

Alterations Feb 1964.

going on at Thomcliffe. first week there was Patricks clearing a drive for a lean to Garage. that is being put up and there is a regular mess all about.

This was before it was sold to Leslie Lund. W Walker had a Bungalow built on the site of the old Smiddy.

Now its looks Terrible a ¹⁹⁶⁵ Great Big wall has been put up to stop people looking in there are about 30 Cupressus trees been set on the Road side of the big wall 1980 its like a forest. its awful.

The Beech Tree was felled across the Road and Traffic was disrupted. Miss Heather told me how she had to go all the way back round by Skipton when she was going a Short cut has she thought to a Quids meeting at Chithroe. No Traffic control or anything who does he think he is.

L Land got tired of the House Sold it and Midgeley who Bought it never lived there but made a profit and Sold to Mr Stokes who lives here in 1940^s Sam died 1982 or 2 then after a while it was Sold

Mrs Stokes was in a Home for the VILLAGE INSTITUTE, HETTON.

Reading Room
 or Institute,

Just an Institute any longer it was made into a Bungalow during the late 1930 or Early 40s and it was used to house some Evacuees with a woman to look after them, then R. Proctor of Hetton had it for a Gardener, or gardener, various after his death it was sold for a £1000 to Tommy Tennant, his wife wasn't well and had to leave Bordley.

Now she's dead 1965 and Tommy is on his own
 Many More Trees when this Photo was taken

Now Tommy is dead 1972 and Kenneth has let it for £7 a week so the Stony goes to people are called Pickles, He works with Kenneth at Redford and Wynns at Skipton. Now Dec 15 1975 Pickles have gone to live at Haworth and James Reedy and Mavis are getting it decorated for their home when they get married 6th March all those who helped at the Centenary were given a supper afterwards and heard recordings of speeches etc made at the ~~Centenary~~ on a tape recorder, and one or two of the Chapel Organists recorded speeches that night to go along with the others to keep to be played back at different social occasions in the future, quite a number of Church people helped including myself.
