

FLATTS HOUSE

Or more correctly, the foundations of Flatts House, occupy the old barn site in Dickie Flatts, owned by Malcolm and Pat Campbell.

At present we live at Castle Farm in Arncliffe, farming Castle Farm, Low Ryelands , the Church land and some land at Stoneland`s. We are hoping to complete Flatts House for our retirement.

The Campbell family came to Littondale in 1898, Robert Campbell first farmed Cosh then Foxup Bridge. His son William, my grandfather was hind at Foxup House then farmed Sawyers Garth before moving to Deepdale. He and his sons John and Robert caught rabbits for a living. John, my father, farmed Broadshaw at Bolton Abbey, where I was born, before moving to Castle Farm when I was 2 years old. I farmed the Falcon land, then Stonelands, adding Sawyers Garth before moving back to the Castle. Father semi-retired to Sawyers Garth, hoping to cope for 5 years. He managed 14 before retiring to Settle at the age of 76!!
