Giggleswick-in-Craven Church.

The Easter Sunday Offertories at Morning and Evening Prayer will be for the needful re-robing of the Choir. Kindly bear in mind that the expenses for so doing, imperative after a quarter of a century of constant wear and tear, will be extraordinarily severe owing to the abnormal rise in prices of material and labour: so please give as bountifully as you are able.

Dear Sir

As I understand that a movement is about to be made to restore Piffleswick church I write with a view of securing the appointment of architect.

As I am not personally known to all the members of the committee I enclose extracts from letters by the late Sir G. Gilbert Scott & I may say that ancient English architecture has been the special study of my life.

I am much interested in Piffleswick, having been connected with Settle & the neighbourhood since my childhood.

I forward with this an account I have written of the history & architecture of the church, which no doubt will be read with interest.

I am well acquainted with the church & its condition, and should be most happy to submit a scheme for the restoration - should the committee permit it - without committing them to any expense, unless the work comes to be actually carried out.

I have restored numerous old churches in different parts of the country and should any references be desired I would mention the Revd Hugh Bacon (son of the Vice-Chancellor) Baxterly Rectory near Atherstone & you could name many others.

I would suggest that a small sketch of the church be made together with a short notice of the requirements, to be printed on a card and issued with a view to collecting subscriptions. I have done this in some cases & shall be most happy to supply the sketch &c without charge, unless the restoration is carried out.

Trusting that my suggestion may be favourably received

I remain

Yours faithfully

Alfred Bickerdike

P.S. I noticed that the ~~S~~ North arcade is thrown out of the perpendicular to a serious extent.

This is not owing to the pressure of the roof, as is generally the case, but is caused by the weight of the gallery which hangs upon the arches on this side. It is fortunate that it has not yet brought them all down.

Consistory Court

In the last number of this Magazine we recorded the fact that a Petition for a Faculty to Restore the Ancient Parish Church of St. Alkelda, had been lodged at the Diocesan Registry.

In response to this, the Chancellor of the Diocese, The Worshipful Thomas H. Tristram, Q.C., D.C.L., who was accompanied by Mr. T. Greenwood Teale, the Diocesan Registrar, held a Consistory Court, in the Church, on Saturday, the 15th February, and a considerable number of pewholders and other persons interested in the Church were present.

After the Court had been duly opened, Mr. Thomas Brayshaw, Solicitor, appeared on behalf of the petitioners (viz.:—the Vicar and Churchwardens of Giggleswick, and the Chairman and Treasurer of the Restoration Committee), and supported their prayer for a faculty.

The Rev. H. J. Swale was called as a witness as to the necessity for the restoration, and various documents relating to the matter were put in.

The first question dealt with was the chancel pews, and in support of claimants to pews in this part of the Church, the Revs. G. Style and J. Stackhouse, and Messrs. Hartley, Charlesworth, and Perfect, were duly sworn and gave evidence.

The question of the chapels in the north and south aisles was next dealt with, and claims for faculty pews in the Stainford chapel were admitted; the one in the south aisle was not interfered with.

Coming next to the galleries, the faculties of Feb. 2nd, 1738, March 5th, 1742, Nov. 3rd, 1752, June 19th, 1770, March 4th, 1785, Feb. 9th, 1810, Dec. 17th, 1819, were put in, and claims were tendered on behalf of a number of persons at present owning pews in the various galleries.

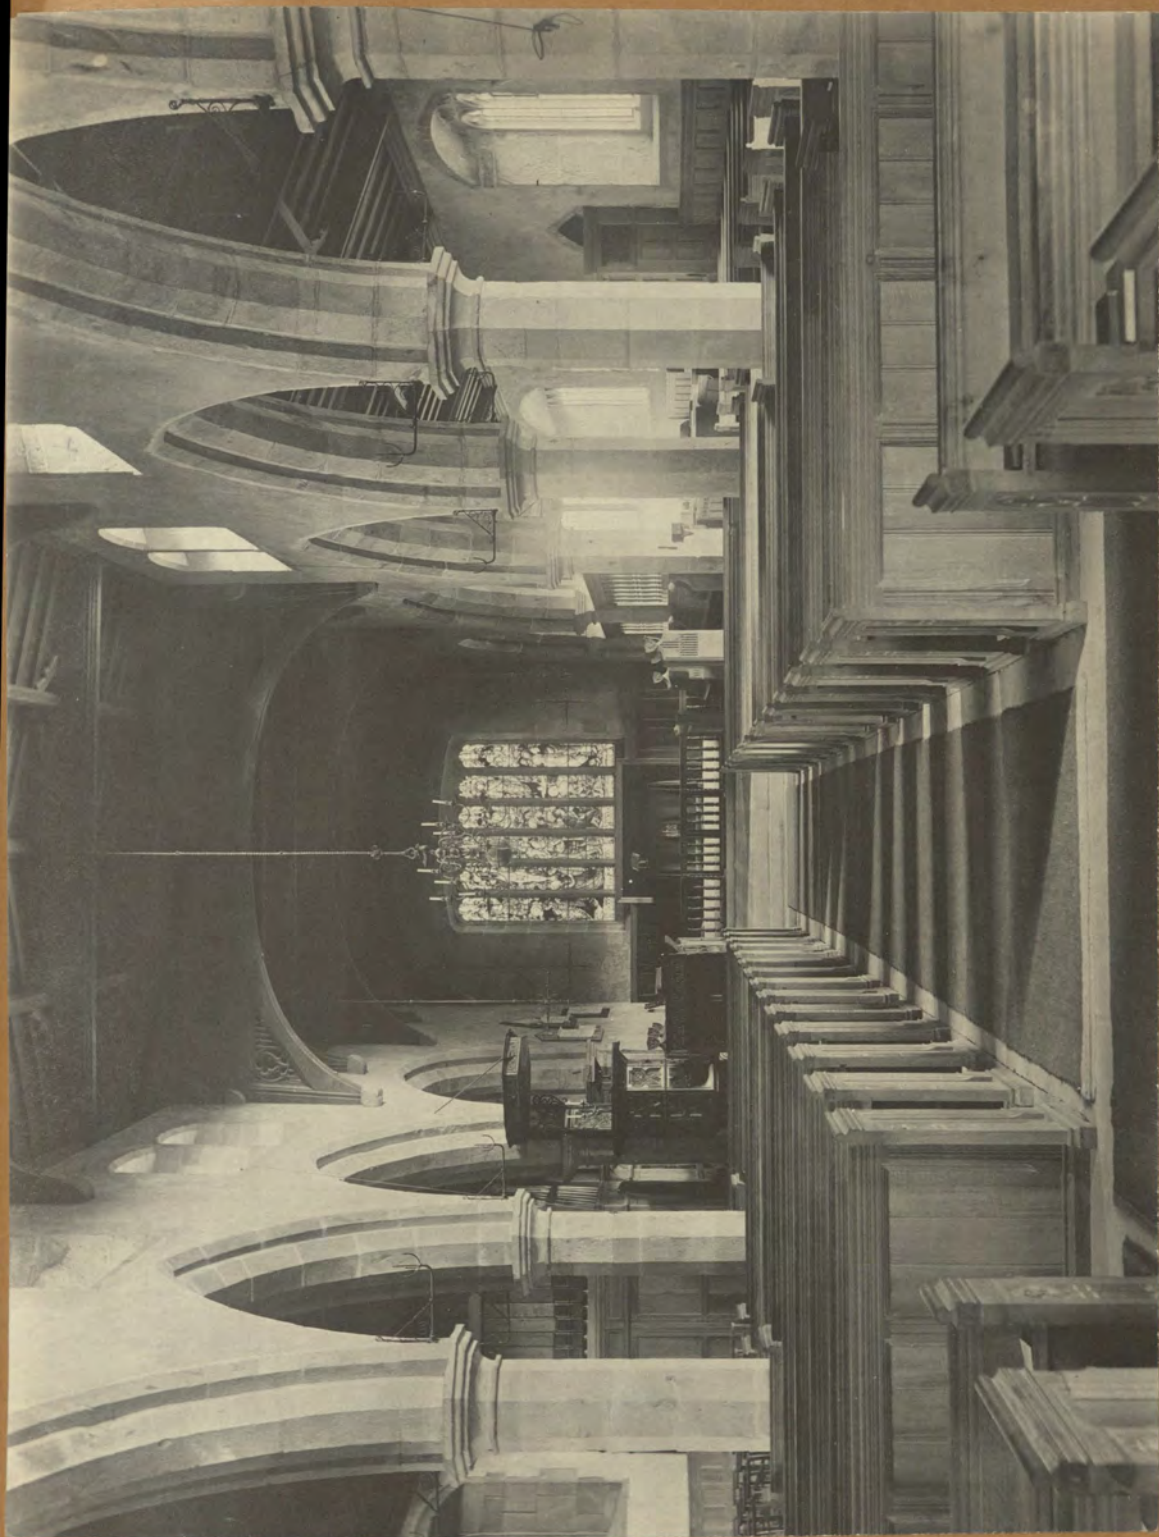

The question of seating those persons, at present occupying sittings under the general allotment of 1822, was next discussed, after which the general alterations and improvements in the Church were explained and examined into.

After a lengthy sitting the Chancellor gave his decision as follows:—He granted faculty pews in the body of the Church to owners of pews at present situate in the chancel, Stainford chapel and galleries on the same tenures as those on which they hold their pews at present. He annulled the allotment of 1822, and directed that the Building Committee should try and settle pews for the faculty pew owners, and make arrangements for allotting sittings to the rest of the parishioners, and report their proposed arrangements to him, when he would issue a supplementary faculty or order in Court. He directed that in such allotment, persons in the township of Giggleswick should have the preference. He also decreed a faculty, giving the petitioners the powers they prayed for as to the general Restoration of the Church.

Proposed Restoration

GIGGLESWICK CHURCH.

At a Meeting of the Twenty-four held on 11th of April last, a Resolution was passed in favour of the restoration of the Parish Church, and at the next meeting, held on 16th of May last, a Committee consisting of the Rev. H. I. Swale, Mr. Hector Christie and Mr. C. H. Charlesworth, was appointed to obtain a Report on the state of the Church, a Plan for its thorough restoration, and an Estimate of the cost of the same.

In accordance with these resolutions a Report upon the works required for the complete Restoration of the Church was prepared by Messrs. Paley and Austin of Lancaster which has received the provisional approval of the Vicar.

The plan is entirely conservative and will maintain the existing characteristics of the structure as distinct from the internal arrangements. The estimated cost is £3000.
