NELSON'S FOOTWEAR

Now in its fifth generation, this thriving family business was first established in Chapel Street, Settle by Titus Nelson in 1847. In 1865 a move was made to premises in Duke Street where the business has remained ever since, still boasting a beautifully preserved Art Deco shopfront.

REMOVAL OF BUSINESS

TITUS NELSON

Has the pleasure to announce that he has entered upon the Shop lately occupied by Mr Mason, Duke Street, where he will keep a select assortment of

BOOTS & SHOES

Of the best quality, and hopes to be favoured with the custom of those who are desirous of being well and properly served.

Especial attention will be devoted to the Bospoka business. Repairs newly executed.

An assortment of French Goods including Ladies' House Boots, French Slippers, &c, just to hand.

Duke Street, Settle, Nov. 12th, 1865

Today, though still selling and making footwear for customers, a particular speciality is the hand-crafting of clogs, boots and shoes for period productions and historical re-enactments.
