an Army Reserve, occurred in 1871, and was undertaken and carried by a Liberal Government, under the leadership of the late Mr. W. E. Gladstone, in the teeth of bitter Tory opposition in the Commons. The Bill was, as is usual with the Tory Lords, thrown out, but Mr. Gladstone effected his object by Royal Warrant. Many electors will remember the Tory storm of protest which followed. With this reputation for Army Reform, and having regard to the interests involved, the Electors will be able to decide this question.

OTHER MEASURES AND REFORMS.

On the other hand, the Liberal Candidate gives a long list of the measures and reforms, including Army Reform, which he favours—a contrast to the "confidence trick" Mr. Morrison attempts.

MR. MORRISON'S NON-ATTENDANCE IN PARLIAMENT.

Mr. Morrison, in seeking re-election, is open to criticism with regard to his inattention to his Parliamentary and other political duties.

During the last Parliament, and particularly during the last three years, he has not given such attention to his Parliamentary duties as his constituents have the right to expect. During 1898, 1899, and 1900, he has been present out of 981 Divisions in only 201.

There is no report of any speech he has made in the House during the last Parliament.

HE MAKES NO PROMISE OF AMENDMENT.

Mr. C. S. Roundell, the former M.P. for the Division (who attended and spoke in the House), under similar circumstances declined to offer himself for re-election, rather than the constituency should be partially disenfranchised by his inability to attend Parliament.

On the other hand, the Liberal Candidate is a neighbour, and will, if elected, be able to give full attention to Parliamentary and other duties.

These are the questions which the Electors should take into consideration before deciding for whom they should Vote, and on these grounds you are invited to record your Votes for

SOME VOTES OF MR. WALTER MORRISON,

M.P. for the Skipton Division,

In the Last Parliament, 1895 to 1900.

---

Session 1896.

AGRICULTURAL LAND RATING ACT (ENGLAND & WALES).

Equalisation of Rates.

May 18.—Mr. Channing's amendment, introducing the principle that the rates should be divided between owner and occupier, a just and equitable proposal, to which Mr. Goschen, when Chancellor of the Exchequer in the last Conservative Government, had pledged himself. Voted Against.

Confining Relief to the Farmer.

June 23.—Mr. Seale-Hayne's amendment limiting operation of the Bill to the cases of tenants whose rents had not been raised after the passing of the Act, being a scheme to make certain that the relief should go to the Farmers and not to the Landlords. Voted Against.

LAND TENURE.

April 22.—Mr. Victor Cavendish's amendment to Mr. Price's Land Tenure Bill, to secure tenants against the raising of their rent in respect of their own improvements, and to create a tribunal to determine fair rents.

Voted for the amendment destroying the Bill.

Session 1897.

VOLUNTARY SCHOOLS ACT.

Local Control.

February 25.—Mr. Lloyd-George's proposal that provision be made for ensuring adequate representation of local authorities or parents on the management of schools in receipt of the aid grant.

Voted Against.

Earmarking the Aid Grant for Educational Efficiency.

March 4.—Sir James Woodhouse's amendment to secure that the Special Aid Grant should be set aside for improving the teaching staff, salaries of teachers, and school apparatus, and to earmark the additional grant for educational efficiency.

Voted Against.

The Maintenance of Voluntary Subscriptions.

March 9.—Mr. Lambert's amendment proposing that no school, the voluntary subscriptions of which fall short of the average of the past three years, should be helped by the Special Aid Grant, so as to secure that voluntary subscriptions to Voluntary Schools should be kept up.

Voted Against.

Representation of Parents on the Governing Body of the Association.

March 15.—Mr. Lloyd-Morgan's amendment proposing to make the the governing bodies of the Association representative of parents as well as managers, so giving parents a voice in the disposal of the aid grant.

Voted Against.

Retaining Parliamentary Control of Public Money.

March 15.—Mr. Asquith's amendment proposing that the schemes for the distribution of the aid grant should be published and laid before Parliament, so as to retain for Parliament the final voice in the spending of nearly three quarters of a million of public money annually.

Voted Against.

WORKMEN'S (COMPENSATION FOR ACCIDENTS) ACT.

Inclusion of all Trades.

May 24.—Mr. Nussey's amendment to extend the provisions of the Bill to all classes of trades and employment, and for making the Bill apply to "every workman."

Voted Against.

No "Contracting-out."

May 27.—Mr. Ascroft's amendment making null and void any agreement between employer and employed, for the purpose of contracting themselves out of the provisions of the Bill.

Voted Against.

Making the "Contracting-out" Schemes more beneficial to the Workman.

May 27.—Mr. Perks's amendment to prevent the employer contracting out of the Act, unless the scheme which the employer proposes to substitute for the provisions of the Act is more beneficial to the workman than the Act itself. Absent.

Inclusion of Agricultural Labourers.

July 8.—Mr. H. S. Foster's motion to include agricultural labourers. Voted Against.

Inclusion of Workshops.

June 1.—Mr. Tennant's amendment to include all Workshops within the scope of the Bill. Absent.

BURIALS BILL.

February 24.—Second reading of the Burials Bill, for remedying the various abuses connected with the law of the burials of Nonconformists and others. Voted Against.

THE BUDGET OF 1899.

Session 1899.

May 2.—Second Reading of the Finance Bill, legalising unsond finance involved in Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's raid upon the Sinking Fund. Voted For.

INDIAN COUNTERVAILING SUGAR DUTIES.

June 15.—Sir Henry Fowler's motion, "That an humble Address be presented to Her Majesty praying that Her Majesty will be pleased to disallow the Indian Tariff Act, 1899," being a protest against taking a Protectionist step in India, which would result in increasing the price of sugar in England. Voted Against the Address.

CLERICAL TITHES ACT.

Second Reading.

June 29.—Second Reading of the Tithes Rent Charge (Rates) Bill, a measure to relieve the clergy, wholly irrespective of the amount of their resources or the nature of their duties, from one half of their obligation to pay rates on their Tithes. Voted for.

Session 1900.

THE JAMESON RAID.

February 20.—Mr. D. A. Thomas's motion for a full inquiry into the Jameson Raid, and of all the circumstances connected with the Raid. Voted Against.

AGRICULTURAL HOLDINGS.

July 10.—Mr. Channing's amendment to the Agricultural Holdings Bill, providing compensation for disturbance, being a motion designed to protect the tenant farmer. Voted Against.

NEW CHAPEL, GIGGLESWICK SCHOOL.

T. G. JACKSON, R.A., ARCHITECT.

This striking addition to the fine landscape surroundings of Settle, in Yorkshire, is due to the generosity of Mr. Walter Morrison, M.P., and the foundation stone was laid yesterday by His Grace the Duke of Devonshire. Our illustration conveys an idea of the knoll of sandstone rock, rising steeply above the school buildings, on which the chapel will stand. The monumental form of the design, with its large copper-covered dome, will form a striking feature dominating the hill slopes above the town of Settle, and will in fact form a conspicuous object from the surrounding country in every direction.

The plan, which is unusual, consists of a Latin cross, with a dome over the crossing surrounded at the four angles by turrets, which are crowned by small cupolas. The choir is placed under the dome, and the shallow transepts contain each a gallery, that in the north transept being intended for the organ. The school will occupy the nave, which is lit by a lofty clerestory, and has a narrow and low aisle on each side for access to the pews. Owing to the rapid fall of the ground height is found under the chancel for a vestry, which will be reached by a stair in the N.E. turret.

The materials will be chiefly the local stone of various kinds, including a black lime-stone which will be used in bands and chequers with a lighter coloured masonry. The dome will be of concrete with a wooden covering laid with sheet copper, and it is to be surmounted by a stone lantern and a cross of gilded metal resembling those on Oriental churches.

The architect is Mr. T. G. Jackson, R.A., and the work is being carried out under his direction without a contractor by Mr. Evans, his clerk of works. The chapel will be heated with hot air by Messrs. Haden & Son, of Trowbridge.

Giggleswick School was founded and endowed by Royal Charter in the reign of King Edward VI., on the 26th of May, A.D., 1553, there having been for some years a school, built by James Carr in 1512, on the site which he had leased from the Prior and Convent of Durham. At different times in the long history of the school, and particularly in the earlier half of the present century, under the Rev. Rowland Ingram and Dr. G. A. Butterton, it enjoyed a good reputation in the north of England. More recently its rapid growth may be dated from the scheme of the Endowed Schools Commission in 1872.

The present head-master, the Rev. G. Style, has held office since 1869, and during his mastership the Governors have from time to time provided, according to the needs of the school, excellent school buildings. These now include laboratories and lecture-rooms for physical science, a drawing school, a library, a museum, a well-equipped gymnasium, a large covered playground, &c., &c. A large and well-arranged boarding-house has been built for about 150 boys, and other boarding-houses have been supplied for younger boys. Close to the school is a large swimming bath, and in the large room of the old school there is an admirable joiner's shop. The playing fields adjoin the school buildings, and are about 30 acres in extent. The buildings have most of them been erected by Messrs. Paley & Austin, of Lancaster. Up to the present time there has been no school chapel, and Mr. Morrison's munificence is now supplying this want.

GIGGLESWICK SCHOOL, YORKSHIRE.

Appointment of Head Master.

In accordance with the provisions of the Scheme made under the Endowed Schools Act, 1869, (by which Scheme, subsequently amended, the School is regulated), the Governors will proceed to appoint a Head Master who will be expected to enter upon his duties at the end of April, 1904, and they invite applications for the Office. The Head Master must be a Graduate of some University within the British Empire whose name is on Column B of the Register of Teachers formed and kept under an Order in Council of March, 1902, and must be under 45 years of age. No one is disqualified for being a Master in the School by reason only of his not being, or not intending to be, in Holy Orders. He must dwell in the residence assigned to him, which is close to the principal School Buildings, and which he will occupy without payment of rent, rates, or repairs.

Subject to the jurisdiction of the Governors, the Head Master will have under his control, the whole internal organisation, management, and discipline of the School. He will have the sole power of appointing and dismissing all Assistant Masters. But the Governors, after consultation with him, determine from time to time the number of Assistant Masters, and assign the amount to be paid out of the income of the Trust for Assistant Masters, proper plant, apparatus, etc. The School aims at supplying a sound general education, giving equal weight to scientific and literary subjects. Latin is taught throughout the School, and special provision is made for the Classical Education of those boys who are intended for a University career. The Governors have always laid stress on the thoroughness of the scientific instruction given in the School, and it is desired that the Head Master should be in sympathy with such instruction, and have some personal knowledge of modern methods of teaching science in Schools. Religious instruction is given generally throughout the School. For the Chapel Services the Head Master is now responsible; he is aided by an Assistant Chaplain.

The Head Master will receive (according to the Scheme) a fixed stipend of £200 a year, and also a yearly payment at the rate of £6 for each boy in the School up to the number of 200, and at the rate of £4 for each boy above that number. The number of day boys has recently fluctuated between 25 and 35. The Hostel, or principal Boarding House, has room for at least 140 boys, and there is accommodation for about 20 boarders in "Bankwell" (a house for boys under 13), and for about 10 little boys in "Hollybank."

The average number of boys in the School for the five years ending with 1903 was 167, for the five years ending with 1898 it was 178, and 200 for the five years ending 1893; the present number being 145. At the present time the Boarding Houses (except "Hollybank") are under the management of the Head Master; the Hostel being divided into five Dormitories, which are under the immediate charge of resident Assistant Masters. The Head Master (after consulting the Executive Committee of the Governing Body) appoints the Housekeepers, Boys' Matrons, School Porter, and others on the staff of servants; but he is assisted in this part of his work by one of his Colleagues, who acts as his Secretary and discharges some of the duties of a Bursar. He presents the Boarding House Monthly Accounts (which are prepared according to his instructions) to the Executive Committee. All accounts are paid through him. The Medical Officer of the School (appointed by the Governors) visits the School daily, and reports if necessary to him.

The Boarding Houses and School Buildings are well adapted to their several purposes; most of them have been recently built. They comprise "Big School" (in which there is an excellent organ) with many Class Rooms and Lecture Rooms, Physical and Chemical Laboratories, Library, Museum, Music Rooms, Gymnasium, Sanatorium, Covered Play Ground (100ft. by 50ft.), Swimming Bath, Joiners' Shop, etc. The Chapel, designed by Mr. T. G. Jackson, R.A., the gift of Mr. Morrison to commemorate the 60th year of the reign of Queen Victoria, has recently been added to the School Buildings. The Playing Fields are very extensive. The drainage and water supply are most satisfactory. The School Fees are at present £72 and £60 yearly for boarders according to age, and £12 for day boys.

There are a few exhibitions in the School for day boys. Boys educated at Giggleswick have a preference to two Carr Exhibitions at Christ's College, Cambridge; and they may compete for the Hastings Exhibitions at Queen's College, Oxford, and for the Ackroyd Scholarship.

The School stands in a beautiful and healthy situation. Giggleswick Station (Midland Railway) is a mile away, and the town and station of Settle the same distance.

Applicants are invited to state their age, to say whether they are married or unmarried, to give particulars of their career at School and at the University, and of their subsequent experience, and to send 25 copies of not more than six recent testimonials to
