

A photograph of a stone building with a cobblestone path and two people in the foreground. The building is made of rough-hewn stone and has several chimneys on its roof. A large blue door is visible on the side of the building. In the foreground, two people are standing on a paved area, looking towards the building. One person is wearing a dark jacket and the other is wearing a teal jacket. The sky is overcast.

RYLSTONE INVESTIGATIVE PROJECT

Alison Armstrong

12 February 2013

Members out in August and November.

(Spot the difference in the weather...)

O.S. Map 1853

Orthostat walls

The Ragged Stone

Boss Moor coal pits

Acknaslate & Hamerton Hill Syke

Medieval features

The Church

Norman? Saxon?

Central Rylstone in 1893

SW Rylstone

Mill Gate Laithe

Site of the corn mill

Village buildings

JMR1680 & CB1670

