 That I the said Alexander Calvert the Commissioner appointed under and by virtue of the before in part recited Act of parliament in pursuance thereof and in order to carry the same into execution Did attend at Whitehall on the twentieth day of July in the year one thousand eight hundred and fourteen and there took and subscribed the oaths appointed to be taken and subscribed by the said Act of the forty first year of the said late Majesty's Majesty before John Plummer Esquire one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace acting in and for the West Riding of the County of York. And in further pursuance and in exercise and execution of the several powers and authorities given to or vested in me as said Commissioner as aforesaid being so duly qualified as aforesaid I the said Alexander Calvert

Qualification of the Commissioner.

Claims of the Proprietors.

Do hereby certify and declare that at my two several meetings held in pursuance of in the said in part recited Act and of the said Act of the forty first year of the said late Majesty's Majesty at the House of Jeremiah Shawden Shalkeper in London in Shiblecote aforesaid on the sixth day of September and the third day of October within the year one thousand eight hundred and fourteen pursuant to public notice given in the manner prescribed by the said recited Act. I proceeded to get an account of the claims rights and interests of the several Proprietors and persons having or being entitled or claiming to be entitled to any right or interest in upon or over all and every of the said several common meadows and waste grounds respectively. And at my further Meeting held at the same place on the twentieth fifth day of the same month of October and at several other Meetings held subsequent to that time some of them by adjournment and others pursuant to notice for that purpose given. I have proceeded to hear and determine objections to said claims. And I have enquired into and duly and deliberately weighed and considered the same and have adjusted and determined all disputes and differences which have from time to time arisen and been agitated between and amongst the several proprietors and persons having or claiming to have any estate right or interest in upon or over the said common meadows and waste grounds under and by virtue of the said several powers and authorities delegated to me by the said in part recited Act of Parliament And I do further certify and declare that in further pursuance of the said Act of the forty first year of the said late Majesty Charles and of the said powers and authorities therein delegated to me I have caused to be made a true and perfect surveye and admeasurement and also maps or plans of the said town and waste grounds and also a like surveye and admeasurement of all the ancient inclosed lands and grounds within the Lower Division of Oxford in Shireshire aforesaid which surveye and admeasurement has been reduced into writing together the whole of the lands and grounds within the said Division (including that part of the estate at Osney Mead belonging to the said House of Christ Church containing four thousand and forty six acres and thirtie eight perches and situate within the aforesaid Division of Oxford in Shireshire aforesaid) appear to contain in statute measure seven thousand nine hundred and twenty six acres and thirtie nine perches whereas the ancient inclosures contain four thousand six hundred and twenty six acres three roods and twenty six perches and the town and waste grounds (by the said Act directed to be inclosed and reduced to a stint or subdivided and inclosed) in three thousand two hundred and thirtie nine acres one rood and thirtie perches And I do further certify and declare that since the rights and interests of the said several claimants were ascertained and settled and said surveye and admeasurement was perfected as aforesaid I the said Commissioner in pursuance of the said Act and in further execution of the powers therein vested in me have gone over and carefully viewed the said town and waste grounds respectively and deliberately considered the values and made estimates of the several parts of them respectively according to the best of my judgment in doing which I have had a due regard as well to the quality as quantity of the same and every part thereof And I have by writing under my hand set out and appointed ordered and directed such public and private carriage roads bridges and foot roads and highways as in my judgment are and will be necessary and convenient to be laid out and appointed through and over the said town and waste grounds so directed to be inclosed and reduced to a stint or subdivided and inclosed as aforesaid And I have also set out and appointed (as by the said Act I am authorized and required) do make and settle in parts of the said town and waste grounds as I have thought proper to be set out and appointed for the digging and getting turf and also for public stone quarries but not for any public watering places for cattle in which I have not found necessity to be provided. And I have also marked and set out so much and such part and parts of the said common and waste grounds as would in my judgment be most convenient to be sold for the purpose of defraying the costs charges and expences of obtaining and passing the above in part acted Act of Parliament of surveying valuing allotting and assigning the said common and waste grounds and for preparing that my Elward and all other the necessary acts and charges of me the said Commissioner in and about the execution of the said Act. And I have accordingly sold and disposed of the said several allotments so by me set out and appointed for that purpose as aforesaid for the best price and prices that could be gotten for the same. And I the said Alexander Calvert in further pursuance and execution of the said in part acted Act have caused the value of the said common and waste grounds to be inrolled by my surveyors. And I have also determined the proportional value of the said common and waste grounds for regulating the said value and the number of receipts or tickets which the same are capable of admitting or departing. And I have also set out appointed and limited the number of receipts tickets or tickets and parts and shares of tickets to which all and every the owners of messuages lands tenements or hereditaments are and shall be entitled for and in respect of their several and respective messuages lands tenements or hereditaments claims rights and interests in or upon the said common and waste grounds. And I have also set out assigned and allotted into and for parts of the said several proprietors and parties who by writing under their hands have made request to me in that behalf the allotment or allotments of and upon the said common and waste grounds in lieu of the benefits receipts or tickets or other right or interest which they were entitled to therein according and in proportion to the value of their respective estates having rights of common or other rights in or upon the said common or waste grounds in such manner as now and is in my judgment all things considered most equitable convenient and beneficial to and for each and every of them respectively without any partiality or undue preference to any of them. And I have duly and deliberately considered of every other matter or thing that has appeared to me proper and necessary to be considered and provided for by me for about or concerning the said division and inrolment reformable. And I the said Alexander Calvert do therefore for and upon the consideration aforesaid make publish deliver and declare this my Order Award
