A narrow, cobblestone alleyway between stone buildings. On the left, a wall is covered in green ivy. A large stone archway in the center leads to a brightly lit area where a shop is visible. The shop's sign reads "Little Carpets, Beds & More". The scene is lit with natural light, creating strong shadows.

Garrets and ale:
some Craven hostelries
from inventories

Roads and Inns

1753 The Keighley-Kendal turnpike road
(The A65)

Toll bars at Gargrave and Runley Bridge, Settle

London 236 miles
Skipton 18

30

The old main road into Settle

Harts Head Inn, Bucker Brow, Giggleswick

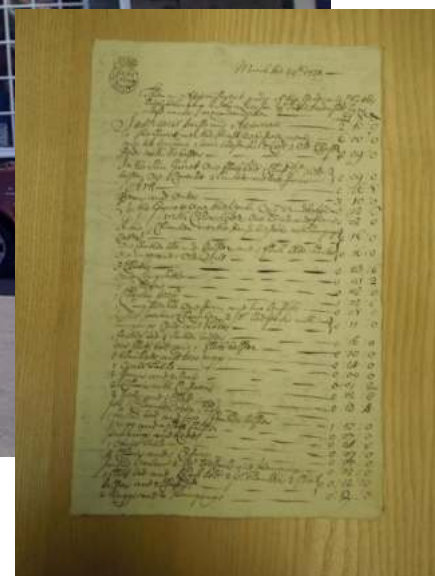

SETTLE; OS map c1847

And before town hall, c1830

Settle; a market town with typically tall buildings.

Sun Lambert's News
Daily Mail The Mail

TOYS SWEETS
PAPERS CARDS
GIFTS SERVICE

North Coast
age X

Premier

Premier

Datestones in Settle and the 17thC rebuilding.

In Settle 19 datestones show a peak in rebuilding in the 1670s

Joiners Arms 1774, Duck Street

The Joiners Arms and coaching yard 1774

FORMER INNS:
The Crown
(now Cave and Crag)

William the Fourth

New Inn

Spread Eagle Inn (coaches)

The Spread Eagle
(coaches)

The Black Bull (coaches)

Probate inventories for the town of Settle indicate rather large 17thC houses, with 3 storeys and 2 or 3 bays long.

Older three storey buildings were rebuilt in 18thC as two storey.
Golden Lion. White Horse.

The Folly 1679 R.L.P
Inventory 1695

