

tribute
angers

angers from the
ived at Leeds
ight by special
then continued
th in another

engers were a nd two nuns.
the passengers
sly in the crash,
panic. We did
one else."

ald Garthwaite, Nottingham; his nd 3-month-old
ere among the n the first com-
crashed train.

said: "When
l on its side we
on top of one
in her carry-
top of the heap, atched. She did
'himper."

ve
e has been
and was going
his home in
with a baby
Robert Watson,
Glasgow. Mr.
lage covering a
Mrs. Watson
y food, because
aby was crying.
ished to supply
as soon happily

er, Mr. J. B.
secretary of
e Society, said:
train and the
arvellous."

Injured
of the over-
ere treated at
nsary.
-year-old John
ng Road, Leeds,
ck. Doctors told
ill right, but he
two days.
as 25-year-old
23, Wood Lane
He was treated ankle and then

of the red

ned at Skipton
orsley (63), of Knaresborough
and injuries).
(29), of Sandhill
y, Leeds (slight
y (70), Hatton
ies to left side
land (34), 483, (bruises).
Bull (32), of Westfield Lane,
head and leg
son, Keith (9).

family
70), of Crosland
eld (fractured
d Mrs. Lillian wife (fractured
t head).
Bull (32), 91,
Westfield Lane,
cut head and
ill (9), multiple
gs and chin;
Ferguson (21),
esay, injuries to
t;

Dewsbury woman

Mrs. Isabella Sinclair (68), 5, Westville, Thornhill Road, Dewsbury, bruises and abrasions;

Mr. Richard Baxter (52), 101, Carleton Road, Derby, injuries to head and left arm;

Mrs. Baxter, of same address (59), chest injuries and bruises;

Miss Anabella MacIntyre (30), 18, Canal Street, Paisley, bruises to chest;

Mrs. Anne Belle Robinson (62), 2, Hillfoot Terrace, Bearsden, Glasgow, abrasions to head;

Serious condition

Mrs. Mary Frances Williams (56), 75, Elford Grove, Leeds, fractured shoulder and head injuries who is in a serious condition, was transferred to Leeds General Infirmary.

Slightly injured

The following were treated at Skipton Hospital for minor injuries and slight shock and later allowed to go home:

Mrs. Dovey (61), of 8, Hatton Park, Alloa, Sinclair Watson (64), Park Street, Alexandria, Dumbar-tonshire, James Findlay, 29, Sand-hill Crescent, Alwoodley, Leeds, Mary Henderson (43), of 20, Brownhill Street, Fossil Park, Elsie Maggs (48), 3, Armthorpe Lane, Doncaster, Mrs. Austin (52), 229, Sutton Park Road, Kiddermin-ster.

Three from Wetherby

Stanley Thompson (40), Joyce Thompson (35), Brian Thompson (54), "C" Bungalow, Officers' Married Quarters, H.M.S. Ceres, Wetherby. Mary Evelyn Hart (63), 130, Thornbridge Drive Sheffield; Edwin Hart (66), of same address; Robert Crosland (44), Harold Crosland (no age given), 483, Spen Lane, Leeds.

In other hospitals

Admitted to Kendal County Hospital were:

John Paton (52), Hill View, Springfield, Gretna Green, head and shoulder injuries;

John Fergus (56), 6, Gardenside Street, Uddington, Glasgow, abra-sions.

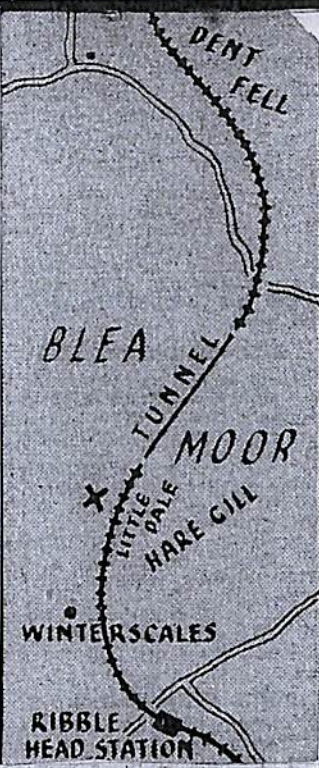

Admitted to Lancaster Royal Infirmary were:

Janet McCracken (46), 235, Arch Hill Road, Knightswood, Glasgow, head and body injuries.

Constance Rankin (58), Kimber-ley House, Leir, Rugby, head injuries.

Treated on spot and resumed journey:

Robert Watson (26), 16, Ashcroft Drive Glasgow, cuts on hand.

Bogies ripped from the overturned coaches

This picture, taken from a water tower nearby, shows how the force of the impact, as the express left the metals in yesterday's crash at Blea Moor, ripped the bodywork of some of the coaches completely from their bogies.